PREFACE.

The Compilers of Hymns Ancient and Modern are well aware that it is no light matter to put forth a revised and enlarged Edition of their Book. It is too widely used, and (perhaps they may add) too much loved, to allow of any change being made without good cause. But the very fact of its large circulation is their best apology for revision. It is a simple debt they owe to the Church. The fourteen years that have passed since their first copy was published have seen a great change in opinion on many points. For example, it is not necessary now, as it was thought to be then, to print an altered or shortened form of a good Hymn simply because it happened to be so used by certain congregations. No one wishes now to reprint tunes with unsatisfactory harmonies because we have been accustomed to them. The general desire is rather to have a Hymn as its author wrote it; and Compilers are expected not to make changes in it without strong reason. The best Musicians of the day are writing new Tunes and re-harmonizing old Melodies. New Hymns have been written to meet admitted needs. It would surely then have been almost a dereliction of their duty to the Church, if the Compilers of Hymns Ancient and Modern had not taken advantage of these altered circumstances.

They therefore now venture to offer what is not a new Book but a revised and enlarged Edition of the old. It contains nearly all the old Hymns, and most of the old Tunes; what have been omitted are such as were either seldom used, or have been replaced by better ones of a similar character. But the whole Book has been most carefully revised: in some Hymns the original text has been more closely followed; the Translations are in some cases improved; the Tunes are often better harmonized; a more orderly arrangement has been made, according to subjects, of the "General" Hymns; and a large number of new Hymns and Tunes are added, many of them written for this Book and now printed for the first time. Among the new Hymns may be mentioned especially those on the "Seven Words," which our Lord spoke on the Cross, as being likely to meet a want which is becoming every year more widely felt; and those for the
PREFACE.

For the use of Tunes that had been already published the Compilers desire to thank not only many of the foregoing Contributors, but also Mr. Turle, Organist of Westminster Abbey; Mr. Arthur Sullivan; Mr. John Hullah; Mrs. Havergal (for a Tune by her late husband, the Rev. W. H. Havergal, whose generous aid in this work will be always gratefully remembered); Mr. Richard Redhead (for Tunes inserted with the consent of Messrs. Masters & Co., and Messrs. Metzler & Co.); Mr. Walter B. Gilbert, Mus. Bac.; Mr. A. R. Reinagle; Mr. Henry Lahee; Mr. Wilhelm Schulthes; Mr. James Watson; Mr. Frederick Westlake (for a Tune inserted with the consent of Messrs. Burnes, Oates, & Co.); the Rev. R. F. Dale, Mus. Bac.; the Rev. T. R. Matthews; the Rev. R. R. Chope (for permission to insert the Tunes by Dr. Dykes to Hymns Nos. 21 (1st Tune), 99, 140 (2nd Tune), 260, 285, and 289, from his Hymn and Tune Book); the Rev. T. Darling (for permission to print from his "Hymns for the Church of England" Dr. Steggall's Tune to Hymn No. 233); Mr. Lamborn Cock (for permission to insert Dr. Steggall's Tune to Hymn No. 81); Messrs. Nisbet & Co. (for their generous permission to print Tunes which are their copyright); and the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge.

In conclusion the Compilers venture to repeat the words of their former preface, that "they have endeavoured to do their work in the spirit of the English Prayer-book, and in dependence on the grace of God;" and they commend to Him the result of what is, in all human probability, their last revision (a revision to which, perhaps, even more anxious thought and time has been given than was spent on their first work), in deep thankfulness for the wonderful success with which He has been pleased to bless their efforts hitherto, and with the earnest prayer that they may still "promote, in some degree, His greater glory, and the good of His Church."

January 21st, 1875.
The Compilers of Hymns Ancient and Modern having been repeatedly urged to supplement their Book with some additional Hymns, and having taken counsel with those upon whose judgment they could rely, undertook the work with a deep sense of the responsibility which they were incurring, and now humbly present the result of their endeavours. Whatever degree of success they may have attained is mainly due to the hearty co-operation of a large number of Clergy and Laity competent as Hymn-writers or as critics to take part in such a work, to whom they desire to tender their most grateful thanks. More especially they would acknowledge their deep indebtedness to the Rev. John Ellerton, the Rev. Canon A. J. Mason, the Rev. Canon Medd, the Rev. T. B. Pollock, the Rev. S. J. Stone, and the Rev. Canon H. Twells, for the time and labour which they have so ungrudgingly bestowed, and for their valuable contributions; to these names must be added that of one who has recently been called to his rest, the Rev. Jackson Mason, whose Hymns and Translations are among the choicest in their Supplement.

They desire further to express their obligations for the use of Hymns to the following: His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury; the Lord Bishop of Exeter; the Lord Bishop of Wakefield; Bishop Jenner; the Very Rev. the Dean of Rochester; the Very Rev. the Dean of Wells; Mrs. Alexander; Miss Dorothy Blomfield; the Rev. A. G. W. Blunt; the late Rev. Dr. Bonar; the Rev. G. H. Bourne, D.C.L.; the Rev. Canon Bright, D.D.; Mrs. Codner; Mrs. Cousin; the Rev. Sabine Baring-Gould; the Rev. E. Harland; Mrs. Hernaman; Thomas Hughes, Esq.; the Rev. S. J. Jones; the Rev. J. Julian; the Rev. R. F. Littledale, LL.D., D.C.L.; the Rev. R. M. Moorsom; F. T. Palgrave, Esq.; Miss Ellen M. Sewell; Miss Isabel Stephenson; Captain Turton, R.A.; Rev. J. R. Vernon; George Watson, Esq.; Rev. E. A. Welch; Rev. C. E. York; James Nisbet & Co. (for granting the use of a Hymn by Miss Havergall); the Rev. Canon Beadon (for the use of a Hymn by Bishop Woodford); Mr. J. T. Hayes (for the use of Hymns by Dr. Neale); Messrs. Burns & Oates (for the use of two Hymns by Rev. F. Faber, D.D.); the Rev. Canon Purse (for the use of a Hymn by Dr. Monsell); the Lord Bishop of Salisbury, and the Rev. Christopher Wordsworth (for the use of a Hymn by their father, Bishop Wordsworth).

With regard to the "Accompanying Tunes," the Compilers have thankfully committed the superintendence of this important part of their work to Professor W. H. Monk, Mus. Doc., who has received constant and valuable assistance from Sir John Stainer, late Organist of St. Paul's Cathedral; Dr. Charles Steggall, Organist to the Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn; and Mr. Charles Edward Stephens.

They thankfully acknowledge contributions, firstly, from the late Rev. Sir F. A. Gore Ouseley, Bart., Mus. Doc., Professor in the University of Oxford; from Sir Herbert Oakeley, LL.D., Mus. Doc., Professor in the University of Edinburgh; from Sir Robert Stewart, Mus. Doc., Professor in the University of Dublin; and from Sir George Elvey, Mus. Doc.

Also from many Musicians of distinguished merit: Dr. George C. Martin, of St. Paul's; Dr. Bridge, of Westminster Abbey; Mr. Charles Harford Lloyd, Mus. Bac., of Christ Church, Oxford; Dr. J. V. Roberts, of Magdalen College, Oxford; Dr. Garrett, of St. John's College, Cambridge; Dr. Longhurst, of Canterbury Cathedral; Mr. C. S. Jekyll, Organist of Her Majesty's Chapel Royal; Dr. C. W. Aylward, Mus. Bac.; Mr. Alfred J. Eyre; Mr. John Heywood; Dr. E. H. Turpin, F.C.O.; Mr. A. H. D. Prendergast; Mr. Cedric Bucknall, Mus. Bac.; Mr. Joseph Barnby, to whom they are indebted for several valuable contributions; Mr. W. C. Filby; Mr. T. L. Forbes; Rev. S. J. Rowton; Mr. J. A. Macmeikan, M.A.; Dr. F. H. Champneys; Mr. Gerard F. Cobb, M.A.; and Dr. Edwin George Monk.

Thanks are also due to the Lord Bishop of Lichfield (for leave to reprint two of his Tunes); to the Lord Bishop of Exeter (for "Pax Tecum," from the "Hymnal Companion"); to Mrs. Dykes (for a Tune by her late husband, an ever-to-be-remembered contributor to this Work); to Mrs. Brock (for Mr. Henry Smart’s “Moseley”); to the Rev. T. Darling (for “St. Clement” and “Bonar,” by Dr. C. Steggall); to the Rev. R. R. Chope (for “St. Osmund,” by Mr. H. S. Irons, taken from R. R. Chope’s “Carols for Use in Church”); to Miss Hodges (for a Tune by the late Dr. Edward Hodges); to the Rev. William Statham, Mus. Doc.; to the Rev. F. A. J. Hervey; to the Rev. W. Sloane Sloane-Evans; to the Rev. C. C. Scholesfield; to Mr. Spenser Nottingham (for the Melody of “Bride of Christ”); to Mr. T. Armstrong; and to Mrs. G. E. Cole.

A Tune by Sir George Macfarren appears by leave of Messrs. Burns & Oates; Mr. Prout’s “Cairnbrook,” by leave of the Rev. Dr. Hannay, on behalf of the Committee of the Congregational Union of England and Wales; Dr. S. S. Wesley’s “Engedi,” by leave of Rev. Frank Wesley; Mr. Forbes’ “Come sing,” by leave of the London Church Choir Association; and one by Mr. Barnby, from the “Sarum Hymnal,” by leave of the Right Hon. Earl Nelson.

Alternative Tunes have been provided for Hymns 98, 295, 350, 398, 437, and will be found immediately after Hymn 638.

Metronomic times have been marked, not only to the Tunes in the Supplement, but throughout the Book.

On the eve of the publication of the Book, to the completion of which his best energies had been given, Dr. Monk was taken to his rest.

In him the Church has lost one whose refined and devotional musical taste was not unimportant among those influences which have led, of late years, to so marked an improvement in the Services of the Sanctuary.

It is requested that all communications on musical matters may be addressed to Dr. Steggall, 8, Horbury Crescent, Notting Hill, London, W.

April 3rd, 1889.

MARKS OF EXPRESSION.

The marks of expression (p, mf, f, dim, cres, &c.) given in this Edition, are intended chiefly for the guidance of Choir and Congregation. Such marks vary in power according to the character of the words to which they are affixed; and an Organist will of course exercise his good taste as to which of the many combinations of stops at his command he will use in accompanying.

It should be particularly noticed that each mark is intended to "continue in force till another occurs.

METRONOME MARKS.

The beats of the Metronome, set to the number indicated in the margin, should be mentally compared with the movement of a group (of minims or crotchets, as may be) in a phrase of the Tune familiar to the Director of the Choir, and the Metronome then stopped; its beat being too rigid to allow of its use while the Choir sing. In most Tunes of four lines (c.m., l.m., &c.) it is best to sing lines 1 and 2 (or 3 and 4) as one phrase, not allowing a definite "pause" at the end of the first, except such as is inevitable for breath, which should be taken out of the last note of that line; not out of a pause for the purpose. At the end of the "even" lines a pause of greater length is not only necessary, but will assist the sense. In most cases a slight rallentando in the final cadence is in good taste, but it must not be noticeable.

THE PLAIN-SONG MELODIES.

"Much Plain-song music corresponds, to all intents and purposes, with simple music of a strictly mensurate kind,"* and in this Book will be found in the more modern and intelligible form, barred like any other, in Hymns 2, 9, 45, 49, 56, 96, 157, 177, 130, &c. In other cases it may not be possible to arrange the notes of a Plain-song melody in so modern a way, but the rate of movement may be approximately fixed by a reference to the Metronome, and so the rhythm brought out; remembering always that a certain freedom of movement (as contrary to strict time) is a characteristic of this music, and that the minims shown by slur or otherwise to belong to the same syllable, are not quicker than single notes. It is the neglect of this rule, more than anything else, which has sometimes made the performance of the Plain-song so uninteresting.

* Rev. T. Helmore, in "Primer of Plain-song."

Applications for grants of books to poor parishes (giving particulars of population, congregation, etc.) and for permission to print copyright Hymns and Tunes for Choral Festivals, should be addressed to the Chairman of the Committee of Hymns A. & M., care of Wm. CLOWES & SONS, Limited, 13, Charing Cross, London, S.W.
"Early in the morning will I direct my prayer unto Thee."

Now that the daylight fills the sky,
Now that the daylight fills the sky,
Now we, when this day's work is o'er,
May He restrain our tongues from strife,
May He restrain our tongues from strife,
May our inmost hearts be pure,
We lift our hearts to God on high,
We lift our hearts to God on high,
And shades of night return once more,
And shades of night return once more,
And thoughts of folly kept secure,
That He, in all we do or say,
That He, in all we do or say,
Our path of trial safely trod,
Would keep us free from harm to-day.
Would keep us free from harm to-day.
Shall give the glory to our God.
May He restrain our tongues from strife,
May He restrain our tongues from strife,
May our inmost hearts be pure,
And shield from anger's din our life,
And shield from anger's din our life,
And pride of sinful flesh subdued
And guard with watchful care our eyes
And guard with watchful care our eyes
From earth's absorbing vanities.
From earth's absorbing vanities.
From earth's absorbing vanities.
From earth's absorbing vanities.
From earth's absorbing vanities.
From earth's absorbing vanities.

All praise to God the Father be,
All praise to God the Father be,
All praise, Éternal Son, to Thee,
All praise, Éternal Son, to Thee,
For ever and for evermore.
For ever and for evermore.

A-men.
"He that followeth Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life."

JESU, Lord of light and grace,
Thou Brightness of the Father's Face,
Thou Fountain of eternal light,
True Day dispersing shades of night;

Come, Very Sun of heavenly love,
Come in Thy radiance from above,
And shed the Holy Spirit's ray
On every thought and sense to-day.

So we the Father's help will claim,
And sing the Father's glorious Name,
And His Almighty grace implore
That we may stand, to fall no more.

May He our actions deign to bless,
And quench the darts of wickedness;
In life's rough ways our feet defend,
And grant us patience to the end.

May faith, deep rooted in the soul,
Subdue our flesh, our minds control;
May guile depart, and discord cease,
And all within be truth and peace.

So let us gladly pass the day,
Our thoughts as pure as morning ray,
Our faith as noontide glowing bright,
Our minds undimm'd by shades of night.

All praise to God the Father be,
All praise, Eternal Son, to Thee,
Whom with the Spirit we adore
For ever and for evermore.
Morning.

Hymn 2. St. Bernard.—L.M. (Second Tune.)

"He that followeth Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life."

f 0 JESU, Lord of light and grace,
Thou Brightness of the Father's Face,

All praise, Eternal Son, to Thee,
Whom with the Spirit we adore
For ever and for evermore.

A - men.
"I myself will awake right early."

f Awake, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.

mf Redeem thy mis-spent time that's past,
And live this day as if thy last;
Improve thy talent with due care;
For the great day thyself prepare.

Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him, all creatures here below,
Praise Him above, Angelic host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Let all thy converse be sincere,
Thy conscience as the noon-day clear;
Think how all-seeing God thy ways
And all thy secret thoughts surveys.

A-men.
Hymn 3. (Second Part.)
Canon.—L.M.

"I myself will awake right early."

PART 2.

Glory to Thee Who safe hast kept,
And hast refresh’d me whilst I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake.

Lord, I my vows to Thee renew;
 Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.

Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him, all creatures here below,
Praise Him above, Angelic host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

"His compassions fail not: they are new every morning."

New every morning is the love
Our wakening and uprising prove;
Through sleep and darkness safely brought,
Restored to life, and power, and thought.

The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we need to ask,
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of Heav'n.

Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love
Fit us for perfect rest above;
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

If on our daily course our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

Hymn 5. St. Timothy.—C.M.

"Whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God."
"Do all in the name of the Lord Jesus."

My Father, for another night
Of quiet sleep and rest,
For all the joy of morning light,
Thy Holy Name be blest.

Now with the new-born day I give Myself anew to Thee,
That as Thou willest I may live,
And what Thou willest be.

Whate'er I do, things great or small,
Whate'er I speak or frame,
Thy glory may I seek in all,
Do all in Jesus' Name.

My Father, for His sake, I pray,
Thy child accept and bless;
And lead me by Thy grace to-day
In paths of righteousness.

Morning.

"Hold Thou me up, and I shall be safe: yea, my delight shall be ever in Thy statutes."

\[mf\] At Thy feet, O Christ, we lay
Thine own gift of this new day;
Doubt of what it holds in store
Makes us crave Thine aid the more;
Lest it prove a time of loss,
Mark it, Saviour, with Thy Cross.

If it flow on calm and bright,
Be Thyself our chief delight;

\[p\] If it bring unknown distress,
Good is all that Thou canst bless;

\[cr\] Only, while its hours begin,
Pray we, keep them clear of sin.

\[mf\] We in part our weakness know,
And in part discern our foe;
Well for us, before Thine Eyes
All our danger open lies;

\[p\] Turn not from us, while we plead
Thy compassions and our need.

\[mf\] Fain would we Thy Word embrace,
Live each moment on Thy grace,
All our selves to Thee consign,
Fold up all our wills in Thine,
Think, and speak, and do, and be Simply that whichpleasesthee.

Hear us, Lord, and that right soon;
Hear, and grant the choicest boon
That Thy love can e’er impart,
Loyal singleness of heart;

\[f\] So shall this and all our days,
Christ our God, show forth Thy praise.

Amen.
CHRIST, Whose glory fills the skies,
Christ, the true, the only Light,
Sun of Righteousness, arise,
Triumph o'er the shades of night;

Unaccompanied by Thee;

My daily labour to pursue;

And every moment watch and pray,
And still to things eternal look,

The task Thy wisdom hath assign'd
O let me cheerfully fulfil;
In all my works Thy presence find,
And prove Thy good and perfect Will.

mf For Thee delightfully employ Whate'er Thy bounteous grace hath given,
And run my course with even joy,
And closely walk with Thee to Heav'n.

Thee may I set at my right hand,
Whose eyes my inmost substance see,
And labour on at Thy command,
And offer all my works to Thee.

Hymn 18. SEBASTE.—Irregular.

Hail, gladdening Light, of His pure glory pour'd

Who is the Immortal Father, Heavenly, Blest,

Holiest of Holies, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Now we are come to the sun's hour of rest, The lights of evening round us shine,
We hymn the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit Divine.

Worthiest art Thou at all times to be sung With undefiled tongue,

Son of our God, Giver of life, Alone! Therefore in all the

And spent too soon her golden store; In undivided empire reign,
The shadows of departing day And thronging Angels never cease
p Creep on once more. Their deathless strain;—

Our life is but a fading dawn, Where Saints are clothed in spotless white,
Its glorious noon how quickly past; And evening shadows never fall, mf O by Thy soul-inspiring grace Where Thou, Eternal Light of Light, Uplift our hearts to realms on high; Art Lord of all,

Help us to look to that bright place
Beyond the sky;—
"And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto Him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils. And all the city was gathered together at the door."

And none, O Lord, have perfect rest, For none are wholly free from sin; And they, who fain would serve Thee best, Are conscious most of wrong within.

O Saviour Christ, Thou too art Man; Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried; Thy kind but searching glance can scan
The very wounds that shame would hide;

Thy touch has still its ancient power; No word from Thee can fruitless fall; p
Hear, in this solemn evening hour,
And in Thy mercy heal us all.

Hymn 33. INNOCENTS.—7 7 7 7.

Morning.

"In Thy light shall we see light."

MORN of morns, and day of days!
Beauteous were thy new-born rays:
Brighter yet from death's dark prison
Christ, the Light of lights, is risen.

He commanded, and His Word
Death and the dread chaos heard:
Oh, shall we, more deaf than they,
In the chains of darkness stay?

* Nature yet in shadow lies;
* Let the sons of light arise,
* And prevent the morning rays
* With sweet canticles of praise.

*While the dead world sleeps around,
Let the sacred temples sound
Law, and prophet, and blest psalm
Lit with holy light so calm.

Unto hearts in slumber weak
Let the heavenly trumpet speak;
And a newer walk express
Their new life to righteousness.

Grant us this, and with us be,
O Thou Fount of charity,
Thou Who dost the Spirit give,
Bidding the dead letter live.

Glory to the FATHER, SON,
And to Thee, O HOLY ONE,
By Whose quickening Breath Divine
Our dull spirits burn and shine.

* These verses should be sung only at a very early Service.

Sunday.

"And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. . . . And the evening and the morning were the first day."

Morning.

On this day, the first of days,
God the Father's Name we praise;
Who, creation's Lord and Spring,
Did the world from darkness bring.

On this day the Eternal Son
Over death His triumph won;
On this day the Spirit came
With His gifts of living flame.

O that fervent love to-day
May in every heart have sway,
Teaching us to praise aright
God the Source of life and light.

Father, Who didst fashion me
Image of ThyselH to be,
Fill me with Thy love Divine,
Let my every thought be Thine.

Holy Jesus, may I be Dead and buried here with Thee;

And, by love inflamed, arise
Unto Thee a sacrifice.

Thou Who dost all gifts impart,
Shine, Sweet Spirit, in my heart;
Best of gifts Thyself bestow;
Make me burn Thy love to know.

Hymn 36. Wordsworth.—7 6 7 6 7 6 7 6.
Sunday.

"The first day of the week."

O DAY of rest and gladness,
O day of joy and light,
O balm of care and sadness,
Most beautiful, most bright;
On thee the high and lowly,
Before the Eternal Throne,
Sing Holy, Holy, Holy,
To the great Three in One.

On thee, at the creation,
The light first had its birth;
On thee for our salvation
Christ rose from depths of earth;
On thee our Lord victorious
The Spirit sent from heaven;
And thus on thee most glorious
A triple light was given.

Thou art a cooling fountain
In life's dry dreary sand;
From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
We view our promised land;
A day of sweet reflection,
A day of holy love,
A day of resurrection
From earth to things above.

To-day on weary nations
The heavenly Manna falls,
To holy convocations
The silver trumpet calls,
Where Gospel-light is glowing
With pure and radiant beams,
And living water flowing
With soul-refreshing streams.

New graces ever gaining
From this our day of rest,
We reach the Rest remaining
To spirits of the blest;
To Holy Ghost be praises,
To Father, and to Son;
The Church her voice upraises
To Thee, Blest Three in One.

Amén.
Hymn 37. Dominica.—S.M.

"I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day."

mf  THIS is the day of light:
    Let there be light to-day;
0  Day-spring, rise upon our night,
    And chase its gloom away.

p  This is the day of prayer:
    Let earth to Hea'n draw near;
cr  Lift up our hearts to seek Thee there,
    Come down to meet us here.

p  This is the day of rest:
    Our failing strength renew;
On weary brain and troubled breast
    Shed Thou Thy freshening dew.

This is the day of peace:
    Thy peace our spirits fill;
cr  Bid Thou the blasts of discord cease, dim  The waves of strife be still.

f  This is the first of days:
    Send forth Thy quickening Breath,
And wake dead souls to love and praise,
    O Vanquisher of death.

A - men.
The day is Thine, and the night is Thine.”

Evening.

Blest Creator of the light,
Making day with radiance bright,
Thou didst o’er the forming earth
Give the golden light its birth.

Shade of eve with morning ray
Took from Thee the name of day;
Darkness now is drawing nigh;
Listen to our humble cry.

May we ne’er by guilt depress’d
Lose the way to endless rest;
Nor with idle thoughts and vain
Bind our souls to earth again.

Rather may we heavenward rise
Where eternal treasure lies;
Purified by grace within,
Hating every deed of sin.

Holy Father, hear our cry
Through Thy Son our Lord most High,
Whom our thankful hearts adore
With the Spirit evermore.

A-men.
Sing we the glory of our God,
Who on the second day
Spread out the firmament above,
His wonders to display.

There, floating in the blue expanse,
The watery clouds we view,
Whence fruitful showers at His command
The thirsty soil bedew.

How fair an image of the grace
Which Thou, Lord, dost impart,
Like morning dew or gentle rain,
To gladden every heart.

And when the faithful soul drinks in
Those showers with blessings rise,
A well of water springeth up
To everlasting life.

O happy saints, on whom are pour'd
Such treasures from above!
Lord, may they ne'er forgetful be,
But render love for love.

To God, Who freely loved us first,
All might, all glory be,
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Through all eternity.

A-men.
And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so. . . . And the evening and the morning were the third day.

Thou spakest, Lord, and into one
The floods together flow'd;
Freed from its watery veil, the land
Its verdant pastures show'd.

O Father, Who the earth hast given
Our place of toil to be,
Knit all within its one wide bound
In one true charity.

Strangers and pilgrims here below,
We seek a home above,
Where Thou wilt gather in Thine own
Who live in holy love.

Unloving souls, with deeds of ill
And words of angry strife,
Shall never, Lord, Thy glory see,
Nor win the heavenly life.

The earth itself from day to day
Their burden scarce sustains,
And yearns, in travail, to be free
From dark corruption's chains.

Yea, we too groan within ourselves,
And that adoption wait
For which the Holy Spirit's seal
Did us predestinate.

Eternal glory be ascribed
To God, the One in Three,
By Whom is pour'd into our hearts
The grace of charity.
"And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven . . . and it was so . . . And the evening and the morning were the fourth day."

NEW wonders of Thy mighty hand,
Lord, we to-day admire,
Writ on the firmament above
In glittering orbs of fire.

The sun is ruler of the day,
The silver moon of night,
The starry hosts adorn the sky
In order'd ranks of light.

But e'en that glorious sun must set,
And knows his going down,
That silver moon must wax and wane,
The stars their courses own.

Hymn 42. St. Flavian.—C.M.

Jntrstmg,

And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth. . . . And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

The fish in wave, the bird on wing,
God bade the waters bear;
Each for our mortal body's food
His gracious hands prepare.

But other food, of richer cost,
The immortal spirit needs;
By faith it lives on every word
That from His mouth proceeds.

Faith springing from the Blood of Christ
Has flow'd o'er every land;
And sinners through the vanquish'd world
Bow down to its command.

Its light the joy of Heaven reveals
To hearts made pure within;
And bids them seek by worthy deeds
Eternal crowns to win.

By faith the saints of old were strong
The lion's wrath to tame; the tyrant's threats,
By faith they spurn'd the raging flame.

Lord, grant that we the path may tread
Whereon its light doth shine;
And gather, as we onward go,
The fruits of love Divine.

O praise the Father; praise the Son,
On Whose most precious Blood
Rests all our faith; and praise to Him
Who with Them Both is God.
Hymn 43. WINDSOR.—C.M.

"And God said, Let Us make man in Our image. . . . And the evening and the morning were the sixth day."

TO-DAY, O Lord, a holier work.
Thy secret counsels frame,
A king to rule Thy new-made world,
To praise Thy glorious Name.

Thou formest man: Thy Spirit breathes
Life into dust of earth:
Man, in Thine own true Image made,
From Thee receives his birth.

And henceforth he dominion holds
O'er all in earth and sea;
Yet mindful whence his being came
Must humbly walk with Thee.

Alas! his wilful heart rebels
Against Thy gentle sway;
Proud dust of earth would fain be like
The God Whom all obey.

O griefs and sorrows numberless,
Which hence the world o'erspread;
Jesus, Thy mercy succour'd us,
Or hope itself had fled.

O praise the Father, and the Son
Who saved us by His death,
And Holy Ghost Who quickens us
With His life-giving breath.

A-men.
And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had made.

SIX days of labour now are past;
Thou restest, Holy God;
And of Thy finish'd work hast said
That all is very good.

Yet while the seventh day is bless'd,
Hallow'd for rest Divine,
Behold, a new creation needs
That mighty power of Thine.

Ten thousand voices praise Thy Name
In earth and sea and sky;
One sinner by his sin has marr'd
The blissful harmony.

O Lord, create man's heart anew,
The heart of stone remove:
Then hymns of praise again shall rise,
The fruits of holy love.

O for the songs that Thou wilt bless,
Where heart and voice agree;
O for the prayers that plead aright
With Thy dread Majesty.

All praise to God, the THREE in ONE,
Who high in glory reigns;
Who by His Word hath all things made,
And by His Word sustains.

Hymn 45. Conditor Alme.—L.M.

CREATOR of the starry height,
Thy people’s everlasting Light,
JESU, Redeemer of us all,

Hear Thou Thy servants when they call.
Thou, sorrowing at the helpless cry
Of all creation doom’d to die,

Didst save our lost and guilty race
By healing gifts of heavenly grace.

When earth was near its evening hour,
Thou didst, in love’s redeeming power,
Like bridegroom from his chamber, come
Forth from a Virgin-mother’s womb.

At Thy great Name, exalted now,
All knees in lowly homage bow;
All things in Heav’n and earth adore,
And own Thee King for evermore.

To Thee, O Holy One, we pray,
Our Judge in that tremendous day,
Ward off, while yet we dwell below,
The weapons of our crafty foe.

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Praise, honour, might, and glory be
From age to age eternally.

"His name is called The Word of God."

mf O HEAVENLY Word, Eternal Light, Begotten of the Father's Might,
Who, in these latter days, art born
For succour to a world forlorn;

Our hearts enlighten from above,
And kindle with Thine own true love;
That we, who hear Thy call to-day,
May cast earth's vanities away.

And when as Judge Thou drawest nigh,
The secrets of all hearts to try;

p O let us not, for evil past,
Be driven from Thy Face at last;
cr But with the blessed evermore
Behold Thee, love Thee, and adore.

f To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,

"Now it is high time to awake out of sleep."

HARK! a thrilling voice is sounding; "Christ is nigh," it seems to say; "Cast away the dreams of darkness, O ye children of the day!"

Waken'd by the solemn warning,
Let the earth-bound soul arise;
Christ, her Sun, all ill dispelling,
Shines upon the morning skies.

Lo! the Lamb, so long expected,
Comes with pardon down from Heav'n;
Let us haste, with tears of sorrow,
One and all to be forgiven;

That when next He comes with glory,
And the world is wrapp'd in fear,
With His mercy He may shield us,
And with words of love draw near.

"He hath sent Me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives."

fARK the glad sound! the Saviour comes, p He comes, the broken heart to bind,

Let every heart prepare a throne, And with the treasures of His grace
And every voice a song. To bless the humble poor.

In Satan's bondage held; Our glad hosannas, Prince of peace,
The gates of brass before Him burst, Thy welcome shall proclaim;
The iron fetters yield. And Heavn's eternal arches ring
With Thy beloved Name.

Hymn 55. Redemptor mundi.—10 10 10 10.
“The Word was made flesh.”

COME, Redeemer of mankind, appear,
Thrice with full hearts the Virgin-born we greet;
Let every age with rapt amazement hear
That wondrous birth which for our God is meet.

Not by the will of man, or mortal seed,
But by the Spirit’s breathed mysterious grace

The Word of God became our flesh indeed,
And grew a tender plant of human race.

Lo! Mary’s virgin womb its burthen bears,
Nor less abides her virgin purity;
In the King’s glory see our nature shares;
Here in His temple God vouchsafes to be.

From His bright chamber, virtue’s holy shrine,
The royal Bridegroom cometh to the day;
Of twofold substance, human and Divine,
As giant swift, rejoicing on His way.

Forth from His Father to the world He goes,
Back to the Father’s Face His way regains,
Far down to souls beneath His glory shows,
Again at God’s right hand victorious reigns.

With the Eternal Father equal, Thou
Girt with our flesh dost triumph evermore,
Strengthening our feeble bodies here below
With endless grace from Thine own living store.

How doth Thy lowly manger radiant shine!
On the sweet breath of night new splendour grows;
So may our spirits glow with faith Divine,
Where no dark cloud of sin shall interpose

All praise and glory to the Father be,
All praise and glory to His Only Son,
All praise and glory, Holy Ghost, to Thee,
Both now, and while eternal ages run.

f “Tis Thou hast saved us, Thou alone.”
He is our Peace.

GOD from on high hath heard;
Let sighs and sorrows cease;
Lo! from the opening Heav'n descends
To man the promised Peace.

Hark! through the silent night
Angelic voices swell;
Their joyful songs proclaim that "God
Is born on earth to dwell."

See how the shepherd-band
Speed on with eager feet;
Come to the hallow'd cave with them
The Holy Babe to greet.

But, oh, what sight appears
Within that lowly door!

A manger, stall, and swaddling clothes,
A Child, and Mother poor!

Art Thou the Christ? the Son?
The Father's Image bright?
And see we Him Whose Arm upholds
Earth and the starry height?

Yea, faith can pierce the cloud
Which veils Thy glory now;
We hail Thee God, before Whose Throne
The Angels prostrate bow.

A silent Teacher, Lord,
Thou bidd'st us not refuse
To bear what flesh would have us shun,
To shun what flesh would choose.

Our sinful pride to cure
With that pure love of Thine,
O be Thou born within our hearts,
Most Holy Child Divine.

"Let us now go even unto Bethlehem."

1. O come, all ye faithful, Joyful and triumphant, O
2. God of God, Light of Light,
3. Sing, choirs of Angels, Sing in exultation,
4. Yea, Lord, we greet Thee, Born this happy morning;

Come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Lo! He abhors not the Virgin's womb;
Sing, all ye citizens of Heav'n above:
Jesus, to Thee be glory given;

Come and behold Him Born, the King of Angels;
Very God, Begotten, not created;
"Glory to God In the highest;"
Word of the Father, Now in flesh appearing;

Glory to the new-born King.

Peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled.

Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
Join the triumph of the skies;
With the Angelic host proclaim,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem."

Hark! the herald-angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.

Christ, by highest Heav’n adored,
Christ, the Everlasting Lord,
Late in time behold Him come,
Offspring of a Virgin’s womb.

Veil’d in flesh the Godhead see!
Hail, the Incarnate Deity!
Pleased as Man with man to dwell,

Hark! the herald-angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.

Hail, the heaven-born Prince of peace!
Hail, the Sun of righteousness!
Light and life to all He brings,
Risen with healing in His wings.

Born to give them second birth.

Hymn 61. Yorkshire.—10 10 10 10 10 10.
Christmas.

"Behold I bring you good tidings of great joy."

CHRISTIANS, awake, salute the happy morn,
Whereon the Saviour of the world was born;
Rise to adore the mystery of love,
Which hosts of Angels chanted from above;
With them the joyful tidings first begun
Of God Incarnate and the Virgin’s Son.

Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,
Who heard the Angelic herald’s voice, “Behold,
I bring good tidings of a Saviour’s birth
To you and all the nations upon earth:
This day hath God fulfill’d His promised word,
This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord.”

He spake; and straightway the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire:
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And Heav’n’s whole orb with Alleluias rang:
God’s highest glory was their anthem still,
Peace upon earth, and unto men good will.

To Bethlehem straight the enlighten’d shepherds ran,
To see the wonder God had wrought for man,
And found, with Joseph and the Blessed Maid,
Her Son, the Saviour, in a manger laid:
Then to their flocks, still praising God, return,
And their glad hearts with holy rapture burn.

O may we keep and ponder in our mind
God’s wondrous love in saving lost mankind;
Trace we the Babe, Who hath retrieved our loss,
From His poor manger to His bitter Cross;
Tread in His steps, assisted by His grace,
Till man’s first heavenly state again takes place.

Then may we hope, the Angelic hosts among,
To sing, redeem’d, a glad triumphal song:
He that was born upon this joyful day
Around us all His glory shall display;
Saved by His love, incessant we shall sing
Eternal praise to Heav’n’s Almighty King.

A-men.
"Unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord."

"The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view display'd,
All meanly wrapp'd in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."

Thus spake the seraph; and forthwith
Appear'd a shining throng
Of Angels praising God, who thus Address'd their joyful song:

"To you in David's town this day
Is born of David's line
A Saviour, Who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:

"Fear not," said he; for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind;
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind.

"All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
Good will henceforth from Heav'n to men
Begin and never cease."
"The Lord is our defence."

For a Late Evening Service.

mf O Saviour, Lord, to Thee we pray,
Whose love has kept us safe to-day,
Protect us through the coming night,
And ever save us by Thy might.

p Be with us now, in mercy nigh,
And spare Thy servants when they cry;
Our sins blot out, our prayers receive,
cr Thy light throughout our darkness give.

mf Let not dull sleep the soul oppress,
Nor secret foe the heart possess;
Our flesh keep chaste, that it may be
A holy temple meet for Thee.

To Thee, Who dost our hearts renew,
With fervent prayer we humbly sue.
That pure in thought and free from stain
We from our beds may rise again.

f All praise to God the Father be,
All praise, Eternal Son, to Thee,
Whom with the Spirit we adore
For ever and for evermore.

St. Stephen’s Day.

"He, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up steadfastly into Heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God."

mf YESTERDAY, with exultation,
Join’d the world in celebration
Of her promised Saviour’s birth;
Yesterday the Angel-nation
Pour’d the strains of jubilation
O’er the Monarch born on earth;

For the crown that fadeth never
Bear the torturer’s brief endeavour;
Victory waits to end the strife:
Death shall be thy life’s beginning,
And life’s losing be the winning
Of the true and better life.

But to-day o’er death victorious,
By his faith and actions glorious,
By his miracles renown’d,
See the Deacon triumph gaining,
‘Midst the faithless faith sustaining,

Fill’d with God’s most Holy Spirit,
See the Heav’n thou shalt inherit,
Stephen, gaze into the skies:
Theve God’s glory steadfast viewing,
Thence thy victor-strength renewing,
Pant for thy eternal prize.

mf Onward, champion, falter never,
Sure of sure reward for ever,
Holy Stephen, persevere;

See how Jesus stands to aid thee,
Stands at God’s right hand on high:
Tell how open’d Heav’n is shown thee,
Tell how Jesus waits to own thee,
Tell it with thy latest cry.

Thine own Witness is in Heaven,
True and faithful, to thee given,

For the crown of righteousness.

Hymn 65. Lübeck.—7 7 7 7.

"Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."

Oh, how blessed first to be
Slain for Him Who bled for thee;
First like Him in dying hour
Witness to Almighty power;
First to follow where He trod
Through the deep Red Sea of blood;
First, but in thy footsteps press
Saints and Martyrs numberless.

FIRST of Martyrs, thou whose name
Doth thy golden crown proclaim,
Not of flowers that fade away
Weave we this thy crown to-day.

Slain for Him Who bled for thee;
First like Him in dying hour
Witness to Almighty power;
First to follow where He trod
Through the deep Red Sea of blood;
First, but in thy footsteps press

Sprinkled with thy life-blood's stream;
Stars around thy sainted head
Never could such radiance shed.

First to follow where He trod

First, but in thy footsteps press

St. John the Evangelist's Day.

"The disciple whom Jesus loved."

\[mf\] WORD Supreme, before creation
   Born of God eternally,
Who didst will for our salvation
   To be born on earth, and die;
Well Thy Saints have kept their station,
   Watching till Thine hour drew nigh.

Much he ask'd in loving wonder,
   On Thy Bosom leaning, Lord;
In that secret place of thunder
   Answer kind didst Thou accord,
Wisdom for Thy Church to ponder
   Till the day of dread award.

Now 'tis come, and faith espies Thee;
   Like an eaglet in the morn,
One in steadfast worship eyes Thee,
   Thy beloved, Thy latest born:
In Thy glory he descries Thee
   Reigning from the Tree of scorn.

Lo! Heav'n's doors lift up, revealing
   How Thy judgments earthward move;
Scrolls unfolded, trumpets pealing,
   Wine cups from the wrath above;
Yet o'er all a soft voice stealing—
   "Little children, trust and love!"

\[p\] He upon Thy Bosom lying

Thee, the Almighty King Eternal,
   Father of the Eternal Word,
Thee, the Father's Word Supernal,
   Thee, of Both, the Breath adored,

The Child he sought alone went free;
That Child is King eternally.

First victims offer'd for the Lord,
Ye little knew your high reward,

With palms and crowns ye seem'd to play.

Hymn 69. St. Helena.—S.M.

GLORY to Thee, O Lord,
Who, from this world of sin,
By cruel Herod's ruthless sword
Those precious ones didst win.

O that our hearts within,
Like theirs, were pure and bright;
O that as free from stain of sin
We shrank not from Thy sight.

Baptized in their own blood,
Earth's untried perils o'er,
They pass'd unconsciously the flood,
And safely gain'd the shore.

Lord, help us every hour
Thy cleansing grace to claim;
In life to glorify Thy power,
In death to praise Thy Name.

Glory to Thee for all
The ransom'd infant band,
Who since that hour have heard Thy call,
And reach'd the quiet land.

"They are without fault before the throne of God."
"When eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the Child, His Name was called Jesus."

mf To-day the Name is Thine
At which we bend the knee;

The Light of Light Divine,
True Brightness undefiled,

A Holy Spotless Child.

f All praise, Eternal Son,
For Thy redeeming love,
With Father, Spirit, ever One,
In glorious might above.

p His Infant Body now

Hymn 71. Alfreton.—L.M.

0 BLESSED day, when first was pour'd
The Blood of our Redeeming Lord!
O blessed day, when first began
His sufferings borne for sinful man!

Scarce enter'd on this life of woe,
His Infant Blood begins to flow;
A foretaste of His death He feels,
An earnest of His love reveals.

From Heav'n descending to fulfil
The bidding of His Father's Will,
A victim even now He lies
Before the day of sacrifice.

For love of us His woes begin;
The Sinless suffers for our sin;
The Law's great Maker for our aid
Obedient to the Law is made.

"God sent forth His Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law."

p The wound He through the Law endures
Henceforth a holier law prevails,
The law of love which never fails.

mf Lord, circumcise our hearts, we pray,

The following Hymns are suitable for this Festival:

175 Conquering kings their titles take.
179 To the Name of our Salvation.
"And now, Lord, what is my hope; truly my hope is even in Thee."

The year is gone, beyond recall,
With all its hopes and fears,
With all its bright and gladdening smiles,
With all its mourners' tears;

Thy thankful people praise Thee, Lord,
For countless gifts received;
And pray for grace to keep the Faith
Which Saints of old believed.

To Thee we come, O gracious Lord,
The new-born year to bless;
Defend our land from pestilence;
Give peace and plenteousness;

From evil deeds that stain the past
We now desire to flee;
And pray that future years may all
Be spent, good Lord, for Thee.

O Father, let Thy watchful Eye
Still look on us in love,
That we may praise Thee, year by year,
With Angel-hosts above.

All glory to the Father be,
All glory to the Son,
All glory, Holy Ghost, to Thee,
While endless ages run.
"So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."

FOR Thy mercy and Thy grace,
Faithful through another year,
Hear our song of thankfulness;
Jesu, our Redeemer, hear.

In our weakness and distress,
Rock of strength, be Thou our Stay;
In the pathless wilderness
Be our true and living Way.

Who of us death's awful road
In the coming year shall tread,
With Thy rod and staff, O God,
Comfort Thou his dying bed.

mf Keep us faithful, keep us pure,
Keep us evermore Thine own,
Help, O help us to endure,
Fit us for Thy promised crown.

f So within Thy palace gate
We shall praise, on golden strings,
Thhee the only Potentate,
Lord of lords and King of kings.

Hymn 74. FATHER, LET ME DEDICATE.—7 5 7 5 7 5 7 5.
New Year's Day.

"That God in all things may be glorified."

Father, let me dedicate
All this year to Thee,
In whatever worldly state
Thou wilt have me be:

Not from sorrow, pain, or care,
Freedom dare I claim;

This alone shall be my prayer,
Glorify Thy Name.

Can a child presume to choose
Where or how to live?
Can a Father's love refuse
All the best to give?

More Thou givest every day
Than the best can claim,
Nor withholdest aught that may
Glorify Thy Name.

If in mercy Thou wilt spare
Joys that yet are mine;
If on life, serene and fair,
Brighter rays may shine;

Let my glad heart, while it sings,
Thee in all proclaim,
And, whate'er the future brings,
Glorify Thy Name.

If Thou callest to the Cross,
And its shadow come,
Turning all my gain to loss,
Shrouding heart and home;

Let me think how Thy dear Son
To His glory came,
And in deepest woe pray on,
"Glorify Thy Name."

The following Hymns are suitable for this day or its eve:

165 O God, our help in ages past.

205 Thou Judge of quick and dead.

288 A few more years shall roll.

289 Days and moments quickly flying.
Hymn 75. ELY.—L.M.

And follow'd on His guiding star;
By light their way to Light they trod,

f All glory, Jesu, be to Thee

And Holy Ghost for evermore.

Within the Jordan's sacred flood
The heavenly Lamb in meekness stood,
That He, to Whom no sin was known,
Might cleanse His people from their own.
Faithful has many a noble city;
Bethlehem, thou dost all excel:
Out of thee the Lord from Heaven
Came to rule His Israel.

Fairer than the sun at morning
Was the star that told His birth,
To the world its God announcing
Seen in fleshly form on earth.

Sacred gifts of mystic meaning:
Incense doth their God disclose,
Gold the King of kings proclaimeth,
Myrrh His sepulchre foreshows.

Gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

   More beauteous than the noonday light?
   It shines to herald forth the King,
   And Gentiles to His cradle bring.

2. See now fulfill'd what God decreed,
   "From Jacob shall a star proceed;"
   And Eastern sages with amaze
   Upon the wondrous vision gaze.

The guiding star above is bright;
Within them shines a clearer light,
Which leads them on with power benign
To seek the Giver of the sign.

True love can brook no dull delay;
Nor toil nor dangers stop their way:
Home, kindred, fatherland, and all
They leave at their Creator's call.

O Jesu, while the star of grace
Allures us now to seek Thy Face,
Let not our slothful hearts refuse
The guidance of that light to use.

A glorious light have seen;
The Light has shined on them who long
In shades of death have been.

To hail Thee, Sun of Righteousness,
The gathering nations come;
They joy as when the reapers bear

For Thou their burden dost remove,
And break the tyrant's rod,
As in the day when Midian fell
Before the sword of God.

And on His Shoulder ever rests
All power in earth and heaven.

His Name shall be the Prince of peace,
The Everlasting Lord,

His righteous government and power
Shall over all extend;
On judgment and on justice based,
His reign shall have no end.

And make us Thine alone,

CREATOR of the world, to Thee
An endless rest of joy belongs;
And heavenly choirs are ever free
To sing on high their festal songs.

But we are fallen creatures here,
Where pain and sorrow daily come;
And how can we in exile drear
Sing out, as they, sweet songs of Home?

O Father, Who dost promise still
That they who mourn shall blessed be,
Grant us to weep for deeds of ill
That banish us so long from Thee:

But, weeping, grant us faith to rest
In hope upon Thy loving care;
Till Thou restore us, with the blest,
Their songs of praise in Heav'n to share.

162 Have mercy on us, God most High.
168 There is a book, who runs may read.
262 Great Mover of all hearts.
Lent.

Hymn 84. Hereford.—C.M.

C;M. ^= 60.

Once more the solemn season calls
A holy fast to keep;
And now within the temple walls
Let priest and people weep.

But vain all outward sign of grief,
And vain the form of prayer,
Unless the heart implore relief,
And penitence be there.

We smite the breast, we weep in vain,
In vain in ashes mourn,
Unless with penitential pain
The smitten soul be torn.

In sorrow true then let us pray
To our offended God,
From us to turn His wrath away,
And stay the uplifted rod.

O God, our Judge and Father, deign
To spare the bruised reed;
We pray for time to turn again,
For grace to turn indeed.

Blest Three in One, to Thee we bow;
Vouchsafe us, in Thy love,
To gather from these fasts below
Immortal fruit above.

A - men.
By precepts taught of ages past,
Thy grace have we offended sore
Now let us keep again the fast
By sins, O God, which we deplore;
Which, year by year, in order meet
Four down upon us from above
Of forty days is made complete.
The riches of Thy pardoning love.
The law and seers that were of old
Remember, Lord, though frail we be,
In divers ways this Lent foretold,
That yet Thine handiwork are we:
Which Christ Himself, the Lord and Guide
Nor let the honour of Thy Name
Of every season, sanctified.
Be by another put to shame.
More sparing therefore let us make
Forgive the ill that we have wrought,
The words we speak, the food we take,
Increase the good that we have sought;
Deny ourselves in mirth and sleep,
That we at length, our wanderings o'er,
In stricter watch our senses keep.
May please Thee now and evermore.
In prayer together let us fall,
Blest Three in One, and One in Three,
And cry for mercy, one and all;
Almighty God, we pray to Thee,
And weep before the Judge, and say,
That Thou wouldst now vouchsafe to bless;
O turn from us Thy wrath away.
Our fast with fruits of righteousness.

Lent.

"In due season we shall reap, if we faint not."

THOU Who dost to man accord
His highest prize, his best reward,
Thou Hope of all our race;
Jesu, to Thee we now draw near,
Our earnest supplications hear,
Who humbly seek Thy Face.

With self-accusing voice within
Our conscience tells of many a sin
In thought, and word, and deed:

O cleanse that conscience from all stain,
The penitent restore again,
From every burthen freed.

If Thou reject us, who shall give
Our fainting spirits strength to live?
'Tis Thine alone to spare;
With cleansèd hearts to pray aright,
And find acceptance in Thy sight,
Be this our lowly prayer.

'Tis Thou hast bless'd this solemn fast;
So may its days by us be pass'd
In self-control severe,
That, when our Easter morn we hail,
Its mystic feast we may not fail
To keep with conscience clear.

O Blessèd Trinity, bestow
Thy pardoning grace on us below,
And shield us evermore;
Until, within Thy courts above,
We see Thy Face, and sing Thy love,
And with Thy Saints adore.

A - men.
"O deliver us, and be merciful unto our sins, for Thy Name's sake."

p

_MERCIFUL Creator, hear;
In tender pity bow Thine ear:
Accept the tearful prayer we raise
In this our fast of forty days._

Grant us to mortify each sense
By means of outward abstinence,
That so from every stain of sin
The soul may keep her fast within.

_Each heart is manifest to Thee;
Thou knowest our infirmity:
Repentant now we seek Thy Face;
Impart to us Thy pardoning grace._

_Blest Three in One, and One in Three,_
_Altmright God, we pray to Thee,_
_That Thou wouldst now vouchsafe to bless_ Our fast with fruits of righteousness.

p

_Our sins are manifold and sore,_
But spare Thou them who sin deplore;
And for Thine own Name's sake make whole
The fainting and the weary soul._

_A - men._
Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

O! now is our accepted day,
The time for purging sins away,
The sins of thought, and deed, and word,
That we have done against the Lord.

Lent.

For He the Merciful and True
Hath spared His people hitherto;
Not willing that the soul should die,
Though great its past iniquity.

Then let us all with earnest care,
And contrite fast, and tear, and prayer,
And works of mercy and of love,
Entreat for pardon from above;

That He may all our sins efface,
Adorn us with the gifts of grace,
And join us to the Angel band
For ever in the heavenly land.

Blest Three in One and One in Three,
Almighty God, we pray to Thee, [bless
That Thou wouldst now vouchsafe to
Our fast with fruits of righteousness.

A - men.
GOOD it is to keep the fast
Shadow'd forth in ages past,
Which our own Almighty Lord
Hallow'd by His deed and word.

Moses, while he fasted, saw
God Who gave by him the Law;
To Elijah Angels came,
Steeds of fire and car of flame.

So was Daniel meet to gaze
On the sight of latter days,
And the Baptist to proclaim
Blessings through the Bridegroom's Name.

Grant us, Lord, like them to be
Oft in prayer and fast with Thee;
Fill us with Thy heavenly might,
Be our joy and true delight.

Father, hear us, through Thy Son,
And the Spirit, with Thee One,
Whom our thankful hearts adore
Ever and for evermore.

A-men.
"I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven."

Hymn 90. WINDSOR.—C.M.

---

Verse:

JESU, our Lenten fast of Thee
We duteous learn to keep,
A healing time, by Thy decree,
For all Thy wounded sheep.

A time in which towards Paradise,
Once lost by carnal sense,
The souls redeem'd by Thee may rise
Through chastening abstinence.

Now with Thy Church be present, Lord,
In all Thy saving grace,
And hear us as with one accord,
Mourning, we seek Thy Face.

---

Chorus (Passus)

Most Merciful, forgive the past,
The sins which we deplore;
Thy sheltering arms around us cast,
That we may sin no more.

mf To Thee our sacrifice we bring
Of Lenten fast and prayer, cr Till, cleansed by Thee, our God and King
f Thy Paschal joy we share.

mf Grant this, O FATHER, through Thy Son,
And through the Saviour Blest,
Who art with Them for ever ONE,
Eternally confest.

Amen.

And Jesus . . . was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days He did eat nothing.

FORTY days and forty nights
Thou wast fasting in the wild;
Fifty days and forty nights
Tempted, and yet undefiled.

Sunbeams scorching all the day;
Chilly dew-drops nightly shed;
Prowling beasts about Thy way;
Stones Thy pillow; earth Thy bed.

Shall not we Thy sorrow share,
And from earthly joys abstain,
Fasting with unceasing prayer,
Glad with Thee to suffer pain?

And if Satan, vexing sore,
Flesh or spirit should assail,
Thou, his Vanquisher before,
Grant we may not faint nor fail.

So shall we have peace Divine;
Holier gladness ours shall be;
Round us too shall Angels shine,
Such as minister’d to Thee.

Keep, O keep us, Saviour dear,
Ever constant by Thy side;
That with Thee we may appear
At th’ eternal Eastertide.

Hymn 93. St. Mary.—C.M.

"Enter not into judgment with Thy servant; for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified."

O LORD, turn not Thy Face from me,
Who lie in woeful state,
Lamenting all my sinful life
Before Thy mercy-gate;

A gate which opens wide to those
That do lament their sin;
Shut not that gate against me, Lord,
But let me enter in.

And call me not to strict account
How I have sojourn'd here;
For then my guilty conscience knows
How vile I shall appear.

Mercy, Good Lord, mercy I ask;
This is my humble prayer;
For mercy, Lord, is all my suit,
O let Thy mercy spare.

Hymn 95. St. Gregory.—L.M.  \( \text{d} = 69. \)

For a Late Evening Service.

O CHRIST, Who art the Light and Day,
Thy beams chase night's dark shades
The very Light of Light Thou art, [away;]
Who dost Thy blessed Light impart.

All-Holy Lord, to Thee we bend,
Thy servants through this night defend,
And grant us calm repose in Thee,
A quiet night from peril free.

Let not the tempter round us creep
With thoughts of evil while we sleep,
Nor with his wiles the flesh allure
And make us in Thy sight impure.

While wearied eyes light slumber take
The heart to Thee be still awake,
And Thy right Hand stretch'd forth above
Protect the children of Thy love.

O Lord, our strong Defence, be nigh;
Bid all the powers of darkness fly;
Preserve and watch o'er us for good,
Whom Thou hast purchased with Thy Blood.

Remember us, dear Lord, we pray,
While burden'd in the flesh we stay;
'Tis Thou alone our souls canst keep;
Abide with us this night in sleep.

Blest Three in One, and One in Three,
Almighty God, we pray to Thee, [bless
That Thou wouldst now vouchsafe to
Our fast with fruits of righteousness.

244 LORD, when we bend before Thy Throne.
245 When at Thy footstool, LORD, I bend.

252 Weary of earth and laden with my sin.
253 O Jesu Christ, if aught there be.
254 Art thou weary, art thou languid.
259 Thy life was given for me.
263 Take up thy cross, the Saviour said.

Hymn 96. Vexilla Regis.—L.M. (First Tune.) $' = 84.

To be sung in Unison.
The Royal Banners forward go,
The Cross shines forth in mystic glow;
Where He in flesh, our flesh Who made,
Our sentence bore, our ransom paid.

There whilst He hung, His sacred Side
By soldier's spear was open'd wide,
To cleanse us in the precious flood
Of Water mingled with His Blood.

Fulfilled is now what David told
In true prophetic song of old,
How God the heathen's King should be;
For God is reigning from the Tree.

"God forbid that I should glory, save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ."

mf O Tree of glory, Tree most fair,
Ordain'd those Holy Limbs to bear,
How bright in purple robe it stood,
The purple of a Saviour's Blood!

mf Upon its arms, like balance true,
He weigh'd the price for sinners due,
The price which none but He could pay,
And spoil'd the spoiler of his prey.

To Thee, Eternal Three in One,
Let homage meet by all be done:
As by the Cross Thou dost restore,
So rule and guide us evermore.

"The Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Sing, my tongue, the glorious battle,
Sing the last, the dread affray;
O'er the Cross, the Victor's trophy,
Sound the high triumphal lay,
How, the pains of death enduring,
Earth's Redeemer won the day.

He, our Maker, deeply grieving
That the first-made Adam fell,
When he ate the fruit forbidden
Whose reward was death and hell,
Mark'd e'en then this Tree the ruin
Of the first tree to dispel.

Thus the work for our salvation
He ordained to be done;
To the traitor's art opposing
Art yet deeper than his own;
Thence the remedy procuring
Whence the fatal wound begun.

Therefore, when at length the fulness
Of the appointed time was come,
He was sent, the world's Creator,
From the Father's heavenly home,
And was found in human fashion,
Offspring of the Virgin's womb.

Lo! He lies, an Infant weeping,
Where the narrow manger stands,
While the Mother-Maid His members
Wraps in mean and lowly bands,
And the swaddling clothes is winding
Round His helpless Feet and Hands.

Part 2.

Now the thirty years accomplish'd
Which on earth He will'd to see,
Born for this, He meets His Passion,
Gives Himself an Offering free;
On the Cross the Lamb is lifted,
There the Sacrifice to be.

p There the nails and spear He suffers,
Vinegar, and gall, and reed;
From His sacred Body pierced Blood and Water both proceed;

f Precious flood, which all creation
From the stain of sin hath freed.

mf Bend, O lofty Tree, thy branches,
Thy too rigid sinews bend;
And awhile the stubborn hardness,
Which thy birth bestow'd, suspend;
And the Limbs of Heav'n's high Monarch

p Gently on thine arms extend.

mf Thou alone wast counted worthy
This world's ransom to sustain,
That a shipwreck'd race for ever
Might a port of refuge gain,
With the sacred Blood anointed
Of the Lamb for sinners slain.

Hymn 101. St. Bride.—S.M.

"Looking unto Jesus."

\( p \) O'ERWHELM'D in depths of woe,
Upon the Tree of scorn
Hangs the Redeemer of mankind,
With racking anguish torn.

See how the nails those Hands
And Feet so tender rend;
See down His Face, and Neck, and Breast
His sacred Blood descend.

\( mf \) Oh, hear that last, loud cry
Which pierced His Mother's heart,
As into God the Father's hands
He bade His soul depart.

\( mf \) Shall man alone be mute?
Have we no griefs, or fears?
Come, old and young, come, all mankind,
And bathe those Feet in tears.

\( p \) Come, fall before His Cross
Who shed for us His Blood;
Who died, the Victim of pure love,
To make us sons of God.

\( f \) Jesu, all praise to Thee,
Our Joy and endless Rest;
Be Thou our Guide while pilgrims here,
Our Crown amid the blest.

\( f \) Earth hears, and trembling quakes
Around that tree of pain;
The rocks are rent; the graves are burst;
The veil is rent in twain.
HE, Who once in righteous vengeance
Whelm'd the world beneath the flood,
Once again in mercy cleansed it
With His own most precious Blood,
Coming from His Throne on high
On the painful Cross to die.

O the wisdom of the Eternal!
O the depth of love Divine!
O the sweetness of that mercy
Which in Jesus Christ did shine!
We were sinners doom'd to die;
Jesus paid the penalty.

Hymnus on the Passion.

"He was wounded for our transgressions."

mf NOW, my soul, thy voice upraising,
Tell in sweet and mournful strain
How the Crucified, enduring
Grief, and wounds, and dying pain,
Freely of His love was offer'd,
Sinless was for sinners slain.

Scourged with unrelenting fury
For the sins which we deplore,
By His livid Stripes He heals us,
Raising us to fall no more;
All our bruises gently soothing,
Binding up the bleeding sore.

p See! His Hands and Feet are fasten'd;
So He makes His people free;
Not a wound whence Blood is flowing
But a fount of grace shall be;
Yea the very nails which nail Him
Nail us also to the Tree.

p Through His Heart the spear is piercing,
Though His foes have seen Him die;
Blood and Water thence are streaming
In a tide of mystery,

cr Water from our guilt to cleanse us,
Blood to win us crowns on high.

mf Jesu, may those precious fountains
Drink to thirsting souls afford:
Let them be our cup and healing,
And at length our full reward;
So a ransom'd world shall ever
Praise Thee, its redeeming Lord.

Hymn 104. Attolle paulum.—8 7 8 7 8 7.
Hymns on the Passion.

"Behold the Man."

mf O SINNER, lift the eye of faith,
To true repentance turning;
Bethink thee of the curse of sin,
Its awful guilt discerning;
Upon the Crucified One look,
And thou shalt read, as in a book,
What well is worth thy learning.

None ever knew such pain before,
Such infinite affliction,
None ever felt a grief like His
In that dread crucifixion:
For us He bare those bitter throes,
For us those agonizing woes,
In oft-renew'd infliction.

p Look on His Head, that bleeding Head,
With crown of thorns surrounded;
Look on His sacred Hands and Feet
Which piercing nails have wounded;
See every Limb with scourges rent;
On Him, the Just, the Innocent,
What malice hath abounded!

mf O sinner, mark, and ponder well
Sin's awful condemnation;
Think what a sacrifice it cost
To purchase thy salvation;
Had Jesus never bled and died,
Then what could thee and all betide
But uttermost damnation?

'Tis not alone those Limbs are rack'd,
But friends too are forsaking;
And more than all, for thankless man
That tender Heart is aching;
Oh, fearful was the pain and scorn,
By Jesus, Son of Mary, borne,
Their peace for sinners making.

Lord, give us grace to flee from sin,
And Satan's wiles ensnaring,
And from those everlasting flames
For evil ones preparing.
Jesu, we thank Thee, and entreat
To rest for ever at Thy Feet,
Thy heavenly glory sharing.

Hymn 106. St. Francis Xavier.—C.M.

"We love Him, because He first loved us."

My God, I love Thee; (dim) not because
I hope for heaven thereby,
Nor yet because who love Thee not
Are lost eternally.

Thou, O my Jesus, Thou didst me
Upon the Cross embrace;
For me didst bear the nails, and spear,
And manifold disgrace,

And griefs and torments numberless,
And sweat of agony;
Yea, death itself; and all for me
Who was Thine enemy.

Then why, O Blessed Jesu Christ,
Should I not love Thee well?
Not for the sake of winning heaven,
Nor of escaping hell;

Not from the hope of gaining aught,
Not seeking a reward;

But as Thyself hast lovèd me,
O ever-loving Lord.

So would I love Thee, dearest Lord,
And in Thy praise will sing;
Solely because Thou art my God,
And my most loving King.

This Hymn may also be sung to the Tune of Hymn 272.

88 Orig. Ed. (135)
"The precious blood of Christ."

mf Glory be to Jesus,
Who, in bitter pains,
Pour'd for me the Life-blood
From His sacred veins.

Grace and life eternal
In that Blood I find;
Blest be His compassion
Infinitely kind.

Blest through endless ages
Be the precious stream,
Which from endless torments
Did the world redeem.

Abel's blood for vengeance
Plead'd to the skies;
But the Blood of Jesus
For our pardon cries.

Oft as it is sprinkled
On our guilty hearts,
Satan in confusion
Terror-struck departs;

Oft as earth exulting
Wafts its praise on high,
Angel-hosts rejoicing
Make their glad reply.

Lift ye then your voices;
Swell the mighty flood;
Louder still and louder
Praise the (dim) precious Blood.

When I survey the wondrous Cross
On which the Prince of glory died,

That were an offering far too small;

Thou hast breathed Thy latest sigh,
Teaching us the sons of Adam
How the Son of God (dim) can die.

Lifeless lies the broken Body,
Hidden in its rocky bed,
Laid aside like folded garment:
Where is now the Spirit fled?

In the gloomy realms of darkness
Shines a light unknown before,
For the Lord of dead and living
Enters at the open door.

See! He comes, a willing Victim,
Unresisting hither led;
Passing from the Cross of sorrow
To the mansions of the dead.

Lo! the heavenly light around Him
As He draws His people near;
All amazed they stand rejoicing
At the gracious Words they hear.

For Himself proclaims the story
Of His own Incarnate life,
And the death He died to save us,
Victor in that awful strife.

Patriarch and Priest and Prophet
Gather round Him as He stands,
In adoring faith and gladness,
Hearing of the pierced Hands.

Oh, the bliss to which He calls them,
Ransomed by His precious Blood,
From the gloomy realm of darkness
To the Paradise of God!

There in lowliest joy and wonder
Stands the robber at His side,
Reaping now the blessed promise
Spoken by the Crucified.

Christ hath burst His prison,
And from three days' sleep in death
As a sun hath risen;
mf All the winter of our sins,
Long and dark, is flying f From His Light, to Whom we give Laud and praise undying.

Now the Queen of seasons, bright
With the Day of splendour,
With the royal Feast of feasts,
Comes its joy to render;
Comes to glad Jerusalem,
Who with true affection
Welcomes in unwearied strains Jesu's Resurrection.

ff Alleluia now we cry
To our King Immortal,
Who triumphant burst the bars
Of the tomb's dark portal;
Alleluia, with the Son
God the Father praising;
Alleluia yet again
To the Spirit raising.

"When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid; yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet."

For a Late Evening Service.

mf JESU, the world's redeeming Lord,
   The Father's co-eternal Word,
   Of Light invisible true Light,
   Thine Israel's Keeper day and night;
Our great Creator and our Guide,
   Who times and seasons dost divide,
Refresh at night with quiet rest
Our limbs by daily toil oppress'd.
That while in this frail house of clay
   A little longer here we stay,
Our flesh in Thee may sweetly sleep,
Our souls with Thee their vigils keep.

mf We pray Thee, while we dwell below,
   Preserve us from our ghostly foe;
Nor let his wiles victorious be
O'er them that are redeem'd by Thee.
O Lord of all, with us abide
   In this our joyful Easter-tide;
From every weapon death can wield
Thine own redeem'd for ever shield.

f All praise be Thine, O risen Lord,
   From death to endless life restored;
All praise to God the Father be
And Holy Ghost eternally.

293 Orig. Ed. (196)

"Thou art gone up on high, Thou hast led captivity captive, and received gifts for men."

See the Conqueror mounts in triumph, see the King in royal state
Riding on the clouds His chariot to His heavenly palace gate;
Hark! the choirs of Angel voices joyful Alleluias sing,
And the portals high are lifted to receive their Heavenly King.

Who is this that comes in glory, with the trump of jubilee?
Lord of battles, God of armies, He has gain'd the victory;
He Who on the Cross did suffer, (mf) He Who from the grave arose,
He has vanquish'd sin and Satan, He by death has spoil'd His foes.

While He lifts His Hands in blessing, He is parted from His friends;
While their eager eyes behold Him, He upon the clouds ascends;
He Who walk'd with God, and pleased Him, preaching truth and doom to come,
He, our Enoch, is translated to His everlasting home.

Now our heavenly Aaron enters, with His Blood, within the veil;
Joshua now is come to Canaan, and the kings before Him quail;
Now He plants the tribes of Israel in their promised resting-place;
Now our great Elijah offers double portion of His grace.

He has raised our human nature on the clouds to God's right hand;
There we sit in heavenly places, there with Him in glory stand:
Jesus reigns, adored by Angels; Man with God is on the Throne;
Mighty Lord, in Thine Ascension (p) we by faith behold our own.

The following Doxology may be sung at the end of either Part.

Glory be to God the Father; glory be to God the Son,

Part 2.

mf Holy Ghost, Illuminator, shed Thy beams upon our eyes,
Help us to look up with Stephen, and to see, beyond the skies,
Where the Son of Man in glory standing is at God's right hand,
Beckoning on His Martyr army, succouring His faithful band;

See Him, Who is gone before us, heavenly mansions to prepare,
See Him, Who is ever pleading for us with prevailing prayer,
See Him, Who with sound of trumpet and with His Angelic train, mf Lift us up from earth to Heaven, give us wings of faith and love,

Gales of holy aspirations wafting us to realms above;
That, with hearts and minds uplifted, we with Christ our Lord may dwell,
Where He sits enthroned in glory in His heavenly citadel.

So at last, when He appeareth, we from out our graves may spring,
With our youth renew'd like eagles, flocking round our Heavenly King,

   Lord, send Thy promised Comforter,
   And lead us to Thy rest.

f Thou art gone up on high;
   But Thou shalt come again,
   With all the bright ones of the sky
   Attendant in Thy train.
mf Lord, by Thy saving power
   So make us live and die,
   That we may stand in that dread hour
   At Thy right Hand on high.

   Thou art gone up on high;
   But Thou didst first come down,
Through earth's most bitter misery
   To pass unto Thy Crown;
   And girt with griefs and fears
   Our onward course must be;
   But only let this path of tears
   Lead us at last to Thee.

Hymn 150. Metzler's Redhead. No. 66.—C.M.

JESU, our Hope, our heart's Desire,
Thy work of grace we sing;
Redeemer of the world art Thou,
Its Maker and its King.

How vast the mercy and the love,
Which laid our sins on Thee,
And led Thee to a cruel death,
To set Thy people free!

But now the bonds of death are burst;
The ransom has been paid;
And Thou art on Thy Father's Throne,
In glorious robes array'd.

Who being the Brightness of His Glory, and the express Image of His person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high."

mf O may Thy mighty love prevail
Our sinful souls to spare!
O may we stand around Thy Throne,
And see Thy glory there!

JESU, our only Joy be Thou,
As Thou our Prize wilt be;
In Thee be all our glory now
And through eternity.

All praise to Thee Who art gone up
Triumphantly to Heav'n;
All praise to God the Father's Name
And Holy Ghost be given.

Which will lead us back to God.

Now in glory Thou dost reign
Won by all Thy toil and pain;
Thence the promised Spirit send,
While our prayers to Thee ascend.

From Thy dwelling-place above,
From Thy Father's Throne of love,
With Thy look of mercy bless
Those without Thee comfortless.

Hymn 156. Veni Sancte Spiritus.—7 7 7 7 7.
Whitsuntide.

"When Thou lettest Thy breath go forth they shall be made, and Thou shalt renew the face of the earth."

mf COME, Thou Holy Spirit, come;
And from Thy celestial home
Shed a ray of light Divine;
Come, Thou Father of the poor,
Come, Thou source of all our store,
Come, within our bosoms shine:
Thou of Comforters the best,
Thou the soul's most welcome guest,
Sweet refreshment here below;
In our labour rest most sweet,
Grateful coolness in the heat,
Solace in the midst of woe.

mf O most Blessèd Light Divine,
Shine within these hearts of Thine,
And our inmost being fill;
Where Thou art not, man hath nought,
Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of ill.

mf Heal our wounds; our strength renew;
On our dryness pour Thy dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away:
Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.

On the faithful, who adore
And confess Thee, evermore
In Thy sevenfold gifts descend:
Give them virtue's sure reward,
Give them Thy salvation, Lord,
Give them joys that never end.

Amen.

"The Comforter which is the Holy Ghost."

"COME, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire;
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost Thy sevenfold gifts impart:

Thy blessed unction from above
Is comfort, life, and fire of love;
Enable with perpetual light
The dulness of our blinded sight:

Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of Thy grace:
Keep far our foes, give peace at home;
Where Thou art Guide no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And Thee, of Both, to be but One;
That through the ages all along
This may be our endless song,

All hail, Adored Trinity;
All hail, Eternal Unity;

And God the Spirit, ever One.

Behold to Thee, this festal day,
We meekly pour our thankful lay;
O let our work accepted be,
That sweetest work of praising Thee.

Three Persons praise we evermore,
One only God our hearts adore;
In Thy sure mercy ever kind
May we our true protection find.

O Trinity! O Unity!
Be present as we worship Thee;
And with the songs that Angels sing
Unite the hymns of praise we bring.

Hymn 159. Faith.—10 10 10 10 10 12.
"O praise God in His holiness."

mf WITH hearts renew'd, and cleansed from guilt of sin,
    Send we our voices pealing to the skies;
Let a pure conscience echo joy within,
    And all our powers in emulation rise:
To Father, Son, and Holy Spirit's praise,
Three Whom One Essence joins, one anthem here we raise.

Maker of all, the Father uncreate,
    Of Him from everlasting born, the Son,
And the Blest Spirit of co-equal state
    From Both proceeding, are of Substance One:
So in this Trinity the Persons Three
One Perfect Being are, One God, One Majesty.

Yet, none the less, each Person of the Trine
    God, in His attributes distinct, we own;
Vainly would reason grasp the things Divine,

Man can but bend adoring at God's Throne:
O may the Father, Son, and Spirit be
    Our help in time of need, our joy eternally.

And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory.

"Bright the vision that delighted
Once the sight of Judah's seer;
Sweet the countless tongues united
To entrance the prophet's ear.

Round the Lord in glory seated
Cherubim and Seraphim
Fill'd His temple, and repeated
Each to each th' alternate hymn;

"Lord, Thy glory fills the Heaven;
Earth is with its fulness stored;
Unto Thee be glory given,
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord."

Heav'n is still with glory ringing,
Earth takes up the Angels' cry,
"Holy, Holy, Holy,"—singing,
"Lord of hosts, The Lord most High."

With His holy Church below,

Bid we thus our anthem flow;

\( \text{\textit{d} = 84.} \)

156 Orig. Ed.

(224)
"Praise the Lord, O my soul: O Lord my God, Thou art become exceeding glorious; Thou art clothed with majesty and honour."

f O WORSHIP the King All-glorious above;
   O gratefully sing His power and His love;
   Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days,
   Pavilion'd in splendour, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace,
Whose robe is the light, Whose canopy space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder clouds form,
And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

mf The earth with its store of wonders untold,
   Almighty, Thy power hath founded of old;
   Hath establish'd it fast by a changeless decree,
   And round it hath cast, like a mantle, the sea.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
   It breathes in the air, it shines in the light;
   It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
   And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.

p Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
   In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail;
   Thy mercies how tender! how firm to the end!
   Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

f O measureless Might, ineffable Love,
   While Angels delight to hymn Thee above,
   Thy ransom'd creation, (p) though feeble their lays,
   With true adoration shall sing to Thy praise.
"The invisible things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made."

There is a book, who runs may read,
Which heavenly truth imparts,
And all the lore its scholars need,
Pure eyes and Christian hearts.
The works of God above, below,
Within us and around,
Are pages in that book, to show
How God Himself is found.
The glorious sky, embracing all,
Is like the Maker's love,
Wherewith encompass'd, great and small
In peace and order move.
The Moon above, the Church below,
A wondrous race they run;
But all their radiance, all their glow,
Each borrows of its Sun.
The Saviour lends the light and heat
That crown His holy hill;
The Saints, like stars, around His seat
Perform their courses still.

The dew of heaven is like Thy grace,
It steals in silence down;
But where it lights, the favour'd place
By richest fruits is known.

One Name, above all glorious names,
With its ten thousand tongues
The everlasting sea proclaims, Echoing Angelic songs.
The raging fire, the roaring wind
Thy boundless power display;
But in the gentler breeze we find
Thy Spirit's viewless way.

Two worlds are ours: 'tis only sin
Forbids us to desery
The mystic Heav'n and earth within,
Plain as the sea and sky.
Thou, Who hast given me eyes to see
And love this sight so fair,
Give me a heart to find out Thee,
And read Thee everywhere.
Thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, Whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit."

My God, how wonderful Thou art,
Thy majesty how bright,
How beautiful Thy mercy-seat,
In depths of burning light!

Yet I may love Thee too, O Lord,
Almighty as Thou art,
For Thou hast stoop'd to ask of me
The love of my poor heart.

No earthly father loves like Thee,
No mother, e'er so mild,
Bears and forbears as Thou hast done
With me Thy sinful child.

Father of Jesus, love's reward,
What rapture will it be,
Prostrate before Thy Throne to lie,
And gaze and gaze on Thee.

Oh, how I fear Thee, Living God,
With deepest, tenderest fears,
And worship Thee with trembling hope,
And penitential tears!
"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things were made by Him."

PRAISE to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise;
In all His words most wonderful,
Most sure in all His ways.

O loving wisdom of our God!
When all was sin and shame,
A second Adam to the fight
And to the rescue came.

O wisest love! that flesh and blood,
Which did in Adam fail,
Should strive afresh against the foe,
Should strive and should prevail;

And that a higher gift than grace
Should flesh and blood refine,
God's Presence and His very Self,
And Essence all-divine.

O generous love! that He, Who smote
In Man for man the foe,
The double agony in Man
For man should undergo;

And in the garden secretly,
And on the Cross on high,
Should teach His brethren, and inspire
To suffer and to die.

Praise to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise:
In all His words most wonderful,
Most sure in all His ways.
Hymn 173. Leipsic or Eisenach.—L.M.

"The love of Christ which passeth knowledge."

LOVE, how deep! how broad! how high! For us to wicked men betray'd,
It fills the heart with ecstasy, Scourged, mock'd, in purplerobe array'd,
That God, the Son of God, should take He bore the shameful Cross and death;
Our mortal form for mortals' sake. For us at length gave up His breath.

He sent no Angel to our race For us He rose from death again,
Of higher or of lower place, For us He went on high to reign,
But wore the robe of human frame For us He sent His Spirit here
Himself, and to this lost world came To guide, to strengthen, and to cheer.

For us He was baptized, and bore To Him Whose boundless love has won
His holy fast, and hunger'd sore; Salvation for us through His Son,
For us temptations sharp He knew; To God the Father, glory be
For us the tempter overthrew. Both now and through eternity.

For us He pray'd, for us He taught, Amen.
For us His daily works He wrought, 143 Orig. Ed.

"Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed."

mf We saw Thee not when Thou didst come

f But we believe Thy footsteps trod

mf We did not see Thee lifted high Amid that wild and savage crew, dim Nor heard Thy meek, imploring cry,

"Forgive, they know not what they do;"

f Yet we believe the deed was done,

dim Which shook the earth and veil'd the sun.

mf We stood not by the empty tomb
Where late Thy sacred Body lay, cr Nor sat within that upper room,
Nor met Thee in the open way;

f But we believe that Angels said,
"Why seek the living with the dead?"

mf We did not mark the chosen few,
When Thou didst through the clouds ascend,
First lift to Heav'n their wondering view,
p Then to the earth all prostrate bend;

f Yet we believe that mortal eyes
Beheld that journey to the skies.

And now that Thou dost reign on high,
And thence Thy waiting people bless,

mf No ray of glory from the sky
Doth shine upon our wilderness;

ff But we believe Thy faithful Word,
And trust in our Redeeming Lord.

"The everlasting Father, the Prince of peace."

mf O Christ, the Prince of peace,
And Son of God most high,
The Father of the world to come,
We lift our joyful cry.

O wondrous Fount of love,
O Well of waters free,
O heavenly Flame, refining Fire,
O burning Charity!

p Deep in His Heart for us
The wound of love He bore,
That love which He enkindles still
In hearts that Him adore.

p Hide us in Thy dear Heart,
Jesu, our Saviour Blest,
So shall we find Thy plenteous grace,
And Heav'n's eternal rest.

mf O Jesu, Victim Blest,
What else but love Divine
Could Thee constrain to open thus
That sacred Heart of Thine?

Let me hide myself in Thee;
Let the Water and the Blood,

Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

"Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her."

mf LOVE Divine, how sweet thou art!
     When shall I find my willing heart
     All taken up by thee?

cr I thirst, I faint, I die to prove
     The greatness of redeeming love,
     The love of Christ to me.

mf Stronger His love than death or hell;

     In this poor stony heart!
     For love I sigh, for love I pine;
     This only portion, Lord, be mine,
     Be mine this better part.

A gracious willing Guest,
While He can find one humble heart
Wherein to rest.

And His that gentle voice we hear.
Soft as the breath of even,
That checks each fault, that calms each fear,
And speaks of Heav'n.

And every virtue we possess,
And every conquest won,
And every thought of holiness,
Are His alone.

Spirit of purity and grace,
Our weakness, pitying, see:
O make our hearts Thy dwelling-place,
And worthier Thee.
Hymn 208. TALLIS.—C.M.

HOLY SPIRIT, Lord of grace,
Eternal Fount of love,
Inflame, we pray, our inmost hearts
With fire from Heav’n above.

As Thou in bond of love dost join
The Father and the Son,
So fill us all with mutual love,
And knit our hearts in one.

All glory to the Father be,
All glory to the Son,
All glory, Holy Ghost, to Thee,
While endless ages run.
"As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God."

Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove, With light and comfort from above; Be Thou our Guardian, Thou our Guide, O'er every thought and step preside.

The light of truth to us display, And make us know and choose Thy way; Plant holy fear in every heart, That we from God may ne'er depart.

Lead us to Christ, the living Way, Nor let us from His pastures stray; Lead us to holiness, the road That we must take to dwell with God.

Lead us to Heav'n, that we may share Fulness of joy for ever there; Lead us to God, our final rest, To be with Him for ever blest.

Hymn 210. Charity.—7 7 7 5.

\[ J = 84. \]

Gracious Spirit, Holy Ghost,
Faith will vanish into sight;
Taught by Thee, we covet most
Hope be emptied in delight;
Of Thy gifts at Pentecost,
Love in Heav'n will shine more bright;
Holy, heavenly love.
Therefore give us love.

Love is kind, and suffers long,
Faith and hope and love we see
Love is meek, and thinks no wrong,
Joining hand in hand agree;
Love than death itself more strong;
But the greatest of the three,
Therefore give us love.
And the best, is love.

Prophecy will fade away,
From the overshadowing
Melting in the light of day;
Of Thy gold and silver wing
Love will ever with us stay;
Shed on us, who to Thee sing,
Therefore give us love.
Holy, heavenly love.

"And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity."

Amen.
Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out.

O HOLY GHOST, Thy people bless
Who long to feel Thy might,
And fain would grow in holiness
As children of the light.

To Thee we bring, Who art the Lord,
Our selves to be Thy throne;
Let every thought, and deed, and word
Thy pure dominion own.

Life-giving SPIRIT, o'er us move,
As on the formless deep;
Give life and order, light and love,
Where now is death or sleep.

Great Gift of our ascended King,
His saving truth reveal;
Our tongues inspire His praise to sing,
Our hearts His love to feel.

True Wind of Heav'n, from south or
For joy (dim) or chastening, blow;
The garden-spices shall spring forth
If Thou wilt bid them flow.

O HOLY GHOST, of sevenfold might,
All graces come from Thee;
Grant us to know and serve aright
ONE GOD in Persons THREE.

"He is faithful."

To Thee, O Comforter Divine,
For all Thy grace and power benign,
Sing we Alleluia!

To Thee, Whose faithful love had place
In God's great covenant of grace,
Sing we Alleluia!

To Thee, Whose faithful voice doth win
The wandering from the ways of sin,
Sing we Alleluia!

To Thee, Whose faithful power doth heal,
Enlighten, sanctify, and seal,
Sing we Alleluia!

To Thee, Whose faithful truth is shown
By every promise made our own,
Sing we Alleluia!

To Thee, our Teacher and our Friend,
Our faithful Leader to the end,
Sing we Alleluia!

To Thee, by Jesus Christ sent down,
Of all His gifts the sum and crown,
Sing we Alleluia!

To Thee, Who art with God the Son
And God the Father ever One,

"And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the Throne of God and of the Lamb."

A LIVING stream, as crystal clear,
Welling from out the Throne of God and of the Lamb on high,
The Lord to man hath shown.

This stream doth water Paradise,
It makes the Angels sing:
One precious drop within the heart
Is of all joy the spring:

Joy past all speech, of glory full,
But stored where none may know,
As manna hid in dewy heaven,
As pearls in ocean low.

Eye hath not seen, nor ear hath heard,
Nor to man's heart hath come
What for those loving Thee in truth
Thou hast in love's own home.

But by His Spirit He to us
The secret doth reveal:
Faith sees and hears: but O for wings
That we might taste, and feel;

Wings like a dove to waft us on
High o'er the flood of sin!

Lord of the Ark, put forth Thine hand,
And take Thy wanderers in.

O praise the Father, praise the Son,
The Lamb for sinners given,
And Holy Ghost, through Whom alone
Our hearts are raised to Heav'n.

The Church’s one foundation

Hymn 216. Old 44th.—D.C.M.
"That they all may be one."

WHAT time the evening shadows fall
Around the Church on earth,
When darker forms of doubt appal,
And new false lights have birth;

Then closer should her faithful band
For Truth together hold,
Hell’s last devices to withstand,
And safely guard her fold.

O Father, in that hour of fear
The Church of England keep,
Thine Altar to the last to rear,
And feed Thy fainting sheep;

May she the holy truths attest
Apostles taught of yore,
Nor quit the Faith by saints confess,
Though tempted ne’er so sore.

O Christ, Who for Thy flock didst pray
That all might be as one,
Unite us all ere fades the day,
Thou Sole-Begotten Son;
The East, the West, together bind
In love’s unbroken chain;

Give each one hope, one heart, one mind,
One glory, and one gain.

O Spirit, Lord of light and life,
The Church with strength renew,
Compose the angry voice of strife,
All jealousies subdue:

Do Thou in ever-quickening streams
Upon Thy saints descend,
And warm them with reviving beams,
And guide them to the end.

Great Three in One, Great One in Three,
Our hymns of prayer receive,
And teach us all from sin to flee,
And live as we believe;

So, pure in faith, our thoughts and speech
And acts that faith shall own;

So shall we to Thy Presence reach,
And know as we are known.

mf Thy kingdom come, O God,
    Thy rule, O Christ, begin;
Break with Thine iron rod
The tyrannies of sin.

mf Where is Thy reign of peace,
    And purity, and love?
When shall all hatred cease,
As in the realms above?

mf We pray Thee, Lord, arise,
    And come in Thy great might;
Revive our longing eyes,
Which languish for Thy sight.

p Men scorn Thy sacred Name,
    And wolves devour Thy fold;
By many deeds of shame
We learn that love grows cold.

p Where is Thy reign of peace,
    And purity, and love?
When shall all hatred cease,
As in the realms above?

When comes the promised time
That war shall be no more,
And lust, oppression, crime
Shall flee Thy Face before?

Arise, O morning Star,
Arise, and never set.

Hymn 220. Galilee.—L.M.

"The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ; and He shall reign for ever and ever."

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Doth his successive journeys run;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

Blessings abound where'er He reigns;
The prisoner leaps to lose his chains;
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.

People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on His love with sweetest song,
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on His Name.

Let every creature rise and bring
Peculiar honours to our King;

"God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

Ten thousand times ten thousand,
   In sparkling raiment bright,
   The armies of the ransom'd Saints
   Throng up the steeps of light:

'Tis finish'd! all is finish'd,
   Their fight with death and sin;

Fling open wide the golden gates,
   And let the victors in.

What rush of Alleluias
   Fills all the earth and sky!
What ringing of a thousand harps
   Bespeaks the triumph nigh!
O day, for which creation
   And all its tribes were made!
O joy, for all its former woes
   A thousand-fold repaid!

Oh, then what raptured greetings
   On Canaan's happy shore,
What knitting sever'd friendships up,
   Where partings are no more!

Then eyes with joy shall sparkle
   That brimm'd with tears of late;
Orphans no longer fatherless,
   Nor widows desolate.

Bring near Thy great Salvation,
   Thou Lamb for sinners slain,
Fill up the roll of Thine elect,
   Then take Thy power and reign:

Appear, Desire of nations,
   Thine exiles long for home;
Show in the heavens Thy promised sign;
   Thou Prince and Saviour, come.

BRIEF life is here our portion;
Brief sorrow, short-lived care;
The life that knows no ending,
The tearless life, is there.

O happy retribution!
Short toil, eternal rest;
For mortals and for sinners
A mansion with the blest!

And now we fight the battle,
But then shall wear the crown
Of full and everlasting
And passionless renown;

And now we watch and struggle,
And now we live in hope,
And Sion in her anguish
With Babylon must cope;

But He, Whom now we trust in,
Shall then be seen and known;
And they that know and see Him
Shall have Him for their own.

The morning shall awaken,
The shadows shall decay,
And each true-hearted servant
Shall shine as doth the day.

There God, our King and Portion,

General Hymns.

"And so shall we ever be with the Lord."

mf "For ever with the Lord!"

p Amen; so let it be;

cr Life from the dead is in that word,
   'Tis immortality.

p Here in the body pent,
   Absent from Him I roam,

cr Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
   A day's march nearer home.

mf My Father's house on high,
   Home of my soul, how near
   At times to faith's foreseeing eye
   Thy golden gates appear!

p *Ah! then my spirit faints
   To reach the land I love, cr The bright inheritance of Saints, Jerusalem above.

f "For ever with the Lord!"

mf Father, if 'tis Thy Will,
   The promise of that faithful word
   Even here to me fulfil.
   Be Thou at my right hand,
   Then can I never fail;

cr Uphold Thou me, and I shall stand,
   Fight, and I must prevail.

p So when my latest breath
   Shall rend the veil in twain, cr By death I shall escape from death,

f And life eternal gain.

mf Knowing as I am known,
   How shall I love that word,

cr And oft repeat before the Throne,
   "For ever with the Lord!"

Our conversation is in heaven.

mf JERUSALEM on high
My song and city is,
My home whene'er I die,
The centre of my bliss:

f
O happy place!
When shall I be,
My God, with Thee,
To see Thy Face?

p

mf The Lamb's Apostles there
I might with joy behold,
The harpers I might hear
Harping on harps of gold:

f
O happy place!
When shall I be,
My God, with Thee,
To see Thy Face?

p

mf There dwells my Lord, my King,
Judged here unfit to live;
There Angels to Him sing,
And lowly homage give:

f
O happy place!
When shall I be,
My God, with Thee,
To see Thy Face?

p

mf The Patriarchs of old
There from their travels cease;
The Prophets there behold
Their longed-for Prince of peace:

O happy place!
When shall I be,
My God, with Thee,
To see Thy Face?

p

Ah me! ah me! that I
In Kedar's tents here stay;
No place like that on high;

Lord, thither guide my way:

When shall I be,
My God, with Thee,
To see Thy Face?

"The Paradise of God."

"The Paradise of God."

mf O Paradise! O Paradise!
Who doth not crave for rest?
Who would not seek the happy land
Where they that loved are blest;
Where loyal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight?

mf O Paradise! O Paradise!
The world is growing old;
Who would not be at rest and free
Where love is never cold;
Where loyal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight?

mf O Paradise! O Paradise!
'Tis weary waiting here;
I long to be where Jesus is,
To feel, to see Him near;
Where loyal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight.

mf O Paradise! O Paradise!
I want to sin no more,
I want to be as pure on earth
As on thy spotless shore;
Where loyal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight.

mf O Paradise! O Paradise!
I greatly long to see
The special place my dearest Lord
In love prepares for me;
Where loyal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight.

p Lord Jesus, King of Paradise,
O keep me in Thy love,
And guide me to that happy land
Of perfect rest above;
Where loyal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight.
Hymn 235. O quanta qualia.—10 10 10 10.

* For the 1st verse, the slur is better over the 3rd and 4th notes of this bar.
"There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God."

mf Oh, what the joy and the glory must be,
  Those endless Sabbaths the blessed ones see;
Crown for the valiant, (p) to weary ones rest;

er God shall be All and in all ever Blest.

mf What are the Monarch, His Court, and His Throne?
What are the peace and the joy that they own?
O that the blest ones, who in it have share,
All that they feel could as fully declare!

Truly Jerusalem name we that shore,

p Vision of peace, (cr) that brings joy evermore;

mf Wish and fulfilment can sever’d be ne’er,
Nor the thing pray’d for come short of the prayer.

p There, where no troubles distraction can bring,

er We the sweet anthems of Sion shall sing,
While for Thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise
Thy blessed people eternally raise.

mf There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is o’er,
Those Sabbath-keepers have one evermore;

f One and unending is that triumph-song
Which to the Angels and us shall belong.

p Now in the meanwhile, with hearts raised on high,
We for that country must yearn and must sigh;
Seeking Jerusalem, dear native land,
Through our long exile on Babylon’s strand.

mf Low before Him with our praises we fall,
Of Whom, and in Whom, and through Whom are all;

f Of Whom, the Father; and in Whom, the Son;
Through Whom, the Spirit, with Them ever One.

And streets of shining gold?

For that bright home of love;
That I may see Thee and adore,

Hymn 237. York.—C.M.

"O how amiable are Thy dwellings, Thou Lord of hosts."

GOD of hosts, the mighty Lord,
How lovely is the place,
Where Thou, enthroned in glory, show' st
The brightness of Thy Face!

My longing soul faints with desire
To view Thy blest abode;
My panting heart and flesh cry out
For Thee the living God.

For in Thy courts one single day
'Tis better to attend,

A thousand days to spend.

The Three in One to sing;
And thus proclaim
In joyful song,
Both loud and long,
That glorious Name.

Here, gracious God, do Thou
For evermore draw nigh;
Accept each faithful vow,
And mark each suppliant sigh;
In copious shower
On all who pray
Each holy day
Thy blessings pour.

Until that day
When all the blest
To endless rest

"O how amiable are Thy dwellings, Thou Lord of hosts."

_mf_ PLEASANT are Thy courts above
In the land of light and love;

_p_ Pleasant are Thy courts below
In this land of sin and woe:

_cr_ Oh, my spirit longs and faints
For the converse of Thy Saints,

Hymn 244. St. Edmund.—C.M.

ORD, when we bend before Thy Throne, When we disclose our wants in prayer,
And our confessions pour, May we our wills resign,
Teach us to feel the sins we own, And not a thought our bosoms share
And hate what we deplore. Which is not wholly Thine.

Our broken spirits pitying see; May faith each weak petition fill,
 True penitence impart; And waft it to the skies,
Then let a kindling glance from Thee And teach our hearts 'tis goodness still Beam hope upon the heart. That grants it or denies.

"A broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt Thou not despise."

And plead with Thee for mercy there, And every plighted promise there;

And for His sake receive my prayer. And how Thy glory is to spare.

p O think not of my shame and guilt, p O think not of my doubts and fears, cr Think of the Blood which Jesus spilt, Think upon Jesus' woes and tears,

And let that Blood my pardon buy. cr And let His Merits stand for mine.

Hymn 246.  Breslau.—L.M.

"Men ought always to pray, and not to faint."

\textit{mf} WHAT various hindrances we meet
In coming to the Mercy-seat;
Yet who, that knows the worth of prayer,
But wishes to be often there?

Prayer makes the darken'd cloud withdraw,
Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw,
Gives exercise to faith and love,
Brings every blessing from above.

\textit{p}  Restraining prayer, we cease to fight;
\textit{cr}  Prayer makes the Christian's armour bright;
And Satan trembles when he sees
The weakest saint upon his knees.

\textit{mf}  When Moses stood with arms spread wide,
Success was found on Israel's side;
\textit{p}  But when through weariness they fail'd,
That moment Amalek prevail'd.

\textit{mf}  Have we no words? ah, think again;
Words flow apace when we complain,
And fill our fellow-creature's ear
With the sad tale of all our care.

Were half the breath thus vainly spent
To Heav'n in supplication sent,
Our cheerful song would oftener be,
\textit{f}  "Hear what the Lord hath done for me."

\textit{mf}  O Lord, increase our faith and love,
That we may all Thy goodness prove,
And gain from Thy exhaustless store
The fruits of prayer for evermore.

"And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me."

Shepherd Divine, our wants relieve
In this our evil day;
To all Thy tempted followers give
The power to watch and pray.

Till Thou Thy perfect love impart,
Till Thou Thyself bestow,
Be this the cry of every heart,
"I will not let Thee go."

I will not let Thee go, unless
Thou tell Thy Name to me;
With all Thy great Salvation bless,
And make me all like Thee.

Long as our fiery trials last,
Long as the cross we bear,
O let our souls on Thee be cast
In never-ceasing prayer.

Then let me on the mountain-top
Behold Thine open Face;
Where faith in sight is swallow'd up,
And prayer in endless praise.

The Spirit of interceding grace

To wrestle till we see Thy Face,
And know Thy hidden Name.
Hymn 249. St. Bride.—S.M.

"Have mercy upon me, O God, after Thy great goodness: according to the multitude of Thy mercies do away mine offences."

Have mercy, Lord, on me, As Thou wert ever kind; Let me, opprest with loads of guilt, Thy wonted mercy find.

Wash off my foul offence, And cleanse me from my sin; For I confess my crime, and see How great my guilt has been.

The joy Thy favour gives Let me again obtain, And Thy free Spirit's firm support My fainting soul sustain.

Out of the deep of fear,

I plead the Precious Name.

"Jesus, Master, have mercy on us."

SAVIOUR, when in dust to Thee
Low we bow the adoring knee;

mf By the sacred griefs that wept
O'er the grave where Lazarus slept;
By the boding tears that flow'd

By the mournful word that told
Treachery lurk'd within Thy fold;
From Thy Seat above the sky
Hear our solemn litany.

Hymn 252. St. Cyprian.—10 10 10 10. (Second Tune.)
"In Whom we have redemption through His Blood, the forgiveness of sins."

W EARY of earth and laden with my sin,
I look at Heav'n and long to enter in;
But there no evil thing may find a home,
And yet I hear a voice that bids me, "Come."

So vile I am, how dàre I hope to stand
In the pure glory of that holy land?
Before the whiteness of that Throne appear?
Yet there are Hands stretch'd out to draw me near.

The while I fain would tread the heavenly way,
Evil is ever with me day by day;
Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall,
"Repent, confess, thou shalt be loosed from all."

It is the voice of JEsus that I hear,
His are the Hands stretch'd out to draw me near,
And His the Blood that can for all atone,
And set me faultless there before the Throne.

'Twas He Who found me on the deathly wild,
And made me heir of Heav'n, the Father's child,
And day by day, whereby my soul may live,
Gives me His grace of pardon, and will give.

O great Absolver, grant my soul may wear
The lowliest garb of penitence and prayer,
That in the Father's courts my glorious dress
May be the garment of Thy righteousness.

Yea, Thou wilt answer for me, Righteous Lord;
Thine all the merits, mine the great reward;
Thine the sharp thorns, and (mf) mine the golden crown;
Mine the life won, and (p) Thine the life laid down.

Nought can I bring, dear Lord, for all I owe,

Forgiven greatly, how I greatly love.

Just as I am, (mf) Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because Thy promise I believe,
O LAMB of God, I come.

Just as I am, (mf) (Thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down),
Now to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O LAMB of God, I come.

Just as I am, (mf) of that free love
The breadth, length, depth, and height to prove,
Here for a season, then above,
O LAMB of God, I come.

f Of joy that hath no ending,
    Of love which cannot cease.

mf "Come unto Me, ye wanderers,

p O loving voice of Jesus,
cr Which comes to cheer the night;

p Our hearts were fill'd with sadness,
    And we had lost our way;
f But He has brought us gladness
    And songs at break of day.

mf "Come unto Me, ye fainting,
    And I will give you life."

O cheering voice of Jesus,
cr Which comes to aid our strife;

mf The foe is stern and eager,
    The fight is fierce and long;
f But He has made us mighty,
    And stronger than the strong.

mf "And whosoever cometh,
    I will not cast him out."

O welcome voice of Jesus, cr Which drives away our doubt;

"He that cometh to Me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst."

I heard the voice of Jesus say,

mf "Come unto Me and rest;

\textit{cr} Lay down, thou weary one, lay down

Thy head upon My Breast;"

I came to Jesus as I was,

Weary, and worn, and sad;

I found in Him a resting-place,

And He has made me glad.

---

I heard the voice of Jesus say,

mf "Behold, I freely give \textit{cr} The living water, thirsty one,

Stoop down, and drink, and live:"

*I came to Jesus, and I drank

Of that life-giving stream;

My thirst was quench'd, my soul revived,

And now I live in Him.

---

I heard the voice of Jesus say,

mf "I am this dark world's Light;

\textit{cr} Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise,

And all thy day be bright:"

*I look'd to Jesus, and I found

In Him my Star, my Sun;

And in that Light of life I'll walk

\textit{dim} Till travelling days are done.

Hymn 258.  IN VIAM RECTAM.—D.S.M.
When he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders rejoicing.

p I WAS a wandering sheep,
    I did not love the fold,
I did not love my Shepherd's voice,
    I would not be controll'd.
I was a wayward child,
    I did not love my home,
I did not love my Father's voice,
    I loved afar to roam.

mf The Shepherd sought His sheep,
    The Father sought His child.
They follow'd me o'er vale and hill,
    O'er deserts waste and wild;
They found me (p) nigh to death,
    Famish'd, and faint, and lone;

or They bound me with the bands of love,
    They saved the wandering one.

mf They spoke in tender love,
    They raised my drooping head,
They gently closed my bleeding wounds,
    My fainting soul they fed;
They wash'd my filth away,
    They made me clean and fair;

or They brought me to my home in peace,

dim The long-sought wanderer.

f Jesus my Shepherd is,
    'Twas He that loved my soul,
'Twas He that wash'd me in His Blood,
    'Twas He that made me whole;
'Twas He that sought the lost,
    That found the wandering sheep;

or 'Twas He that brought me to the fold, dim 'Tis He that still doth keep.

p I was a wandering sheep,
    I would not be controll'd;

f But now I love my Shepherd's voice,
    I love, I love the fold.

p I was a wayward child,
    I once preferr'd to roam;

f But now I love my Father's voice,
    I love, I love His home.

Hymn 262. Chapel Royal.—8 8 6 8 8 6.

"Now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity."

Great Mover of all hearts, Whose Hand
Doth all the secret springs command
Of human thought and will,
Thou, since the world was made, dost bless
Thy Saints with fruits of holiness,
Their order to fulfil.

Faith, hope, and love here weave one chain;
But love alone shall then remain
When this short day is gone:
O Love, O Truth, O endless Light,
When shall we see Thy Sabbath bright
With all our labours done?

We sow 'mid perils here and tears;
There the glad hand the harvest bears,
Which here in grief hath sown:
Great Three in One, the increase give;
Thy gifts of grace, by which we live,
With heavenly glory crown.

Hymn 263. BRESLAU.—L.M.

"If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me."

Take up thy cross, the Saviour said, if thou wouldst My disciple be; Deny thyself, the world forsake, and humbly follow after Me.

Take up thy cross; let not its weight Fill thy weak spirit with alarm; His strength shall bear thy spirit up, And brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.

Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame, Nor let thy foolish pride rebel; Thy Lord for thee the Cross endured, To save thy soul from death and hell.

Take up thy cross then in His strength, And calmly every danger brave; 'Twill guide thee to a better home, and lead to victory o'er the grave.

Take up thy cross, and follow Christ, Nor think till death to lay it down; For only he who bears the cross May hope to wear the glorious crown.

To Thee, Great Lord, the One in Three, All praise for evermore ascend; DimO grant us in our Home to see

The heavenly life that knows no end.

"Thy will be done."

mf MY God, my Father, while I stray,
Far from my home, on life's rough
O teach me from my heart to say, [way,
_p "Thy Will be done."

Though dark my path, and sad my lot,
Let me be still and murmur not,
Or breathe the prayer divinely taught,

What though in lonely grief I sigh
For friends beloved no longer nigh,
Submissive would I still reply,
"Thy Will be done."

If Thou shouldst call me to resign
What most I prize, it ne'er was mine;
I only yield Thee what is Thine;
"Thy Will be done."

mf Let but my fainting heart be blest
With Thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
My God, to Thee I leave the rest;

"Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is, brethren, to dwell together in unity!"

mf LORD, how joyful 'tis to see
The brethren join in love to Thee!
On Thee alone their heart relies,
Their only strength Thy grace supplies.

How sweet within Thy holy place
With one accord to sing Thy grace,
Besieging Thine attentive ear
With all the force of fervent prayer!

O may no angry strife destroy
That sacred peace, that holy joy.

"One hope of your calling."

mf Through the night of doubt and sorrow
Onward goes the pilgrim band,
Singing songs of expectation,
Marching to the Promised Land.

Clear before us through the darkness
Gleams and burns the guiding Light;
Brother clasps the hand of brother,
Stepping fearless through the night.

One the Light of God's own Presence
O'er His ransom'd people shed,
Chasing far the gloom and terror,
Brightening all the path we tread:

One the object of our journey,
One the faith which never tires,
One the earnest looking forward,
One the hope our God inspires:

One the strain that lips of thousands
Lift as from the heart of one;
One the conflict, one the peril,
One the march in God begun:

f One the gladness of rejoicing
On the far eternal shore,
Where the One Almighty Father
Reigns in love for evermore.

mf Onward, therefore, pilgrim brothers,
Onward with the Cross our aid;
Bear its shame, and fight its battle,
Till we rest beneath its shade.

"Casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you."

mf LORD, how happy should we be
If we could cast our care on Thee,
If we from self could rest;
And feel at heart that One above,
In perfect wisdom, perfect love,
Is working for the best.

p How far from this our daily life,
How oft disturb'd by anxious strife,
By sudden wild alarms;
Oh, could we but relinquish all
Our earthly props, and simply fall
On Thy Almighty arms!

p Could we but kneel, and cast our load,
E'en while we pray, upon our God,
Then rise with lighten'd cheer;
Sure that the Father, Who is nigh
To still the famish'd raven's cry,
Will hear in that we fear.

mf We cannot trust Him as we should;
So chafes weak nature's restless mood
To cast its peace away;
But birds and flowerets round us preach,
All, all the present evil teach
Sufficient for the day.

mf Lord, make these faithless hearts of ours
Such lessons learn from birds and flowers;
Make them from self to cease;
Leave all things to a Father's Will,
And taste, before Him lying still,
E'en in affliction, peace.

Hymn 281. Mannheim.—8 7 8 7 8 7.

LEAD us, Heavenly Father, lead us
O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us,
For we have no help but Thee;
Yet possessing every blessing,
If our God our Father be.

SAVIOUR, breathe forgiveness o'er us,
All our weakness Thou dost know;
Thou didst tread this earth before us,
Thou didst feel its keenest woe;
Lone and dreary, faint and weary,
Through the desert Thou didst go.

"I am the Lord thy God . . . Which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go."

General Hymns.

Be Thou my Guardian and my Guide,
And hear me when I call;
Let not my slippery footsteps slide,
And hold me lest I fall.

And if I tempted am to sin,
And outward things are strong,
Do Thou, O Lord, keep watch within,
And save my soul from wrong.

The world, the flesh, and Satan dwell
Around the path I tread;
O save me from the snares of hell,
Thou Quickener of the dead.

Still let me ever watch and pray,
And feel that I am frail;
That if the Tempter cross my way,
Yet he may not prevail.

"O hold Thou up my goings in Thy paths; that my footsteps slip not."
"Lord, remember me."

mf 0  THOU, from Whom all goodness flows,
    I lift my heart to Thee;

p  In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
    Good Lord, remember me.

If worn with pain, disease, and grief
    This feeble frame should be,

cr Grant patience, rest, and kind relief;

p  Good Lord, remember me.

When on my aching burden'd heart
    My sins lie heavily,

cr Thy pardon grant, Thy peace impart;

p  Good Lord, remember me.

And, oh, when in the hour of death
    I bow to Thy decree,

Jesu, receive my parting breath;

pp  Good Lord, remember me.

When trials sore obstruct my way,
    And ills I cannot flee,

p  Good Lord, remember me.
My soul thirsteth for Thee, my flesh also longeth after Thee; in a barren and dry land where no water is."

Far from my heavenly home,
Far from my Father's breast.
Fainting I cry, "Blest Spirit, come,
And speed me to my rest."

My spirit homeward turns,
And fain would thither flee;
Dim My heart, O Sion, droops and yearns,
When I remember thee.

To thee, to thee I press,
A dark and toilsome road;
When shall I pass the wilderness,
And reach the Saints' abode?

God of my life, be near;
On Thee my hopes I cast;
O guide me through the desert here,
And bring me home at last.

“And He arose and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still.”

FIERCE raged the tempest o’er the deep,
Watch did Thine anxious servants keep,
But Thou wast wrapp’d in guileless sleep,
Calm and still.

“Save, Lord, we perish,” was their cry,
“O save us in our agony!”
Thy Word above the storm rose high,
Peace, be still.”

The wild winds hush’d; (f) the angry deep
Sank, like a little child, to sleep;

Peace, be still.”

"Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory."

LET him, whose sorrow
No relief can find,
Trust in God, and borrow
Ease for heart and mind.

Where the mourner weeping
Sheds the secret tear,
God His watch is keeping,
Though none else be near.

God will never leave thee,
All thy wants He knows,
Feels the pains that grieve thee,
Sees thy cares and woes.

When in grief we languish,
He will dry the tear,
Who His children's anguish
Soothes with succour near.

All our woe and sadness,
In this world below,
Balance not the gladness
We in Heav'n shall know.

General Hymns.

“Let my supplication come before Thee; deliver me, according to Thy Word.”

mf  JESUS, Lord of life and glory,
    Bend from Heav’n Thy gracious ear;
While our waiting souls adore Thee,
    Friend of helpless sinners, hear:

p    By Thy mercy,
    O deliver us, good Lord.

mf  From the depths of nature’s blindness,
    From the hardening power of sin,
From all malice and unkindness,
    From the pride that lurks within,

p    By Thy mercy,
    O deliver us, good Lord.

When temptation sorely presses,
    In the day of Satan’s power,
In our times of deep distresses,
    In each dark and trying hour,

    By Thy mercy,
    O deliver us, good Lord.

mf  When the world around is smiling,
    In the time of wealth and ease,
Earthly joys our hearts beguiling,
    In the day of health and peace,

p    By Thy mercy,

In the weary hours of sickness,
    In the times of grief and pain,
When we feel our mortal weakness,
    When the creature’s help is vain,

    By Thy mercy,
    O deliver us, good Lord.

In the solemn hour of dying,
    In the awful judgment day,
May our souls, on Thee relying,
    Find Thee still our Hope and Stay:

    O deliver us, good Lord.

\begin{quote}
SING praise to God Who reigns above,
The God of all creation,

With healing balm my soul He fills,
And every faithless murmur stills;
To God all praise and glory.

The Angel-host, O King of kings,
Thy praise for ever telling,
In earth and sky all living things
Beneath Thy shadow dwelling,
Adore the wisdom which could span,
And power which form'd creation's plan:
To God all praise and glory.
\end{quote}

\begin{quote}
What God's Almighty power hath made

Lo! all is just and all is right;

\begin{quote}
The Lord is never far away,
But, through all grief distressing,
An ever-present help and stay,

\begin{quote}
Thus all my toilsome way along
I sing aloud Thy praises,

My voice unwearyed raises:
Be joyful in the Lord, my heart;
Both soul and body bear your part:
To God all praise and glory.

\textit{A-men.}
PRAISE our Great and Gracious Lord,
   And call upon His Name;
To strains of joy tune every chord,
   His mighty acts proclaim;

Tell how He led His chosen race
   To Canaan's promised land;
Tell how His covenant of grace
   Unchanged shall ever stand.

He gave the shadowing cloud by day,
   The moving fire by night;
To guide His Israel on their way,
   He made their darkness light;
And have not we a sure retreat,
   A Saviour ever nigh,
The same clear light to guide our feet,
   The Day-spring from on high?

We too have Manna from above,
   The Bread that came from Heav'n;
To us the same kind hand of love
   Hath living waters given;
A Rock we have, from whence the spring
   In rich abundance flows;
That Rock is Christ, our Priest, our King,
   Who life and health bestows.

O may we prize this blessed Food,
   And trust our heavenly Guide;
So shall we find death's fearful flood
   Serene as Jordan's tide,
And safely reach that happy shore,
   The land of peace and rest,
Where Angels worship and adore
   In God's own Presence blest.

And with glad songs resounding wake again
f An endless Alleluia.

In blissful antiphons ye thus rejoice
To render to the Lord with thankful voice
f An endless Alleluia.

Ye who have gain'd at length your palms in bliss,
Victorious ones, your chant shall still be this,
An endless Alleluia.

There, in one grand acclaim, for ever ring
The strains which tell the honour of your King, ff An endless Alleluia.

This is sweet rest for weary ones brought back,
This is glad food and drink which ne'er shall lack,
An endless Alleluia.

While Thee, by Whom were all things made, we praise
For ever, and tell out in sweetest lays
An endless Alleluia.

Almighty Christ, to Thee our voices sing Glory for evermore; to Thee we bring
An endless Alleluia.
Hymn 297. Culbach.—7 7 7 7.

"When I laid the foundations of the earth . . . when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy."

S O N G S of praise the Angels sang,
Heav’n with Alleluias rang,
When creation was begun,
When God spake and it was done.

Songs of praise awoke the morn
When the Prince of peace was born;
Songs of praise arose when He
Captive led captivity.

Heav’n and earth must pass away,
Songs of praise shall crown that day;
God will make new heavens and earth,
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

And will man alone be dumb
Till that glorious kingdom come?
No, the Church delights to raise
Psalms and hymns and songs of praise.

Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice;
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.

Hymns of glory, songs of praise,
Father, unto Thee we raise,
Jesu, glory unto Thee,
With the Spirit, ever be.
“Praise the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me praise His Holy Name.”

PRAISE, my soul, the King of Heaven, To His feet thy tribute bring;
Ransom’d, heal’d, restored, forgiven,
Evermore His praises sing;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the everlasting King.

Praise Him for His grace and favour
To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him still the same as ever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glorious in His faithfulness.

Father-like, He tends and spares us,
Well our feeble frame He knows;
In His hands He gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Widely yet His mercy flows.

Angels in the height, adore Him;
Ye behold Him face to face;
Saints triumphant, bow before Him,
Gather’d in from every race;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise with us the God of grace.

"I heard the voice of many angels... saying,... Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing."

"COME, let us join our cheerful songs With Angels round the Throne; Ten thousand thousand are their tongues, But all their joys are one.

"Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry, "To be exalted thus;" "Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply, "For He was slain for us."

"Worthy the Lamb," they cry, "To be exalted thus;" "Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply, "For He was slain for us."

Hymn 300. St. Leonard.—C.M. (Second Tune.)

All hail the power of Jesus' Name; Let Angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem And crown Him Lord of all.

Crown Him, ye morning stars of light, Who fix'd this floating ball;
Now hail the Strength of Israel's might, And crown Him Lord of all.

Crown Him, ye Martyrs of your God, Who from His Altar call; Extol the Stem-of-Jesse's Rod, And crown Him Lord of all.

Ye seed of Israel's chosen race, Ye ransom'd of the fall, Hail Him Who saves you by His grace, And crown Him Lord of all.

Hail Him, ye heirs of David's line, Whom David Lord did call, The God Incarnate, Man Divine, And crown Him Lord of all.

Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget The wormwood and the gall, Go spread your trophies at His feet, And crown Him Lord of all.

Let every tribe and every tongue Before Him prostrate fall, And shout in universal song The crowned Lord of all.

The last line of every verse is to be sung as marked in the music.
"To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with Me in My throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with My Father in His throne."

Hymn 301. St. Magnus.—C.M. p The Head that once was crown'd with thorns

Is crown'd with glory now: [thorns
A royal diadem adorns
The mighty Victor's Brow.

The highest place that Heav'n affords
Is His, is His by right,
The King of kings, and Lord of lords,
And Heav'n's eternal Light.

mf The Joy of all who dwell above,
The Joy of all below,
To whom He manifests His love,
And grants His Name to know.

p To them the Cross, with all its shame,
With all its grace, is given:
Their name an everlasting name,
Their joy the joy of Heav'n.

f They suffer with their Lord below.
They reign with Him above;
Their profit and their joy to know
The mystery of His love.

The Cross He bore is life and health,
Though shame and death to Him;
His people's hope, His people's wealth,
Their everlasting theme.

A - men.
"The four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints."

COME, ye faithful, raise the anthem,
Cleave the skies with shouts of praise;
Sing to Him Who found the ransom,
Ancient of eternal days,
God of God, the Word Incarnate,
Whom the Heav'n of Heav'n obeys.

Ere He raised the lofty mountains,
Form'd the seas, or built the sky,
Love eternal, free, and boundless,
Moved the Lord of Life to die,
Fore-ordain'd the Prince of princes
For the Throne of Calvary.

There, for us and our redemption,
See Him all His Life-blood pour!
There He wins our full salvation,
Dies that we may die no more;
Then, arising, lives for ever,
Reigning where He was before.

High on yon celestial mountains
Stands His gem-built Throne, all
Midst unending Alleluias [bright,
Bursting from the sons of light;
Sion's people tell His praises,
Victor after hard-won fight.

Bring your harps, and bring your odours,
Sweep the string and pour the lay;
Let the earth proclaim His wonders,
King of that celestial day;
He the Lamb once slain is worthy,
Who was dead, (f) and lives for aye.

Laud and honour to the Father,
Laud and honour to the Son,
Laud and honour to the Spirit,
Ever THREE and ever ONE,
Consubstantial, Co-eternal,
While unending ages run.

Hymn 305.  Edina.—6 5 6 5 6 5 6 5.
SAVIOUR, Blesséd Saviour,
Listen whilst we sing,
Hearts and voices raising
Praises to our King;
All we have we offer;
All we hope to be,
Body, soul, and spirit,
All we yield to Thee.

Brighter still and brighter
Glows the western sun,
Shedding all its gladness
O’er our work that’s done;
Time will soon be over,
Toil and sorrow past,
May we, Blesséd Saviour,
Find a rest at last.

Great and ever greater
Are Thy mercies here;
True and everlasting
Are the glories there;
Where no pain, nor sorrow,
Toil, nor care, is known,
Where the Angel-legions
Circle round Thy Throne.

Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o’er the road
Worn by Saints before us,
Journeying on to God;
Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking
Till the prize is won.

Dark and ever darker
Was the wintry past,
Now a ray of gladness
O’er our path is cast;
Every day that passeth,
Every hour that flies,
Tells of love unfeigned,
Love that never dies.

Bliss, all bliss excelling,
When the ransom’d soul,
Earthly toils forgetting,
Finds its promised goal;
Where in joys unheard of Saints with Angels sing,
Never weary raising
Praises to their King.

Every day will I give thanks unto Thee, and praise Thy Name for ever and ever.

p He was little, weak, and helpless,
   Tears and smiles like us He knew;
   And He feeleth for our sadness,
   And He shareth in our gladness.

   For that Child so dear and gentle
   Is our Lord in Heav'n above;

\[mf\] We are but little children weak,
Nor born in any high estate;
What can we do for Jesus' sake,
Who is so High and Good and Great?

\[mf\] We know the Holy Innocents
Laid down for Him their infant life,
And Martyrs brave, and patient Saints
Have stood for Him in fire and strife.

We wear the cross they wore of old,
Our lips have learn'd like vows to make,
We need not die; we cannot fight;
What may we do for Jesus' sake?

Oh, day by day, each Christian child
Has much to do, without, within;
A death to die, for Jesus' sake,
A weary war to wage with sin.

\[p\] When deep within our swelling hearts
The thoughts of pride and anger rise,
When bitter words are on our tongues,
And tears of passion in our eyes;

\[cr\] Then we may stay the angry blow,
Then we may check the hasty word,
Give gentle answers back again,
And fight a battle for our Lord.

\[mf\] With smiles of peace, and looks of love,
Light in our dwellings we may make,
Bid kind good humour brighten there,
And still do all for Jesus' sake.

\[mf\] There's not a child so small and weak
But has his little cross to take,
His little work of love and praise
That he may do for Jesus' sake,

363 Orig. Ed. (464)
While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Hymn 337. In Memoriam.—8 6 7 6 7 6 7 6

There's a Friend for little children Above the bright blue sky, A Friend Who never changes, Whose love will never die; Our earthly friends may fail us, And change with changing
For the Young.

"Jesus ... took a child, and set him by Him."

There's a Friend for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
A Friend Who never changes,
Whose love will never die;
Our earthly friends may fail us,
And change with changing years,
This Friend is always worthy
Of that dear Name He bears.

There's a rest for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
Who love the Blessed Saviour,
And to the Father cry;
A rest from every turmoil,
From sin and sorrow free,
Where every little pilgrim
Shall rest eternally.

There's a home for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
Where Jesus reigns in glory,
A home of peace and joy;
No home on earth is like it,
Nor can with it compare;
For every one is happy,
Nor could be happier, there.

There's a crown for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
And all who look for Jesus
Shall wear it by and by;
A crown of brightest glory,
Which He will then bestow
On those who found His favour
And loved His Name below.

There's a song for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
Though sung continually;
A song which even Angels
Can never, never sing;
They know not Christ as Saviour,
But worship Him as King.

There's a robe for little children
Above the bright blue sky;
And a harp of sweetest music,
And palms of victory.
All, all above is treasured,
And found in Christ alone;
Lord, grant Thy little children
To know Thee as their own.
"Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children."

Heavenly Father, send Thy blessing
On Thy children gather'd here,
May they all, Thy Name confessing,
Be to Thee for ever dear:
May they be, like Joseph, loving,
Dutiful, and chaste, and pure;
And their faith, like David, proving,
Steadfast unto death endure.

Holy Saviour, Who in meekness
Didst vouchsafe a Child to be,
Guide their steps, and help their weakness,
Bless and make them like to Thee;
Bear Thy lambs, when they are weary,
In Thine Arms and at Thy Breast;
Through life's desert, dry and dreary,
Bring them to Thy heavenly rest.

Spread Thy golden pinions o'er them,
Holy Spirit, from above,
Guide them, lead them, go before them,
Give them peace, and joy, and love:
Thy true temples, Holy Spirit,
May they with Thy glory shine,
And immortal bliss inherit,
And for evermore be Thine.
"Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits."

FAIR waved the golden corn
In Canaan's pleasant land,
When full of joy, some shining morn,
Went forth the reaper-band.

Thine is our youthful prime,
And life and all its powers;
Be with us in our morning time,
And bless our evening hours.

To God so good and great
Their cheerful thanks they pour;
Then carry to His temple-gate
The choicest of their store.

In wisdom let us grow,
As years and strength are given,
That we may serve Thy Church below,
And join Thy Saints in Heav'n.

Like Israel, Lord, we give
Our earliest fruits to Thee,
And pray that, long as we shall live,
We may Thy children be.

And sing, ye gentle maidens,
  Your sweet responsive lay.

'Tis good for boys and maidens
  Sweet hymns to Christ to sing,
'Tis meet that children's voices

To babe, and boy, and maiden
  The one Redeemer Blest.

  To toil for Him is gain,
And Jesus wrought with Joseph

O maidens, live for Jesus,
  Who was a maiden's Son;
Be patient, pure, and gentle,
  And perfect grace begun.

Hymn 342. St. Bede.—8 7 8 7 8 7. \( \text{}=80. \)
"He shall feed His flock like a shepherd; He shall gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom."

Gracious Saviour, gentle Shepherd,
Little ones are dear to Thee;
Gather'd with Thine Arms, and carried
In Thy Bosom may we be;
Sweetly, fondly, safely tended,
From all want and danger free.

Tender Shepherd, never leave us
From Thy fold to go astray;
By Thy look of love directed
May we walk the narrow way;
Thus direct us, and protect us,
Lest we fall an easy prey.

Cleanse our hearts from sinful folly
In the stream Thy love supplied,
Mingled stream of Blood and Water,
Flowing from Thy wounded Side;
And to heavenly pastures lead us,
Where Thine own still waters glide.

Let Thy holy Word instruct us;
Guide us daily by its light;
Let Thy love and grace constrain us
To approve whate’er is right,
Take Thine easy yoke, and wear it,
Strengthen’d with Thy heavenly might.

Taught to lisp the holy praises
Which on earth Thy children sing,
Both with lips and hearts unfeignèd
May we our thank-offerings bring;
Then with all the Saints in glory
Join to praise our Lord and King.
"Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings Thou hast perfected praise."

f GOD Eternal, Mighty King,
Unto Thee our praise we bring;
All the earth doth worship Thee,
We amid the throng would be.

Angels round Thy Throne on high:
Lord of all the heavenly powers,

Hymn 344. St. Helena.—S.M.

"Thy Holy Child Jesus."

For a School Feast.

mf LORD Jesus, God and Man,
   For love of man a Child,
   The Very God, yet born on earth
   Of Mary undefiled;

   LORD Jesus, God and Man,
   In this our festal day
   To Thee for precious gifts of grace
   Thy ransom’d people pray.

mf We pray for childlike hearts,
   For gentle holy love,
   For strength to do Thy Will below
   As Angels do above.

   We pray for simple faith,
   For hope that never faints,
   For true communion evermore
   With all Thy blessed Saints.

mf On friends around us here
   O let Thy blessing fall;

cr We pray for grace to love them well,
   But Thee beyond them all.

f O joy to live for Thee!
   O joy in Thee to die!

ff O very joy of joys to see Thy Face eternally!

p LORD Jesus, God and Man,
   We praise Thee and adore,
   Who art with God the Father One
   And Spirit evermore.

Hymn 350. St. Alphege.—7 6 7 6.

"A threefold cord is not quickly broken."

THE voice that breathed o'er Eden,
That earliest wedding day,
The primal marriage blessing,
It hath not pass'd away:

Still in the pure espousal
Of Christian man and maid
The Holy Three are with us,
The threefold grace is said,

For dower of blessed children,
For love and faith's sweet sake,
For high mysterious union
Which nought on earth may break.

Be present, awful Father,
To give away this bride,
As Eve Thou gav'st to Adam
Out of his own pierced side;

Be present, Son of Mary,
To join their loving hands,
As Thou didst bind two natures
In Thine Eternal bands;

Be present, Holiest Spirit,
To bless them as they kneel,
As Thou for Christ, the Bridegroom,
The heavenly spouse dost seal.

O spread Thy pure wing o'er them,
Let no ill power find place,
When onward to Thine Altar
The hallow'd path they trace,

To cast their crowns before Thee
In perfect sacrifice,
Till to the home of gladness
With Christ's own Bride they rise.

Hymn 351. St. GEORGE.—S.M.

"Both Jesus was called, and His disciples, to the marriage."

mf HOW welcome was the call,
     And sweet the festal lay,
     When Jesus deign'd in Cana's hall
     To bless the marriage day!

mf And happy was the Bride,
     And glad the Bridegroom's heart,
     For He Who tarried at their side
     Bade grief and ill depart.

mf His gracious power Divine
     The water vessels knew;
     And plenteous was the mystic wine
     The wondering servants drew.

p O Lord of life and love,
     Come Thou again to-day;

cr And bring a blessing from above
     That ne'er shall pass away.

mf O bless, as erst of old,
     The Bridegroom and the Bride;
     Bless with the holier stream that flow'd
     Forth from Thy pierced Side.

p Before Thine Altar-throne
     This mercy we implore;
     As Thou dost knit them, Lord, in one,
     So bless them evermore.
"As My Father hath sent Me, even so send I you."

CHRIST is gone up; yet ere He pass'd
From earth, in Heav'n to reign,
He form'd one holy Church to last
Till He should come again.

So age by age, and year by year,
His grace was handed on;
And still the holy Church is here,
Although her Lord is gone.

His twelve Apostles first He made
His ministers of grace;
And they their hands on others laid,
To fill in turn their place.

Let those find pardon, Lord, from Thee,
Whose love to her is cold:
Bring wanderers in, and let there be
One Shepherd and one fold.

O THOU Who makest souls to shine
With light from lighter worlds above,
And droppest glistening dew Divine
On all who seek a Saviour's love;
Do Thou Thy benediction give
On all who teach, on all who learn,
That so Thy Church may holier live,
And every lamp more brightly burn.
Give those, who teach, pure hearts and wise,
Faith, hope, and love, all warm'd by prayer;
Themselves first training for the skies,
They best will raise their people there.

Give those, who learn, the willing ear,
The spirit meek, the guileless mind;
Such gifts will make the lowliest here
Far better than a kingdom find.
O bless the shepherd; bless the sheep;

One in the faithful watch they keep,

mf To all Thy Priests Thy truth reveal,
And make Thy judgments clear;

mf Not for our land alone we pray,
To hear and to obey;

cr Beseeching of Thy love that Thou
That each and all may mercy find
Wouldst send more labourers there.

mf Not for our land alone we pray,
And give their flocks a lowly mind
Though that above the rest;
At Thine appearing-day.

The earth, O Lord, is one wide field

The crop prepared its fruit to yield;
The labourers few indeed.

We therefore come before Thee now
With fasting, and with prayer,

Beseaching of Thy love that Thou
Wouldst send more labourers there.

Not for our land alone we pray,
Though that above the rest;
The realms and islands far away,
O let them all be blest.

Hymn 355. Ludborough.—L.M.

"Let Thy priests be clothed with righteousness."

Lord, pour Thy Spirit from on high,
And Thine ordained servants bless;
Graces and gifts to each supply,
And clothe Thy Priests with righteousness.

Within Thy temple when they stand,
To watch, and pray, and never faint,
To warn the sinner, cheer the saint,
To feed Thy lambs, and tend Thy sheep.

To day and night their guard to keep,
To bear Their people in Their heart,
And love the souls whom Thou dost love:

Wisdom, and zeal, and faith impart,
Firmness with meekness, from above,
To be The Church's Pastors be.

So, when their work is finish'd here,
May they in hope Their charge resign;
So, when Their Master shall appear,
May they with crowns of glory shine.

The precious things Thou dost impart;
And wing my words, that they may reach
The hidden depths of many a heart.

"My helpers in Christ Jesus."

O give Thine own sweet rest to me,
That I may speak with soothing power
A word in season, as from Thee,
To weary ones in needful hour.

O fill me with Thy fulness, Lord,
Until my very heart o'erflow
In kindling thought and glowing word,

Until Thy Blesséd Face I see,

Hymn 367. Charitas.— 8 7 8 7 8 7 8 7.
"Ye ought . . . to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Lord of glory, Who hast bought us
With Thy Life-blood as the price,
Never grudging for the lost ones
That tremendous Sacrifice,
And with that hast freely given
Blessings, countless as the sand,
To the unthankful and the evil
With Thine own unsparing hand;

Yes: the sorrow and the suffering,
Which on every hand we see,
Channels are for tithes and offerings
Due by solemn right to Thee;
Right of which we may not rob Thee,
Debt we may not choose but pay,
Lest that Face of love and pity
Turn from us another day.

Grant us hearts, dear Lord, to yield Thee
Gladly, freely of Thine own;
With the sunshine of Thy goodness
Melt our thankless hearts of stone;
Till our cold and selfish natures,
Warm'd by Thee, at length believe
That more happy and more blessed
'Tis to give than to receive.

Wondrous honour hast Thou given
To our humblest charity
In Thine own mysterious sentence,
"Ye have done it unto Me."
Can it be, O gracious Master,
Thou dost deign for alms to sue,
Saying by Thy poor and needy,
"Give as I have given to you?"

The following Hymn is suitable:

Hymn 368. Requiem.—878777. (Second Tune.) \( d = 76. \)

"They brought unto Him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases, and He healed them."

mf Thou to Whom the sick and dying

Ever came, nor came in vain,
Still with healing word replying
To the wearied cry of pain,
Hear us, Jesu, as we meet
Suppliants at Thy mercy-seat.

Still the weary, sick, and dying
Need a brother's, sister's care,
On Thy higher help relying
May we now their burden share,
Bringing all our offerings meet
Suppliants at Thy mercy-seat.

May each child of Thine be willing,
Willing both in hand and heart,
All the law of love fulfilling,
Ever comfort to impart,
Ever bringing offerings meet
Suppliant to Thy mercy-seat.

So may sickness, sin, and sadness
To Thy healing virtue yield,
Till the sick and sad, in gladness,
Rescued, ransom'd, cleansèd, heal'd,
One in Thee together meet,
Pardon'd at Thy judgment-seat.

\[ \text{\(d = 92.\)} \]
“They brought unto Him all that were diseased, and besought Him that they might only touch the hem of His garment; and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.”

THINE arm, O Lord, in days of old,
   Was strong to heal and save;
It triumph’d o’er disease and death,
   O’er darkness and the grave;
To Thee they went, the blind, the dumb,
   The palsied and the lame,
The leper with his tainted life,
   The sick with fever’d frame.
And lo! Thy touch brought life and health,
   Gave speech, and strength, and sight;
And youth renew’d and frenzy calm’d
   Own’d Thee, the Lord of light;
And now, O Lord, be near to bless,
   Almighty as of yore,
In crowded street, by restless couch,
   As by Gennesareth’s shore.

mf Be Thou our great Deliverer still,
   Thou Lord of life and death;
Restore and quicken, soothe and bless
   With Thine Almighty Breath;
To hands that work, and eyes that see,
   Give wisdom’s heavenly lore,
That whole and sick, and weak and strong
   May praise Thee evermore.

mf LORD of the harvest, once again

p So, Lord, to those who sleep in Thee er Shall new and glorious bodies be.

mf Nor vainly of Thy Word we ask
   A lesson from the reaper’s task:
So shall Thine Angels issue forth;
The tares be burnt; (cr) the just of earth,
To wind and storm exposed no more,
Be gather’d to their Father’s store.

mf Daily, O Lord, our prayers be said,

But not alone our bodies feed,
Supply our fainting spirits’ need:

   Be Thou their Comfort, Food, and Stay.

Although... the fields shall yield no meat... yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

WHAT our Father does is well;
Blessèd truth His children tell!
Though He send, for plenty, want,
Though the harvest-store be scant,
Yet we rest upon His love,
Seeking better things above.

What our Father does is well;
Shall the wilful heart rebel?
If a blessing He withhold
In the field, or in the fold,
Is it not Himself to be
All our store eternally?

What our Father does is well;
Though He sadden hill and dell,
Upward yet our praises rise
For the strength His Word supplies;
He has call'd us sons of God,
Can we murmur at His rod?

Therefore unto Him we raise
Hymns of glory, songs of praise;
To the Father, and the Son,
And the Spirit, Three in One,
Honour, might, and glory be
Now, and through eternity.

This Hymn may be sung when there is a deficiency in the crops.
Brightly gleams our banner.

Pointing to the sky,

Waving wanderers onward
To their home on high.

Journeying o'er the desert,
Gladly thus we pray,
And with hearts united
Take our heavenward way.

"Behold, I have given Him for . . . a leader and commander to the people."

Brightly gleams our banner.

Lead us on victorious

Waving wanderers onward
To their home on high.

Journeying o'er the desert,
Gladly thus we pray,
And with hearts united
Take our heavenward way.

All our days direct us
In the way we go,
Lead us on victorious
Over every foe:
Bid Thine Angels shield us
When the storm-clouds lour,
Pardon, Lord, and save us
In the last dread hour.

Jesus, Lord and Master,
At Thy sacred Feet,
Here with hearts rejoicing
See Thy children meet;
Often have we left Thee,
Often gone astray;
Keep us, mighty Saviour,
In the narrow way.

May we join above,
Offering prayers and praises
At Thy Throne of love;

Then comes rest and peace,

Hymn 391. Onward, Christian soldiers.—6 5 6 5 6 5 6 5 6 5 6 5.

\( \text{d} = 100. \)
"Be strong and of a good courage . . . . And the Lord, He it is that doth go before thee."

ONWARD, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before.
Christ the Royal Master
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, His banners go!

ff Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before.

At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee;
On then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory.
Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise.

ff Onward, &c.

Like a mighty army
Moves the Church of God;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the Saints have trod;

We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity.

ff Onward, &c.

Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain;

Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise;
And that cannot fail.

ff Onward, &c.

Onward, then, ye people,
Join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song;
Glory, laud, and honour
Unto Christ the King,
This through countless ages
Men and Angels sing.

ff Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before.

Hymn 392. St. Boniface.—656565656565.
Processional.

"Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward."

mf FORWARD! be our watchword,
Steps and voices join'd;
Seek the things before us,
Not a look behind;
Burns the fiery pillar
At our army's head;
Who shall dream of shrinking,
By our Captain led?

f Forward through the desert,
Through the toil and fight;
Jordan flows before us,
Sion beams with light.

mf Forward, when in childhood
Buds the infant mind;
All through youth and manhood,
Not a thought behind;
Speed through realms of nature,
Climb the steps of grace;
Faint not, till in glory
Gleams our Father's Face.

f Forward, all the life-time,
Climb from height to height;
Till the head be hoary,
Till the eye be light.

mf Forward, flock of Jesus,
Salt of all the earth,
Till each yearning purpose
Spring to glorious birth;

p Sick, they ask for healing,
Blind, they grope for day;

cr Pour upon the nations
Wisdom's loving ray.

f Forward, out of error,
Leave behind the night;
Forward through the darkness,
Forward into light.

Glories upon glories
Hath our God prepared,
By the souls that love Him
One day to be shared;

mf Eye hath not beheld them,
Ear hath never heard;
Nor of these hath utter'd
Thought or speech a word;

f Forward, marching eastward
Where the Heav'n is bright,
Till the veil be lifted,
Till our faith be sight.

mf Far o'er yon horizon
Rise the city towers,
Where our God abideth;
That fair home is ours:
Flash the streets with jasper,
Shine the gates with gold;
Flows the gladdening river
Shedding joys untold.

f Thither, onward thither,
In the Spirit's might;
Pilgrims to your country,
Forward into light.

mf Into God's high temple
Onward as we press,
Beauty spreads around us,
Born of holiness;
Arch, and vault, and carving,
Lights of varied tone,

p Soften'd words and holy,
Prayer and praise alone:
Every thought upraising
To our city bright,
Where the tribes assemble
Round the Throne of light.

mf Nought that city needeth
Of these aisles of stone;
Where the Godhead dwelleth,
Temple there is none;
All the Saints, that ever
In these courts have stood,

p Are but babes, and feeding
On the children's food.

f On through sign and token,
Stars amidst the night,
Forward through the darkness,
Forward into light.

f To the Eternal Father
Loudest anthems raise;
To the Son and Spirit
Echo songs of praise;
To the Lord of glory,
Blessed Three in One,
Be by men and Angels
Endless honours done:

p Weak are earthly praises;
Dull the songs of night;

cr Forward into triumph,

f Forward into light!
Young men and maidens, old men and children, praise the Name of the Lord.

Rejoice, ye pure in heart,
Rejoice, give thanks and sing;
Your festal banner wave on high,
The Cross of Christ your King.

Bright youth and snow-crown'd age,
Strong men and maidens meek,
Raise high your free exulting song,
God's wondrous praises speak.

Yes onward, onward still,
With hymn, and chant, and song,
Thro' gate, and porch, and column'd aisle,
The hallow'd pathways throng.

With all the Angel choirs,
With all the saints on earth,
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss,
True rapture, noblest mirth.

Your clear Hosannas raise,
And Alleluias loud;
Whilst answering echoes upward float,
Like wreaths of incense cloud.

With voice as full and strong
As ocean's surging praise,
Send forth the hymns our fathers loved,
The psalms of ancient days.

mf Yes on, through life's long path,
Still chanting as ye go,
From youth to age, by night and day,
In gladness and in woe.

Still lift your standard high,
Still march in firm array,
As warriors through the darkness toil
Till dawns the golden day.

At last the march shall end,
The wearied ones shall rest,
The pilgrims find their Father's house,
Jerusalem the blest.

Then on, ye pure in heart,
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing;
Your festal banner wave on high,
The Cross of Christ your King.

Praise Him Who reigns on high,
The Lord Whom we adore,
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One God for evermore.

Hymn 394. MELCOMBE.—L.M. j = 72.

"The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of My sanctuary."

LORD of hosts, Whose glory fills The bounds of the eternal hills,
And yet vouchsafes, in Christian lands,
To dwell in temples made with hands;

Grant that all we, who here to-day
Rejoicing this foundation lay,
May be in very deed Thine own,
Built on the precious Corner-stone.

Endue the creatures with Thy grace,
That shall adorn Thy dwelling-place;
The beauty of the oak and pine,
The gold and silver, make them Thine.

To Thee they all belong; to Thee
The treasures of the earth and sea;
And when we bring them to Thy Throne,
We but present Thee with Thine own.

The heads that guide endue with skill,
The hands that work preserve from ill,
That we, who these foundations lay,
May raise the topstone in its day.

Both now and ever, Lord, protect
The temple of Thine own elect;
Be Thou in them, and they in Thee,
O Ever-blessèd TRINITY!

The Restoration of a Church.

"We are the servants of the God of Heaven and earth, and build the house that was built these many years ago."

f LIFT the strain of high thanksgiving!
Tread with songs the hallow'd way!
Praise our fathers' God for mercies
New to us their sons to-day:

mf Here they built for Him a dwelling,

cr Served Him here in ages past,

f Fix'd it for His sure possession,
Holy ground, while time shall last.

Here, as once on Sion's height,

"He cometh to judge the earth."

Burial of the Dead.

ff Wondrous sound the trumpet flingeth,
Through earth’s sepulchres it ringeth,
All before the Throne it bringeth.
Death is struck, and nature quaking,
All creation is awaking,
To its Judge an answer making.

mf Lo! the Book exactly worded,
Wherein all hath been recorded;
Thence shall judgment be awarded.
When the Judge His seat attaineth,
And each hidden deed arraigneth,
Nothing unavenged remaineth.

p What shall I, frail man, be pleading,
Who for me be interceding,
When the just are mercy needing?

ff King of Majesty tremendous,

mf Who dost free salvation send us,
Fount of pity, (p) then befriend us!

Think, good Jesus, my salvation
Caused Thy wondrous Incarnation;
Leave me not to reprobation.
Faint and weary Thou hast sought me,
On the Cross of suffering bought me;
Shall such grace be vainly brought me?

mf Righteous Judge! for sin’s pollution
Grant Thy gift of absolution,
Ere that day of retribution.
Guilty, now I pour my moaning,
All my shame with anguish owning;
Spare, O God, Thy suppliant groaning.

Thou the sinful woman savedst;
Thou the dying thief forgavest;

er And to me a hope vouchsafest.

p Worthless are my prayers and sighing;
Yet, good Lord, in grace complying,

Oh, voice that spake within him
    The calm reproving word!
Oh, love that sought and held him
    The bondman of his Lord!

O Wisdom, ordering all things
    In order strong and sweet,
What nobler spoil was ever
    Cast at the Victor's feet?

What wiser master-builder
    E'er wrought at Thine employ
Than he, till now so furious
    Thy building to destroy?

Lord, teach Thy Church the lesson,
    Still in her darkest hour
Of weakness and of danger
    To trust Thy hidden power:

Thy Grace by ways mysterious
    The wrath of man can bind,
And in Thy boldest foeman
    Thy chosen Saint can find.

The Purification of St. Mary the Virgin.

Hymn 407. BRISTOL.—C.M. $= 92.$

"The Lord, Whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple."

mf 0 SION, open wide thy gates,

A Priest and Victim, both in one,
The Truth Himself, is here.

No more the simple flock shall bleed;

or Behold, the Father's Son
Himself to His own Altar comes,
For sinners to atone.

p Conscious of hidden Deity,
The lowly Virgin brings

Her tender offerings.

p But silent knelt the Mother blest

St. Matthias the Apostle.

Hymn 408. Sherborne.—7 7 7 7 7.

And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven Apostles.

BISHOP of the souls of men,
When the foeman's step is nigh,
When the wolf lays wait by night
For the lambs continually,
Watch, O Lord, about us keep,
Guard us, Shepherd of the sheep
When the hireling flees away,
Caring only for his gold,
And the gate unguarded stands
At the entrance to the fold,
Stand, O Lord, Thy flock before,
Thou the Guardian, Thou the Door.

Lord, Whose guiding finger ruled
In the casting of the lot,
That Thy Church might fill the throne
Of the lost Iscariot,
In our trouble ever thus
Stand, good Master, nigh to us.
When the Saints their order take
In the New Jerusalem,
And Matthias stands elect,
Give us part and lot with him,
Where in Thine own dwelling-place
We may witness face to face.
The Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Hymn 409. Annunciation.—S.M.

Behold, a Virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a Son, and they shall call His Name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us."

St. Philip and St. James the Apostles.

Hymn 411. St. Philip and St. James.—L.M.

"Philip saith unto Him, Lord, shew us the Father and it sufficeth us."
"James, a servant of God."

There is one Way, and only one,
Out of our gloom, and sin, and care,
To that far land where shines no sun
Because the Face of God is there.

And still unwavering faith holds sure
The words that James wrote sternly
Except we labour and endure, [down;
We cannot win the heavenly crown.

There is one Truth, the Truth of God,
That Christ came down from Heav'n to show,
One Life that His redeeming Blood
Has won for all His saints below.

O Way Divine, through gloom and strife,
Bring us Thy Father's Face to see;
O heavenly Truth, O precious Life,
At last, at last, we rest in Thee.

The lore from Philip once conceal'd,
We know its fulness now in Christ;
In Him the Father is reveal'd,
And all our longing is sufficed.
St. Barnabas the Apostle.

Hymn 412. Vienna.—7 7 7 7.

"He was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost, and of faith; and much people was added unto the Lord."

BRIGHTLY did the light Divine
From his words and actions shine,

Full of peace and lively joy

By his mild exhorting word
Adding many to the Lord.

The Nativity of St. John Baptist.

Hymn 415. Beccles.—L.M.

"Behold I will send My messenger, and he shall prepare the way before Me."

mf THE great forerunner of the morn,
The herald of the Word, is born:
And faithful hearts shall never fail
With thanks and praise his light to hail.

With heavenly message Gabriel came,
That John should be that herald's name,
And with prophetic utterance told
His actions great and manifold.

John, still unborn, yet gave aright
His witness to the coming Light;
And Christ, the Sun of all the earth,
Fulfill'd that witness at His Birth.

mf But why should mortal accents raise
The hymn of John the Baptist's praise?

Before Thy Face Thy way to show,
And shine, as with the day-star's gleam,

Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

THOU art the Christ, O Lord,
The Son of God most high!
For ever be adored
That Name in earth and sky,
In which, though mortal strength may fail,
The Saints of God at last prevail!

Oh, surely he was blest
With blessedness unpriced,
Who, taught of God, confess'd
The Godhead in the Christ!
For of Thy Church, Lord, Thou didst own
Thy Saint a true foundation-stone.

Thrice was he put to shame,
Thrice did the dauntless fall;
But, oh, that look that came
From out the judgment-hall!
It pierced and broke the spell-bound heart,
And foil'd the tempter's sifting art.

Thrice fallen, thrice restored!
The bitter lesson learnt,
That heart for Thee, O Lord,
With triple ardour burnt.
The cross he took he laid not down
Until he grasp'd the Martyr's crown.

Oh, bright triumphant faith!
Oh, courage void of fears!
Oh, love most strong in death!

By these, Lord, keep us lest we fall,
And make us go where Thou shalt call.
St. James the Apostle.

Hymn 418. St. James.—C.M.

"He killed James, the brother of John, with the sword."

For all Thy Saints, a noble throng,
Who fell by fire and sword,
Who soon were call'd, or waited long,
We praise Thy Name, O Lord;

For him who left his father's side,
Nor linger'd by the shore,
When, softer than the weltering tide,
Thy summons glided o'er;

Who stood beside the maiden dead,
Who climb'd the mount with Thee,
And saw the glory round Thy Head,
One of Thy chosen three;

Who knelt beneath the olive shade,
Who drank Thy cup of pain,
And pass'd from Herod's flashing blade
To see Thy Face again.

Lord, give us grace, and give us love,
Like him to leave behind
Earth's cares and joys, and look above
With true and earnest mind.

So shall we learn to drink Thy cup,
So meek and firm be found,
When Thou shalt come to take us up
Where Thine elect are crown'd.

Amen.

Hymn 419. Everton.—87878787.
St. Bartholomew the Apostle.

"The Lord knoweth them that are His."

mf KING of Saints, to Whom the number
   Of Thy starry host is known,
   Many a name, by man forgotten,
   Lives for ever round Thy Throne;
   Lights, which earth-born mists have darken'd,
   There are shining full and clear,
   Princes in the court of Heaven,
   Nameless, unremember'd here.

mf In the roll of Thine Apostles
   One there stands, Bartholomew,
   He for whom to-day we offer,
   Year by year, our praises due;
   How he toil'd for Thee and suffer'd
   None on earth can now record;
   All his saintly life is hidden
   In the knowledge of his Lord.

mf Was it he, beneath the fig-tree
   Seen of Thee, and guileless found;
   He who saw the good he long'd for
   Rise from Nazareth's barren ground;
   He who met his risen Master
   On the shore of Galilee;
   He to whom the Word was spoken,
   "Greater things thou yet shalt see?"

p None can tell us; (or) all is written
   In the Lamb's great book of life,
   All the faith, and prayer, and patience,
   All the toiling, and the strife;
   There are told Thy hidden treasures;
   Number us, O Lord, with them,
   When Thou makest up the jewels
   Of Thy living Diadem.

Hymn 420.  St. Bernard.—L.M.

DEAR Lord, on this Thy servant's day,
Who left for Thee the gold and mart,
Who heard Thee whisper, "Come away,"
And follow'd with a single heart,

Give us, amid earth's weary moil,
And wealth for which men cark and care,
'Mid fortune's pride, and need's wild toil,
And broken hearts in purple rare,

Give us Thy grace to rise above
The glare of this world's smelting fires;
Let God's great love put out the love
Of gold, and gain, and low desires.

"Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven."

Still, like a breath from scented lime
Borne into rooms where sick men faint,
His voice comes floating thro' all time,
Thine own Evangelist and Saint.

Still sweetly rings the Gospel strain
Of golden store that knows not rust:
The love of Christ is more than gain,
And heavenly crowns than yellow dust.

"When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy."

These keep the guard amidst Salem's dear bowers,
Thrones, Principalities, Virtues, and Powers,
Where, with the Living Ones, mystical Four,
Cherubim, Seraphim (\( p \)) bow and adore.

Then, when the earth was first poised in mid space,
Then, when the planets first sped on their race,
Then, when were ended the six days' employ,

\[ mf \]

Still let them succour us; still let them fight,
Lord of Angelic hosts, battling for right;

* In Greek, from which this Hymn is translated, "Trisagion" is the same as the Latin "Tersanctus" and the English "Thrice-Holy."
"Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation."

mf They come, God's messengers of love,
    They come from realms of peace above,
        From homes of never-fading light,
            From blissful mansions ever bright.
        They come to watch around us here,
            To soothe our sorrow, calm our fear:
                Ye heavenly guides, speed not away,
                    God willeth you with us to stay.

p But chiefly at its journey's end
    'Tis yours the spirit to befriend,
        And whisper to the faithful heart,
            "O Christian soul, in peace depart."

f To God the Father, God the Son,
    And God the Spirit, Three in One,
        From all above and all below
            Let joyful praise unceasing flow.

These Hymns on the ministry of Angels may be sung, if desired, at other times.
WHAT thanks and praise to Thee we owe,
O Priest and Sacrifice Divine,
For Thy dear Saint through whom we know
So many a gracious Word of Thine;

Whom Thou didst choose to tell the tale
Of all Thy Manhood’s toils and tears,
And for a moment lift the veil
That hides Thy Boyhood’s spotless years.

How many a soul with guilt oppress’d
Has learn’d to hear the joyful sound
In that sweet tale of sin confess’d,
The Father’s love, the lost and found!

How many a child of sin and shame
Has refuge found from guilty fears
Through her, who to the Saviour came
With costly ointments and with tears!

What countless worshippers have sung,
In lowly fane or lofty choir,
The song that loosed the silent tongue
Of him who was the Baptist’s sire!

And still the Church through all her days
Uplifts the strains that never cease,
The Blessed Virgin’s hymn of praise,
The aged Simeon’s words of peace.

O happy Saint! whose sacred page,
So rich in words of truth and love,
Pours on the Church from age to age

This healing unction from above;
The witness of the Saviour’s life,
The great Apostle’s chosen friend

Through weary years of toil and strife,
And still found faithful to the end.

So grant us, Lord, like him to live,
Beloved by man, approved by Thee,
Till Thou at last the summons give,
And we, with him, Thy Face shall see.

Hymn 427. All Saints.—8 7 8 7 7 7.

“What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?”

These, who well the fight sustain'd,
    Triumph by the Lamb have gain'd.

p These are they whose hearts were riven,
    Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
    With the God they glorified;
or Now, their painful conflict o'er,
    God has bid them weep no more.

mf These, the Almighty contemplating,
    Did as priests before Him stand,
Soul and body always waiting
    Day and night at His command:
Now in God's most holy place
    Blest they stand before His Face.

Rest.—8 8 8 8 8 8.

"That they may rest from their labours."

mf The Saints of God! their conflict past,
    And life’s long battle won at last,
    No more they need the shield or sword,
    They cast them down before their Lord:

cr O happy Saints! for ever blest,

p At Jesus’ feet how safe your rest!

mf The Saints of God! their wanderings done,
    No more their weary course they run,
    No more they faint, no more they fall,
    No foes oppress, no fears appal:

cr O happy Saints! for ever blest,

p In that dear home how sweet your rest!

mf The Saints of God! life’s voyage o’er,
    Safe landed on that blissful shore,
    No stormy tempests now they dread,
    No roaring billows lift their head:

cr O happy Saints! for ever blest,

p In that calm haven of your rest!

The Saints of God their vigil keep While yet their mortal bodies sleep,

cr Till from the dust they too shall rise
    And soar triumphant to the skies;

f O happy Saints! rejoice and sing;
    He quickly comes, your Lord and King.

mf O God of Saints, to Thee we cry;
    O Saviour, plead for us on high;
    O Holy Ghost, our Guide and Friend,

p Grant us Thy grace till life shall end;

cr That with all Saints our rest may be

f In that bright Paradise with Thee.

Hymn 429. St. Alphege.—7 6 7 6.

And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it; for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the Light thereof.

mf

HEAVENLY Jerusalem,
Of everlasting halls,
cr

Thrice blessed are the people dim

Thou storest in thy walls.

f

Thou art the golden mansion,
Where Saints for ever sing,
The seat of God's own chosen,
The palace of the King.

p

There God for ever sitteth,
cr

Himself of all the Crown;
The Lamb, the Light that shineth,
And never goeth down.

Nought to this seat approacheth
Their sweet peace to molest;

f

They sing their God for ever,
Nor day nor night they rest.

mf

Sure hope doth thither lead us;
Our longings thither tend;

cr

May short-lived toil ne'er daunt us
For joys that cannot end.

"And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb."

f TH' eternal gifts of Christ the King,
The Apostles' glory, let us sing;
And all, with hearts of gladness, raise
Due hymns of thankful love and praise.

mf For they the Church's Princes are,
Triumphant Leaders in the war,
In heavenly courts a warrior band,
True lights to lighten every land.

mf Theirs is the steadfast faith of Saints,
And hope that never yields nor faints,
And love of Christ in perfect glow
That lays the prince of this world low.

In them the Father's glory shone,
In them the Will of God the Son,
In them exults the Holy Ghost,
Through them rejoice the heavenly Host.

To Thee, Redeemer, now we cry,
That Thou wouldst join to them on high
Thy servants, who this grace implore,
For ever and for evermore.

Hymn 433. Clifton.—C.M.

BEHOLD the messengers of Christ,
Who bear to every place
The unveil'd mysteries of God,
The Gospel of His grace.

Although in space and time apart,
One Spirit ruled them all;
And in their sacred pages still
We hear that Spirit's call.

"Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace."

The things through mists and shadows dim
By holy prophets seen,
In the full light of day they saw
With not a cloud between.

To God, the Blessed Three in One,
Be glory, praise, and might,
Who call'd us from the shades of death
To His own glorious light.

What Christ, True Man, divinely wrought,
What God in Manhood bore,
They wrote, as God inspired, in words
That live for evermore.

Hymn 434. Evangelists.—887887.

C OME, pure hearts, in sweetest measures
Sing of those who spread the treasures
In the holy Gospels shrined;
Blessed tidings of salvation,
Peace on earth, their proclamation,
Love from God to lost mankind.

O that we Thy truth confessing,
And Thy holy Word possessing,
Jesu, may Thy love adore;
Unto Thee our voices raising,
Thee with all Thy ransom’d praising
Ever and for evermore.

See the Rivers four that gladden
With their streams the better Eden
Planted by our Lord most dear;
Christ the Fountain, (mf) these the waters;
Drink, O Sion’s sons and daughters,
Drink and find salvation here.

"Worthy the Lamb, for sinners slain, Through endless years to live and reign; Thou hast redeem'd us by Thy Blood, And made us kings and priests to God."

O may we tread the sacred road, That Saints and holy Martyrs trod; Wage to the end the glorious strife, And win, like them, a crown of life.

"Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

LET our Choir new anthems raise,
Wake the song of gladness;
God Himself to joy and praise
Turns the Martyrs' sadness:
Bright the day that won their crown,
Open'd Heav'n's bright portal,
As they laid the mortal down
To put on the immortal.

Never flinch'd they from the flame,
From the torture never;
Vain the foeman's sharpest aim,
Satan's best endeavour:
For by faith they saw the land
Deck'd in all its glory,
Where triumphant now they stand
With the victor's story.

Up and follow, Christian men!
Press through toil and sorrow;
Spurn the night of fear, and then,
Oh, the glorious morrow!

Y E servants of our glorious King,
To Him your thankful praises bring;
And tell the deeds that grace has done,
The triumphs by His Martyrs won.

For ever broken is the chain
That sought to bind them, but in vain:
O let us strive like them to win
Our freedom from the bonds of sin.

Since they were faithful to the last,
Their holy struggles now are past;
The bitterness of death is o'er,
And theirs is bliss for evermore.

O Saviour, may our portion be
With those who gave themselves to Thee,
Through all eternity to sing
All praise to Thee the Martyrs' King.

The flame might scorch, the knife lay bare,
And cruel beasts their members tear;
No powers of earth, no powers of hell
The souls that loved their Lord could quell.

    We beseech Thee, hear us.

May we to all evil die,
    Fleshly longings crucify,
Fix our hearts and thoughts on high:
    We beseech Thee, hear us.

Grant us faith to know Thee near,
    Hail Thy grace, Thy judgment fear,
And through trial persevere:
    We beseech Thee, hear us.

Grant us hope from earth to rise,
    And to strain with eager eyes
Towards the promised heavenly prize:
    We beseech Thee, hear us.

Grant us love Thy love to own,
    Love to live for Thee alone,
And the power of grace make known:
    We beseech Thee, hear us.

All our weak endeavours bless,
    As we ever onward press,
Till we perfect holiness:
    We beseech Thee, hear us.

Lead us daily nearer Thee,
    Till at last Thy Face we see,
Crown'd with Thine own purity:

GOD the Father, GOD the Son,
GOD the Spirit, THREE in One,
Hear us from Thy heavenly Throne,
Spare us, Holy Trinity.

Jesu, with Thy Church abide,
Be her Saviour, Lord, and Guide,
While on earth her faith is tried:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

Arms of love around her throw,
Shield her safe from every foe,
Comfort her in time of woe:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

Keep her life and doctrine pure,
Grant her patience to endure,
Trusting in Thy promise sure:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

May her voice be ever clear,
Warning of a judgment near,
Telling of a Saviour dear:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

All her fetter'd powers release,
Bid our strife and envy cease,
Grant the heavenly gift of peace:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

All that she has lost restore,
May her strength and zeal be more
Than in brightest days of yore:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

May she one in doctrine be,
One in truth and charity,
Winning all to faith in Thee:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

May she guide the poor and blind,
Seek the lost until she find,
And the broken-hearted bind:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

Save her love from growing cold,
Make her watchmen strong and bold,
Fence her round, Thy peaceful fold:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

May her Priests Thy people feed,
Shepherds of the flock indeed,
Ready, where Thou call'st, to lead:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

Judge her not for work undone,
Judge her not for fields unwon,
Bless her works in Thee begun:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

For the past give deeper shame,
Make her jealous for Thy Name,
Kindle zeal's most holy flame:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

Raise her to her calling high,
Let the nations far and nigh
Hear Thy heralds' warning cry:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

May her lamp of truth be bright,
Bid her bear aloft its light
Through the realms of heathen night:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

May her scatter'd children be
From reproach of evil free,
Blameless witnesses for Thee:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

Arm her soldiers with the Cross,
Brave to suffer toil or loss,
Counting earthly gain but dross:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

May she holy triumphs win,
Overthrow the hosts of sin,
Gather all the nations in:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

May she soon all glorious be,
Spotless and from wrinkle free,
Pure, and bright, and worthy Thee:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

Fit her all Thy joy to share,
In the home Thou dost prepare,
And be ever blessed there:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

Hymn 475. ELM.—C.M.

BEHOLD us, Lord, a little space
From daily tasks set free,
And met within Thy holy place
To rest awhile with Thee.

Around us rolls the ceaseless tide
Of business, toil, and care;
And scarcely can we turn aside
For one brief hour of prayer.

Yet these are not the only walls
Wherein Thou may'st be sought:
On homeliest work Thy blessing falls,
In truth and patience wrought.

Thine is the loom, the forge, the mart,
The wealth of land and sea;
The worlds of science and of art,
Reveal'd and ruled by Thee.

Then let us prove our heavenly birth
In all we do and know;
And claim the kingdom of the earth
For Thee, and not Thy foe.

Work shall be prayer, if all be wrought
As Thou would'st have it done;
And prayer, by Thee inspired and taught,
Itself with work be one.

Amen.

Shepherds, in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing,
Yonder shines the Infant Light;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

God the Father, Spirit, Son—
Evermore your voices raising
To th' Eternal Three in One;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

Hymn 483. Plain-song.—L.M. (First Tune.)

$= 96$. (To be sung in Unison.)
Who being in the form of God . . . made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men.

FROM east to west, from shore to shore, Let every heart awake and sing
The Holy Child Whom Mary bore,
The Christ, the everlasting King.

Behold! the world's Creator wears The form and fashion of a slave; Our very flesh our Maker shares, His fallen creature, man, to save.

For this how wondrously He wrought!
A maiden, in her lowly place,
Became, in ways beyond all thought, The chosen vessel of His grace.

She bow'd her to the Angel's word Declaring what the Father will'd, And suddenly the promised Lord That pure and hallow'd temple fill'd.

New Year's Day.

Hymn 485. St. Columb.—7 6 7 6 7 6 8 6.

$\frac{d}{2} = 116.$
New Year's Day.

"They will go from strength to strength."

f FROM glory unto glory! Be this our joyous song,
As on the King's own highway, we bravely march along!
From glory unto glory! O word of stirring cheer, mf As dawns the solemn brightness of another glad New Year.

f From glory unto glory! What great things He hath done,
What wonders He hath shown us, what triumphs He hath won!
From glory unto glory! What mighty blessings crown
The lives for which our Lord hath laid His own so freely down!

The fulness of His blessing encompasseth our way;
The fulness of His promises crowns every bright'ning day;
The fulness of His glory is beaming from above,
While more and more we learn to know the fulness of His love.

And closer yet and closer the golden bonds shall be,
Uniting all who love our Lord in pure sincerity;
And wider yet and wider shall the circling glory glow,
As more and more are taught of God that mighty Love to know.

mf O let our adoration for all that He hath done,
Peal out beyond the stars of God, while voice and life are one;
dim And let our consecration be real, deep, and true;
Oh, ever now our hearts shall bow, and joyful vows renew.

f Now onward, ever onward, from strength to strength we go,
While grace for grace abundantly shall from His fulness flow,
To glory's full fruition, from glory's foretaste here,
ff Until His very presence crown our happiest New Year.

Hymn 486. Plain-song.—L.M. (First Tune.)

\[ d = 80. \]
The kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared.

The Father's sole-begotten Son
Was born, the Virgin's Child, on earth;
His Cross for us adoption won,—
The life and grace of second birth.

Abide with us, O Lord, we pray,
Dispel the gloom of doubt and woe;
Wash every stain of guilt away,
Thy tender healing grace bestow.

Forth from the height of Heav'n He came, Lord, Thou hast come, and well we know
In form of man with man abode;
Thou wilt likewise come again;
Redeem'd His world from death and shame,
That Thy kingdom shield from every foe,
The joys of endless life bestow'd.

Abide with us, O Lord, we pray,
Dispel the gloom of doubt and woe;
Wash every stain of guilt away,
Thy tender healing grace bestow.

Eternal glory, Lord, to Thee,
Whom, now reveal'd, our hearts adore;
Redeemer, come with power benign,
Dwell in the souls that look for Thee;
That we may Thy salvation see.

Redeemer, come with power benign,
Dwell in the souls that look for Thee;
O let Thy light within us shine
That we may Thy salvation see.

Eternal glory, Lord, to Thee,
Whom, now reveal'd, our hearts adore;
To God the Father glory be,
And Holy Spirit evermore.
Hymn 487. Irish.—C.M.

"He was baptized."

\[mf\] The Son of Man from Jordan rose,

The Father's voice declaring—Thou Art My Belovèd Son.

So when, through His Baptizing bless'd
The Font new birth conveys,
Man kneels a son of God confess'd,
Heav'n opens as he prays.

\[p\] Fair innocency, like the dove's,
Invests him, purged from sin;
For God the brooding Spirit moves,
Directs and rules within.

\[mf\] O Christ, Whose mercy cleansed our

Hymn 488.  FRANCONIA.—S.M.

W I T H I N the Father's house
The Son hath found His home;
And to His temple suddenly
The Lord of life hath come.

Gaze on the wondrous Child,
And marvel at His gracious words
Of wisdom undefiled.

The mighty truth to know,
To lift the fleshly veil which hides
Incarnate God below.

And faithful pond'ring hearts await
The full Epiphany.

God, the joy of Heav'n above,
Thou didst not need Thy creatures' love,
When from Thy secret place of rest Thy Word the earth's foundations blest.

Thou spakest;—worlds began to be;
They bow before Thy Majesty;
And all to their Creator raise
A wondrous harmony of praise.

But ere, O Lord, this lovely earth
From Thy creative will had birth,
Thou in Thy counsels didst unfold
Another world of fairer mould.

That realm shall our Redeemer frame,
And build upon His mighty Name;
His Hand the word of power shall sow,
That all the earth His truth may know.

When time itself has pass'd away,
His Church, secure in Heav'n for aye,
Shall share His Table and His Throne,
And God the Father reign alone.

Thy realm on earth, Thy realm above.

Lent.

Hymn 492. Engedi.—8 6 8 8 6.

Lo! now the time accepted peals
Its tidings of release;
A time that with salvation heals,
And to repentant tears reveals
The mercy-seat of peace.

'Tis now that zealous charity
Her goods more largely spends,
Lays up her treasure in the sky,
And freely yields, ere death draw nigh,
To God the wealth He lends.

Then let us wisely now restrain
Our food, our drink, our sleep;
From idle word and jest refrain,
And steadfastly begin again
A stricter watch to keep.

Then consecrate us, Lord, anew,
And fire our hearts with love;
That all we think, and all we do,
Within, without, be pure and true,
Rekindled from above.

Now heaven-taught love will haste to rise
And seek the cheerless bed,
Where cold and wan the sufferer lies,
And Christ Himself to heedful eyes
Is hungering for bread.

Now fuller praise and glory be
To Thee, the First and Last;
And make us, Blessed Trinity,
More faithful soldiers, worthier Thee,
Through this our chastening fast.
"Resist the devil, and he will flee from you; draw nigh to God, and He will draw nigh to you."

How oft of faithful love my lips have told Thee,

Unspent, their watches hold;

That we may feed Thy poor aright, And, gath'ring round Thy Throne, Here in the holy Angels' sight Repay Thee of Thine own.
For so our sires in olden time Spared neither gold nor gear, Nor precious wood, nor hewn stone, Thy sacred shrines to rear.

And as, when ebbed the flood, our sires Kneel'd on the mountain sod,
While o'er the new world's altar fires Shone out the bow of God; And sweetly fell the peaceful spell— Word that shall aye avail—" Summer and winter shall not cease, Seed time nor harvest fail;"

For there to give the second birth In mysteries and signs, The Face of Christ o'er all the earth On kneeling myriads shines. And if so fair beyond compare Thine earthly houses be, In how great grace shall we Thy Face In Thine own Palace see?

"Knowest thou that the Lord will take away thy Master from thy head to-day?"

KNOW ye the Lord hath borne away Your Master from your head to-day?

Yea, we know it; wondrous love Bids Him seek His Home above:

Know ye the Lord hath borne away Your Master from your head to-day?

Know ye the Lord hath borne away Your Master from your head to-day?
Yea, we know it; ere He left, Jordan's stream in twain was cleft:
With that glorious act in view,
We shall one day cleave it too! Alleluia!

Know ye the Lord hath borne away Your Master from your head to-day?
Yea, we know it; search would fail, If ye pass'd through mount and vale:

Bounteous Spirit, ever shedding life the world to fill!
Swarms the fruitful globe o'erspreading,
Shoals their ocean pathway threading,

Own Thy quick'ning thrill:
Author of each creature's birth,
Life of life beneath the earth,
Everywhere, O Spirit Blest,

Thou art motion, (p) Thou art rest.

Come, Creator! grace bestowing,—
All Thy sevenfold dower!
Come, Thy peace and bounty strowing,
Earth's Renewer! Thine the sowing,
Thine the gladd'ning shower.
Comforter! what joy Thou art
To the blest and faithful heart;
But to man's primeval foe
Uttermost despair and woe.

O'er the waters of creation
Moved Thy Wings Divine;
When the world, to animation
Waking 'neath Thy visitation,
Teem'd with powers benign:
Thou didst man to being call,
Didst restore him from his fall;
Pouring, like the latter rain,
Grace to quicken him again.

Thine the Gospel voices, crying
As with trumpet sound;
Till the world, in darkness lying,
Rose from deathly sleep, descrying
Heavenly light around.
Man, to reach that prize reveal'd,
Arm'd with Thee as with a shield,
Nerved and girt his fight to win,
Quells the prince of death and sin.

mf *Lowliest homage now before Thee
Let the ransom'd pay;
For Thy wondrous gifts adore Thee,
By Thy holiness implore Thee,
While in love they pray:

Holy! Holy! we repeat,
Kneeling at Thy mercy-seat;
There unbosom every woe,
Groanings Thou alone canst know.

Fount of grace for every nation,
Refuge of the soul!
Strengthen Thou each new creation,
With the waters of salvation
Make the guilty whole:
Rule on earth the powers that be;
Give us priests inspired of Thee;
Through Thy Holy Church increase
Purest unity and peace.

Purge and sanctify us wholly
From the leaven of ill;
Save from Satan's grasp unholy;
To a living faith and lowly
Mould the upright will;
Till the olden zeal return,
And with mutual love we burn;
Till in peace, no more to roam,
Ali the flock be gather'd home.

COME, Holy Ghost, Eternal God, Proceeding from above, Both from the Father and the Son, The God of peace and love;

Put back our enemy from us, And help us to obtain Peace in our hearts with God and man,—The best, the truest gain;

Visit our minds, into our hearts. Thy heavenly grace inspire; That truth and godliness we may Pursue with full desire.

Of strife and of dissension Dissolve, O Lord, the bands, And knit the knots of peace and love Throughout all Christian lands.

Thou in Thy gifts art manifold; By them Christ’s Church doth stand; In faithful hearts Thou writ’st Thy law, The Finger of God’s hand.

Grant us the grace that we may know The Father of all might, That we of His beloved Son May gain the blissful sight;

According to Thy promise, Lord, Thou givest speech with grace, That through Thy help God’s praises may Resound in every place.

And that we may with perfect faith Ever acknowledge Thee, The Spirit of Father, and of Son, One God in Persons Three.

O Holy Ghost, into our minds Send down Thy Heavenly Light; Kindle our hearts with fervent zeal To serve God day and night.

To God the Father laud and praise, And to His Blessed Son, And to the Holy Spirit of grace, Co-equal Three in One.

All things are Thine, on Thee depend,
Who art Beginning without end.

The myriad armies of the sky
Praise, bless, adore Thy Majesty:
Earth's triple frame—land, air, and sea—
Upraise their canticle to Thee.

Hail, Father, Whose creating call
Unnumber'd worlds attend;
Who art in all and over all,
Thyself both Source and End:

In light unsearchable enthroned,
Whom Angels dimly see,
The Fountain of the Godhead own'd,
First-named among the Three.

From Thee, through an eternal Now,
Springs Thy co-equal Son;
An everlasting Father Thou,
Ere time began to run.

Not quite display'd to worlds above,
Nor quite on earth conceal'd,
By wondrous, unexhausted love
To mortal man reveal'd;

When Nature's outworn robe shall be Exchanged for new attire;
And earth, which rose at Thy decree,
Dissolve before Thy fire;

Thy Name, O God, be still adored
Through ages without end,
Whom none but Thine essential Word
And Spirit comprehend.

Amen.
Glorious is Thy Name, O Lord!
Heav'n and earth with one accord
Tell Thy greatness, part reveal'd,
But the larger part conceal'd.

How shall we poor sinners dare
Seek Thy face in praise and prayer?

Fearful is Thy Name, O Lord!
Dread Thy voice, and sharp Thy sword;
Thunders roll around Thy path:
None can stand before Thy wrath!

How shall trembling sinners dare
Lift their voice in praise and prayer?

Yet with all Thy wondrous might
Far beyond our mortal sight,
Perfect wisdom, boundless powers,
Thou, O glorious God! art ours.

So, though fill'd with awe, we dare
Name Thy Name in praise and prayer.

Since, to save a world undone,
Thou didst give Thine only Son,
All Thy greatness, Lord Most High,
Brings Thee to our hearts more nigh.

Thus in faith and hope we dare
Claim Thy love in praise and prayer.

"Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, so that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the Lord be my God."

GOD of Jacob, by Whose hand
Thy people still are fed,
Who through this weary pilgrimage
Hast all our fathers led;

Our vows, our prayers, we now present
Before Thy Throne of grace;
God of our fathers, be the God
Of their succeeding race.

Through each perplexing path of life
Our wandering footsteps guide;
Give us each day our daily bread,
And raiment fit provide.

O spread Thy covering wings around,
Till all our wanderings cease,
And at our Father's loved abode
Our souls arrive in peace.

And tells of more than human love,
And more than human power, in one: mf Ah! with faith's inward piercing eye
First from the gracious herald heard,
Heard since through all the choirs on high;

While at the blessed Name we bow,

Within our dim-eyed souls call up
The vision of Thine earthly years;
The Mount of the transfigured Form;
The Garden of the bitter Tears;
The Cross uprear'd in darkening skies;

And leap, ye lame, for joy!
WHO is this so weak and helpless,
Child of lowly Hebrew maid,
Rudely in a stable shelter'd,
Coldly in a manger laid?
'Tis the Lord of all creation,
Who this wondrous path hath trod;
He is God from everlasting,

Homeless, weary, sighing, weeping
Over sin and Satan's sway?

The entrance of Thy word giveth light.

The Voice of God's Creation found me
Perplex'd midst hope and fear,
For though His sunshine flash'd around me,
His storms at times drew near:
And I said—
Oh! that I knew where He abideth!
For doubts beset our lot,
And lo! His glorious face He hideth,
And men perception it not!

The Voice of God's Protection told me
He loveth all He made;
I seem'd to feel His arms enfold me,
And yet was half afraid:
And I said—
Oh! that I knew where I might find Him!
His eye would guide me right:
He leaveth countless tracks behind Him,
Yet passeth without of sight.

The Voice of Conscience sounded nearer,
It stirr'd my inmost breast;
But though its tones were firmer, clearer,
'Twas not the voice of rest:
And I said—
Oh! that I knew if He forgiveth!
My soul is faint within,
Because in grievous fear it liveth
Of wages due to sin.

Hymn 534. Hammersmith.—S.M.

FAR down the ages now,
Her journey well-nigh done,
The pilgrim Church pursues her way,
And longs to reach her crown.

No wider is the gate,
No broader is the way,
No smoother is the ancient path
That leads to light and day.

No feebler is the foe,
No slacker grows the fight,
Nor less the need of armour tried,
Of shield and helmet bright.

Thus onward still we press,
Through evil and through good,
Through pain, or poverty, or want,
Through peril or through blood.

Still faithful to our God,
And to our Captain true,
We follow where He leads the way,
The Kingdom still in view.

“Verily when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation.”

"To me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

p LORD, it belongs not to my care
Whether I die or live;
To love and serve Thee is my share,
And this Thy grace must give.

If life be long, oh make me glad
The longer to obey;
If short, no labourer is sad
To end his toilsome day.

p Christ leads me through no darker rooms
Than He went through before;
He that unto God's kingdom comes
Must enter by this door.

cr Come, LORD, when grace hath made me
Thy blessed Face to see: \[ meet \]
For if Thy work on earth be sweet,
What will Thy glory be!

Then I shall end my sad complaints
And weary sinful days,
And join with the triumphant Saints
That sing my Saviour's praise.

p My knowledge of that life is small,
The eye of faith is dim;
But 'tis enough that Christ knows all,
And I shall be with Him.

cr Amen.
"For now they desire a better country, that is a heavenly."

There is a land of pure delight,
  Where Saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
  And pleasures banish pain.

There everlasting spring abides,
  And never-withering flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
  That heavenly land from ours.

Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
  Could we but climb where Moses stood,
Stand dress'd in living green;
  And view the landscape o'er;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
  Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
While Jordan roll'd between.
  Should fright us from the shore.

| THEY whose course on earth is o’er, | Each to each may be unknown, |

Hymn 541. MILITES.—12 9 12 9.

\[ \text{\( d = 88. \)} \]

(772)
WE are soldiers of Christ, Who is mighty to save,
And His Banner the Cross is unfurl'd;
We are pledged to be faithful and steadfast and brave
Against Satan, the flesh, and the world.

We are brothers and comrades, we stand side by side,
And our faith and our hope are the same;
And we think of the Cross on which Jesus has died,
When we bear the reproach of His Name.

At the font we were mark'd with the Cross on our brow,
Of our grace and our calling the sign:
And the weakest is strong to be true to his vow,
For the armour we wear is Divine.

We will watch ready arm'd if the Tempter draw near,
If he come with a frown or a smile:
We will heed not his threats, nor his flatteries hear,
Nor be taken by storm or by wile.

We will master the flesh, and its longings restrain,
We will not be the bond-slaves of sin,
The pure Spirit of God in our nature shall reign,
And our spirits their freedom shall win.

For the world's love we live not, its hate we defy,
And we will not be led by the throng;
We'll be true to ourselves, to our Father on high,
And the bright world to which we belong.

Now let each cheer his comrade, let hearts beat as one,
While we follow where Christ leads the way;
'Twere dishonour to yield, or the battle to shun,
We will fight, and will watch, and will pray.

Though the warfare be weary, the trial be sore,
In the might of our God we will stand;
Oh! what joy to be crown'd and be pure evermore,
In the peace of our own Fatherland.

mf Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!

If while ye sleep He suffers,
Away with shame and fear;
Where’er ye meet with evil,
Within you or without,
Charge for the God of battles,
And put the foe to rout.

mf Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict
In this His glorious day.
Ye that are men now serve Him

"When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him."

There's peace and rest in Paradise,
In weary hours we say;
And oh that we had wings like doves
That we might flee away!

For here so strong the evil seems,
So weak appears the good,
Our standard wavers in the rush
Of evil, like a flood.

At times, through the long lonely watch,
Nor sun nor moon appears;
Without, incessant fightings are,
Within, incessant fears.

Then for the quiet land we long,
And the abode of Peace;
And for the word, (cr) "Come, weary soul,
From war and vigil cease!"

But in our stronger hours we grasp
The warrior's sword again,
And burn the good fight yet to fight,
The faithful watch maintain.

We fain would tread the famous way
Martyrs and saints have trod;
The hours ebb fast of this one day
Of noblest war for God!

The Lord Himself hath need of us;
On! till the fight be won; [heart:
And the King's words shall thrill the [VICTIM Divine, Thy grace we claim

While thus Thy precious Death we show;
Once offer'd up, a spotless Lamb,
In Thy great temple here below,

And standest now before the Throne.

Thy Blood of sprinkling speaks and prays
All-prevalent for helpless man;
Thy Blood is still our ransom found,
And spreads salvation all around.

God still respects Thy sacrifice,
Its savour sweet doth always please;
The Offering smokes through earth and skies,
Diffusing life and joy and peace;
To these Thy lower courts it comes,
And fills them with Divine perfumes.

Hail, Body true, of Mary born, and in the manger laid,
That once with thorn and scourging torn wast on the Cross display’d,
That every eye might there descry th’ uplifted Sacrifice,
Which once for all to God on high paid our redemption’s price!

Hail, precious Blood, by true descent drawn from our own first sire,
Yet innocent of that fell taint which fills our veins with fire,
Once from the side of Him that died for love of us His kin
Drain’d an atonement to provide and wash away our sin!

Still Thou art there amidst us, Lord, unchangeably the same,
When at Thy board with one accord Thy promises we claim;
But lo! the way Thou com’st to-day is one where bread and wine
Conceal the Presence they convey, both human and Divine.

How glorious is that Body now, throned on the Throne of Heav’n!
The Angels bow, and marvel how to us on earth ’tis given;
Oh, to discern what splendours burn within these veils of His,—
That faith could into vision turn, and see Him as He is!

How mighty is the Blood that ran for sinful nature’s needs!
It broke the ban, it rescued man; it lives, and speaks, and pleads;
And all who sup from this blest Cup in faith and hope and love,

CHRIST, our God, Who with Thine own hast been,
Our spirits cleave to Thee, the Friend unseen.
Vouchsafe that all who on Thy bounty feed
May heed Thy Love, and prize Thy gifts indeed.
Make every heart that is Thy dwelling-place
A water'd garden fill'd with fruits of grace.

Each holy purpose help us to fulfil;
Increase our faith to feed upon Thee still.

Illuminate our minds, that we may see
In all around us holy signs of Thee.
And may such witness in our lives appear,
That all may know Thou hast been with us here.

O grant us peace, that by Thy peace possess'd,
Thy life within us we may manifest.

So shall we pass our days in holy fear,
In joyful consciousness that Thou art near.

So shalt Thou be for ever, loving Lord,
Our Shield and our exceeding great Reward.

Looking unto Jesus.

Amb of God, I look to Thee,
Thou shalt my example be:
Thou art gentle, meek, and mild,
Thou wast once a little child.

Fain I would be as Thou art;
Give me Thy obedient heart;
Thou art pitiful and kind,
Let me have Thy loving mind.

Meek and lowly may I be;
Thou art all humility:
Let me to my betters bow,
Subject to Thy parents Thou.

Let me above all fulfil
God my Heavenly Father's will;
Never His good Spirit grieve,
Only to His glory live.

Thou didst live to God alone,
Thou didst never seek Thine own,
Thou Thyself didst never please,
God was all Thy happiness.

Loving Jesus, gentle Lamb,
In Thy gracious Hands I am;
Make me, Saviour, what Thou art;
Live Thyself within my heart.

I shall then show forth Thy praise,
Serve Thee all my happy days;
Then the world shall always see
Christ, the Holy Child, in me.

"Thine eyes shall see the King in His beauty; they shall behold the land that is very far off."

Every morning the red sun
   Rises warm and bright;
But the evening cometh on,
   And the dark, cold night.
There's a bright land far away,
   Where 'tis never-ending day.

Christ our Lord is ever near
   Those who follow Him;
But we cannot see Him here,
   For our eyes are dim;
There is a most happy place,
   Where men always see His face.

Every spring the sweet young flowers
   Open bright and gay,
Till the chilly autumn hours
   Wither them away.
There's a land we have not seen,
   Where the trees are always green.

Who shall go to that bright land?
   All who do the right:
Holy children there shall stand
   In their robes of white;
For that Heav'n, so bright and blest,
   Is our everlasting rest.

For Church Workers and Guilds.

"Stand fast in one spirit, striving together for the faith of the Gospel."

mf The call to arms is sounding,
The foemen muster strong,
dim While Saints beneath the Altar
Are crying "Lord, how long?"
mf The living and the loving Christ's royal Standard raise,
And marching on to conflict
Shout forth their Captain's praise.

No time for self-indulgence,
For resting by the way;
dim Repose will come at even,
But toil is for the day:
Work, like the blessed Jesus,
Who from His earliest youth
Would do His Father's business
And witness for the truth.

mf For the one Faith, the true Faith,
The Faith which cannot fail,
For the one Church, the true Church,
'Gainst which no foes prevail;
Made one with God Incarnate,
We in His might must win
The glory of self-conquest,
Of victory over sin.

f Behold! upon Mount Sion
A glorious people stand,
A crown on every forehead,
A palm in every hand;
p Lo! these are they who boldly
The Name of Christ confess'd,
f And now triumphant praise Him
In Heav'n's unresting rest.

p O Jesus! Who art waiting
Thy faithful ones to crown,
Vouchsafe to bless our conflict,
mf Our loving service own;
Come in each heart for ever cr As King adored to reign,
Till we with Saints triumphant
Uplift the victor strain.

Hymn 584. Sons of Labour.—87878787.

\( \text{d} = 92. \)
For a Service for Working Men.

"Do all in the Name of the Lord Jesus."

mf Sons of Labour, dear to Jesus,
To your homes and work again;
Go with brave hearts back to duty,
Face the peril, bear the pain.
Be your dwellings ne'er so lowly,
Yet remember, by your bed,
That the Son of God most Holy
Had not where to lay His head.

Sons of Labour, seek for Jesus,
Where He tells you ye shall find,
In the children, 'mid the mourners,
In the sick, poor, lame, and blind,—
"Search the Scriptures," He entreats you,
"For of Me they testify;"
Love His Altar, where He meets you,
Saying, "Fear not—It is I."

mf Sons of Labour, think of Jesus
As you rest your homes within,
Think of that sweet Babe of Mary
In the stable of the Inn.
Think how in the sacred story
Jesus took a humble grade,
And the Lord of Life and Glory
Work'd with Joseph at his trade.

Sons of Labour, go to Jesus,
In your sorrow, shame, and loss;
He is nearest, you are dearest,
When you bravely bear His Cross.
Go to Him, Who died to save you,
And is still the sinner's Friend;
And the great love, which forgave you,
Will forgive you to the end.

mf Sons of Labour, pray to Jesus,
Oh, how Jesus pray'd for you!
In the moonlight, on the mountain,
Where the shimmering olives grew.
When you rise up at the dawning,
Ere to toil you wend your way,
Pray, as He pray'd, in the morning,
Long before the break of day.

Sons of Labour, live for Jesus,
Be your work your worship too;
In His Name, and to His glory,
Do whate'er you find to do;
Till this night of sin and sorrow
Be for ever overpast;
And we see the golden morrow,
Home with Jesus, home at last!

mf Sons of Labour, be like Jesus,
Undeñiled, chaste, and pure;
And, though Satan tempt you sorely,
By His grace you shall endure.
Husband, father, son, and brother,
Be ye gentle, just, and true,—
Be ye kind to one another,
As the Lord is kind to you.
"He shall testify of Me, and ye also shall bear witness."

* SPIRIT of the Living God!
In all the fulness of Thy grace,
Where'er the foot of man hath trod,
Descend on our apostate race.

Give tongues of fire and hearts of love
To preach the reconciling word;
Give power and unction from above,
Whene'er the joyful sound is heard.

Be darkness, at Thy coming, light,
Confusion order in Thy path;
Souls without strength inspire with might;
Bid mercy triumph over wrath.

* O Spirit of the Lord! prepare
All the round earth her God to meet;
Breathe Thou abroad like morning air,
Till hearts of stone begin to beat.

mf

* Baptize the nations; far and nigh
The triumphs of the Cross record;
The Name of Jesus glorify
Till every kindred call Him Lord.

A - men.
LIFT up your heads, ye gates of brass;
Ye bars of iron, yield;
And let the King of Glory pass;
The Cross is in the field.

Though few and small and weak your bands,
Strong in your Captain's strength,
Go to the conquest of all lands:
All must be His at length.

That banner, brighter than the star
That leads the train of night,
Shines on the march, and guides from
His servants to the fight.

The spoils at His victorious Feet
You shall rejoice to lay,
And lay yourselves as trophies meet,
In His great judgment day.

A holy war those servants wage;
In that mysterious strife,
The powers of Heav'n and hell engage
For more than death or life.

mf Then fear not, faint not, halt not now;
In Jesus' Name be strong!
To Him shall all the nations bow,
And sing the triumph song:—

Ye armies of the living God,
Sworn warriors of Christ's host,
Where hallow'd footsteps never trod,
Take your appointed post.

mf Uplifted are the gates of brass,
The bars of iron yield;
Behold the King of Glory pass;
The Cross hath won the field.

Hymn 588. Crucis Milites.—7 7 7 7.

Take the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

SOLDIERS of the Cross, arise!
Gird you with your armour bright;
Mighty are your enemies,
Hard the battle ye must fight.

O'er a faithless fallen world
Raise your banner in the sky;
Let it float there wide unfurl'd;
Bear it onward; lift it high.

'Mid the homes of want and weep,
Strangers to the living word,
Let the Saviour's herald go,
Let the voice of hope be heard.

Where the shadows deepest lie,
Carry truth's unsullied ray;
Where are crimes of blackest dye,
There the saving sign display.

To the weary and the worn
Tell of realms where sorrows cease;
To the outcast and forlorn
Speak of mercy and of peace.

Guard the helpless; seek the stray'd;
Comfort troubles, banish grief;
In the might of God array'd,
Scatter sin and unbelief.

Be the banner still unfurl'd,
Still unsheathed the Spirit's sword,
Till the kingdoms of the world
Are the kingdom of the Lord.

Hymn 589. VERBUM PACIS.—6 6 8 4.

With the sweet word of Peace
We bid our brethren go;
Peace as a river to increase,
And ceaseless flow.

With the calm word of Prayer
We earnestly commend
Our brethren to Thy watchful care,

With the dear word of Love
We give our brief farewell;
Our love below, and Thine above,
With them shall dwell.

With the strong word of Faith
We stay ourselves on Thee,
That Thou, O Lord, in life and death,
Their help shalt be;

Then the bright word of Hope
Shall on our parting gleam,
And tell of joys beyond the scope
Of earth-born dream.

Farewell! in hope and love,
In faith and peace and prayer;
Till He Whose Home is ours above,
Unite us there!

Missions to the Jews.
Missions to the Jews.

"The gifts and calling of God are without repentance."

UNCHANGING God, hear from eternal Heav'n:
We plead Thy gifts of grace, for ever given,
Thy call, without repentance, calling still,
The sure election of Thy sovereign will.

Out of our faith in Thee, who canst not lie,
Out of our heart's desire, goes up our cry,
From hope's sweet vision of the thing to be,
From love to those who still are loved by Thee.

Bring Thy beloved back, Thine Israel,
Thine own elect who from Thy favour fell,
But not from Thine election!—O forgive,
Speak but the word, and, lo! the dead shall live.

Father of mercies! these the long-astray,
These in soul-blindness now the far-away,

These are not aliens, but Thy sons of yore,
Oh, by Thy Fatherhood, restore, restore!

Breathe on Thy Church, that it may greet the day,
Stir up her will to toil, and teach, and pray,

Till Zionward again salvation come,
And all her outcast children are at home.

Triune Jehovah, Thine the grace and power,
Thine all the work, its past, its future hour,
O Thou, Who failest not, Thy gifts fulfil,
And crown the calling of Thy changeless will.

"God is able to graft them in again."

mf Thou, the Christ for ever one,
Mary’s Child and Israel’s God,
Daniel’s Prince and David’s Son,
Jacob’s Star and Jesse’s Rod,
Thou of Whom the Prophets spake,
Thou in Whom their words came true,
Hear the pleading prayer we make,
Hear the Gentile for the Jew!

Knowing what the Spirit saith,
Sure of Thee, our Christ Divine,
Lo, we stand, by right of faith,
Heirs of Abraham’s charter’d line;
p Can we then his sons forget,
Branches sever’d from their tree,
Exiles from their homes, and yet
Kinsmen, Lord, in flesh to Thee?

Though the Blood betray’d and spilt,
On the race entail’d a doom,
Let its virtue cleanse the guilt,
Melt the hardness, chase the gloom;
cr Lift the veil from off their heart,
Make them Israelites indeed,
mf Meet once more for lot and part
With Thy household’s genuine seed.

Thou that didst Thy dews outpour,
Crowning alien grafts with fruit,

Souls that need to mourn their sin;
Still the boughs adopted spare,
And the outcasts—graft them in!

Israel’s heart shall turn to greet
Thee, Whom Israel crucified;

O LORD, be with us when we sail
Upon the lonely deep,
Our guard when on the silent deck
The midnight watch we keep.

We need not fear, though all around
'Mid rising winds we hear
The multitude of waters surge,
For Thou, O God, art near.

The calm, the breeze, the gale, the storm,
That pass from land to land,
All, all are Thine, are held within
The hollow of Thy hand.

If duty calls from threaten'd strife
To guard our native shore,
And shot and shell are answering fast
The booming cannon's roar,

Be Thou the mainguard of our host,
Till war and danger cease:

And through the world make peace.

GOD, Who metest in Thine hand
The waters of the mighty sea,
And barrest ocean with the sand
By Thy perpetual decree:

Rule then, O Lord, the ocean’s wrath,
And bind the tempest with Thy will;
Tread, as of old, the water’s path,
And speak Thy bidding, “Peace, be still.”

What time the floods lift up their voice
And break in anger on the shore,
When deep to deep calls with the noise
Of waterspouts and billows’ roar;

So with Thy mercies ever new
Thy servants set from peril free,
And bring them, Pilot wise and true.
Within the port where they would be.

Restoration of a Church.

"To give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof."

JERUSALEM the blissful, Home of gladness yet untold;
Thou whose countless throngs triumphal fill with joy thy street of gold;
Graven on thee, new and glorious, they the King's own Name behold!

Many are thy sons, O Mother, yon august and shining band!
Gentle Peace in all thy borders makes thee glad, O happy land!
Perfect is thy Restoration, bright in holiness to stand.

Here, a figure of the Heavenly, shines our temple, worthier grown
By its richer restoration on the old foundation-stone,
With a majesty and beauty to the former house unknown.

Lord, we pray Thee, Master-Builder, Great and Holy, enter in,
Fill Thy sanctuary quickly, as our hallowing rites begin,
And Thyself its Consecrator rest for evermore therein.

Make Thy servants, though unworthy, temples of Thy grace to be;
Let us not in flesh or spirit prove disloyal unto Thee,
But in dedicated service praise Thy Name adoringly.

Make, O Royal Priest, Thine Altar here henceforth a Throne of light,
Ever held in highest honour, and with many a gift made bright,
Ever blessed, ever peaceful, ever precious in Thy sight.

Yea, our hearts, for these Thou judgest, as Thy cleansèd Altars bless,
By Thy Spirit's grace renew us unto perfect holiness,
And the sevenfold gifts from Heaven grant us ever to possess.

Now to Thee, through endless ages, O most Holy Trinity,
Highest honour, power unmeasured, everlasting glory be;
God for ever and for ever, Three in One and One in Three.

"God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed; God shall help her, and that right early."

ROUND the Sacred City gather
Egypt, Edom, Babylon;
All the warring hosts of error,
Sworn against her, move as one:
Vain the leaguer! her foundations
Are upon the holy hills,
And the love of the Eternal
All her stately temple fills.

Get thee, watchman, to the rampart!
Gird thee, warrior, with thy sword!
Be ye strong as ye remember
That amidst you is the Lord:
Like the night mists from the valley,
These shall vanish one by one,
Egypt's malice, Edom's envy,
And the hate of Babylon.

But be true, ye sons and daughters,
Lest the peril be within;
Watch to prayer, lest, while ye slumber,
Stealthy foemen enter in:
Safe the mother and the children,
If their will and love be strong,
While their loyal hearts go singing
Prayer and praise for battle song.

Church of God! if we forget thee
Let His blessing fail our hand,
When our love shall not prefer thee
Let His love forget our land:
Nay! to thee shall we be steadfast,
Though the world's foundations shake,
Love of thee is love for ever,
Love of thee for Jesus' sake.

Church of Christ! upon thy banner,
Lo, His Passion's awful sign;
By that seal of His Redemption
Thou art His, and He is thine:
From the depth of His Atonement
Flows thy Sacramental tide:
From the height of His Ascension
Flows the grace which is thy guide.

God the Spirit dwells within thee,
His Society Divine,
His the living word thou keepest,
His thy Apostolic line.
Ancient prayer and song liturgic,
Creeds that change not to the end,
As His gift we have received them,
As His charge we will defend.

Alleluia, Alleluia,
To the Father, Spirit, Son,
In Whose will the Church at warfare
With the Church at rest is one;
So to Thee we sing in union,
God in earth and Heav'n adored,
Alleluia, Alleluia,
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord.

"One body, and one Spirit, . . . one Lord, one faith."

mf Thy Hand, O God, has guided
Thy flock, from age to age;
The wondrous tale is written,
Full clear, on every page;
Our fathers own'd Thy goodness,
And we their deeds record;
And both of this bear witness,
One Church, one Faith, one LORD.

p Through many a day of darkness,
Through many a scene of strife,
The faithful few fought bravely,
To guard the Nation's life.

or Their Gospel of redemption,
Sin pardon'd, man restored,
Was all in this enfolded,
One Church, one Faith, one LORD.

mf Thy heralds brought glad tidings
To greatest, as to least;
They bade men rise, and hasten
To share the great King's feast;
And this was all their teaching,
In every deed and word,
To all alike proclaiming
One Church, one Faith, one LORD.

mf And we, shall we be faithless?
Shall hearts fail, hands hang down?
Shall we evade the conflict,
And cast away our crown?

or Not so: in God's deep counsels
Some better thing is stored;
We will maintain, unflinching,
One Church, one Faith, one LORD.

p When shadows thick were falling,
And all seem'd sunk in night,
Thou, Lord, didst send Thy servants,

The Victory shall be won;

Thy Name shall be adored,

"He that is begotten of God keepeth himself."

mf O LORD, our strength in weakness,
    We pray to Thee for grace;
For power to fight the battle,
    For speed to run the race;
When Thy baptismal waters
    Were pour'd upon our brow,
We then were made Thy children,
    And pledged our earliest vow.

Christ with His own Blood bought us,
    And made the purchase sure;
His are we; may He keep us
    Sober, and chaste, and pure.
He, God in Man, has carried
    Our nature up to Heaven;
And thence the Holy Spirit
    To dwell in us has given.

P Conform'd to His own likeness,
    May we so live and die,
That in the grave our bodies
    In holy peace may lie.

mf And at the Resurrection
    Forth from those graves may spring
Like to the glorious Body
    Of Christ, our Lord and King.

P The pure in heart are blessèd,
    For they shall see the Lord,
For ever and for ever
    By Seraphim adored;

cr And they shall drink the pleasures,
    Such as no tongue can tell,
From the clear crystal river,
    And Life's eternal well.

Hymn 623. Crucis Victoria.—C.M.

"A great cloud of witnesses."

Give us the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil, and see
The Saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.

They mark'd the footsteps that He trod,
His zeal inspired their breast:
And, following their incarnate God,
They reach'd the promised rest.

Once they were mourning here below,
And wet their couch with tears;
They wrestled hard, as we do now,
With sins, and doubts, and fears.

Our glorious Leader claims our praise
For His own pattern given;
While the great cloud of witnesses
Show the same path to Heav'n.

We ask them, whence their victory came;
They, with united breath,
Ascribe the conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to His Death.

Part 2.
Part 1.

Father, Whose creating hand
Made the ocean and the land;
All Thy creatures are Thy care,
Thou art present everywhere.
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

Christ, Who didst of old appear
On the waters, drawing near;
Thou art able still to save,
Calmingly ruling wind and wave.
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

Holy Ghost, Whose presence shed
Life where all was dark and dead;
By Thy breath we move and live,
Thou dost light and order give.
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

God, to Whom our life we owe,
God, Whose Blood for man did flow,
God, Who dost within us dwell,—
 Keep us Thine, and all is well.
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

When the deep in slumber lies
Under bright and peaceful skies,
When the winds in fury rave,
Lifting high the rushing wave,
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

All our honest labour bless,
Give each lawful aim success;
In our time of need draw nigh,
Saying, "Fear not, it is I."
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

Guard the loved ones left behind,
Give them peace in heart and mind;
Keep us all in union sweet,
At our Father's mercy-seat.
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

Safe from what might work our woe,
Rock and shoal, and fire and foe,
May we home and kindred see,
And the glory give to Thee.
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

Part 2.

May Thy Church our shelter be,
Ark in mercy built by Thee,
Refuge from the storms of life,
From the wearing toil and strife.
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

When temptations round us roll,
Threatening shipwreck to the soul,
Grant us faith and holy fear,
By Thy will our course to steer.
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

Through the gloom of sorrow's night,
Show Thy cheering, guiding light;
Waft us homeward, Lord, we pray,
Nearer Heaven, day by day.
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

Bid the storms of passion cease,
Bid the power of love increase,
Bid each tossing doubt be still,
Bid us trust and do Thy will.
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

Mark our course, and keep us true,
Till the haven fair we view,
Grant us on that peaceful shore
Home and friends for evermore.
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

Where there is no night or sea,
May we praise and worship Thee,
Glad because we are at rest
In Thy Presence with the blest.
   Hear us, we beseech Thee.

Amen.

Hymn 626. St. Peter.—C.M.

So shall I make answer unto my blasphemers: for my trust is in Thy word.

APPROACH, my soul, the mercy-seat, Be Thou my Shield and Hiding Place,

Where Jesus answers prayer; That, shelter'd near Thy side,

There humbly fall before His feet, And I may my fierce accuser face,

For none can perish there. And tell him, Thou hast died.

Thy promise is my only plea, Be Thou my Shield and Hiding Place,

With this I venture nigh: That, shelter'd near Thy side,

Thou callest burden'd souls to Thee, And I may my fierce accuser face,

And such, O Lord, am I. And tell him, Thou hast died.

Bow'd down beneath a load of sin, Oh wondrous love, to bleed and die,

By Satan sorely press'd, To bear the Cross and shame,

By war without, and fears within, That guilty sinners, such as I,

I come to Thee for rest. Might plead Thy gracious Name!

A - men.
GOD made me for Himself, to serve Him here
With love's pure service and in filial fear;
To show His praise, for Him to labour now;
Then see His glory where the Angels bow.

All needful grace was mine, through His dear Son,
Whose life and death my full salvation won;
The grace that would have strengthen'd me, and taught;
Grace that would crown me when my work was wrought.

And I, poor sinner, cast it all away;
Lived for the toil or pleasure of each day;
As if no Christ had shed His precious Blood,
As if I owed no homage to my God.

O Holy Spirit, with Thy fire Divine,
Melt into tears this thankless heart of mine;
Teach me to love what once I seem'd to hate,
And live to God, before it be too late.

Hymn 628. Return.—8 6 8 6 4.

"Return unto the Lord thy God: for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity."

mf RETURN, O wanderer, to thy home,
Thy Father calls for thee;
No longer now an exile roam,
In guilt and misery:
Return, return!

Too long the loathsome fields of sin
Thy fruitless toil have known:
No wholesome bread! no voice of kin!
No home to call thine own!
Return, return!

Thy Father stands with outstretch'd hands, mf
He gave His Son for thee:
Poor soul, from sin's enthralling bands
He longs to set thee free,
Return, return!

mf Arise, stand up and homeward turn,
No longer dwell apart;
His mighty love will never spurn
One humble contrite heart.
Return, return!

dim Our Father's house is full of bliss,
And there is room for all;
He welcomes with forgiving kiss;
O, hear His loving call!
Return, return!

mf The feast of joys awaits thee there,
The precious robe and ring;
O haste thy Father's gifts to share,
O haste His praise to sing:
Return, return!

Sinful though my heart may be;
Thou might’st leave me, but the rather

Grace of God, so strong and boundless,

So purer light shall mark the road

Hymn 631. Oh, the bitter.—8 6 8 8 7.

"He died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves."

mf Oh, the bitter shame and sorrow,
That a time could ever be
When I let the Saviour's pity
Plead in vain, and proudly answer'd,
"All of self, and none of Thee."

p Yet He found me: (dim) I beheld Him
Bleeding on the accursed tree,
Heard Him pray, "Forgive them, Father;"
And my wistful heart said faintly,
"Some of self, and some of Thee."

cr Day by day His tender mercy,
Healing, helping, full and free,
Sweet and strong, and ah! so patient,
Brought me lower, while I whisper'd,
"Less of self, and more of Thee."

Lord, Thy love at last hath conquer'd;

mf SOULS of men! why will ye scatter
Like a crowd of frighten'd sheep?
Foolish hearts! why will ye wander
From a love so true and deep?

mf There is plentiful redemption
In the Blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.

p Was there ever kindest shepherd
Half so gentle, half so sweet,
As the Saviour Who would have us
Come and gather round His Feet?

p For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of man's mind;
And the Heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.

cr There's a wideness in God's mercy,
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in His justice,
Which is more than liberty.

cr Pining souls! come nearer Jesus,
And oh! come not doubting thus,
But with faith that trusts more bravely
His huge tenderness for us.

There is no place where earth's sorrows
Are more felt than up in Heav'n;
There is no place where earth's failings
Have such kindly judgment given.

O Jesus, full of pardoning grace,
More full of grace than I of sin,
Yet once again I seek Thy Face;
Open Thine Arms, and take me in,
And freely my backslidings heal,
And love the faithless sinner still.

Thou know'st the way to bring me back,
My fallen spirit to restore;
O for Thy truth and mercy's sake
Forgive, and bid me sin no more;
The ruins of my soul repair,
And make my heart a house of prayer.

The stone to flesh again convert,
The veil of sin once more remove;
Sprinkle Thy Blood upon my heart,
And melt it with Thy dying love;
This rebel heart by love subdue,
And make it soft, and make it new.

Ah, give me, Lord, the tender heart
That trembles at the approach of sin;
A godly fear of sin impart,
Implant, and root it deep within,
That I may dread Thy gracious power,
And never dare offend Thee more.

Hymn 637. Compassio.—12 11 12 11.

\( j = 92. \)
Oh! come to the merciful Saviour Who calls you,
    Oh! come to the Lord Who forgives and forgets;
Though dark be the fortune on earth that befalls you,
There's a bright Home above, where the sun never sets.

Oh! come then to Jesus, Whose Arms are extended
    To fold His dear children in closest embrace;
Oh! come, for your exile will shortly be ended,
And Jesus will show you His beautiful Face.

Yes, come to the Saviour, Whose mercy grows brighter
    The longer you look at the depth of His love;
And fear not! 'tis Jesus! and life's cares grow lighter
    As you think of the Home and the Glory above.

Have you sinn'd as none else in the world have before you?
    Are you blacker than all other creatures in guilt?
Oh, fear not, and doubt not! the mother who bore you
Loves you less than the Saviour Whose Blood you have spilt!

Come, come to His Feet, and lay open your story
    Of suffering and sorrow, of guilt and of shame;
For the pardon of sin is the crown of His glory,
And the joy of our Lord to be true to His Name.
"If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

_O GOD, to know that Thou art just_ Gives hope and peace within;
We could not in a mercy trust
Which takes no count of sin.

I fain would open to Thy sight
My utmost wickedness;
Set, Lord, in Thy most searching light
What I have done amiss.

No stern and needless law was Thine—
Hard to be understood—
But plainly read in every line,
Holy, and just, and good.

Though basely weak my fallen race,
And masterful my foes,
I had th’ omnipotence of grace
To conquer, if I chose.

Well did I know the tender Heart
I outraged by my sin,
Yet with the world I would not part,
Nor rein my passions in.

My fault it was, O Lord Most High,
And not my fate alone:
Thou canst not suffer sin, nor I
In any way atone.

Yet there’s a plea that I may trust—
Christ died that I might live!
Cleanse me, my God, for Thou art just;
Be faithful, and forgive.

(p) With Thy fa-vour'd sheep . . . O place me,(er) Nor a-mong the goats a-base me,
Burial of the Dead.

But to Thy right..... hand up-raise me. (f) While the wicked are ... con-found-ed, Doom'd to flames of woe un-bound-ed, Call me with Slower.

Thy ... Saints sur-rounded. (p) Low I kneel, with heart-sub-mis-sion,

See, like ashes, my con-tri-tion; Help me in my last con-di-tion.
Burial of the Dead.

(p) Ah! that day of tears and mourning! From the dust of earth...

re-turn-ing (f) Man for (f') judgment must... prepare him; Spare,

O God, in mer-cy spare him! (pp) Lord, all pity-ing, Je-su Blest,

(dim) Grant them Thine eternal rest. (pp) Amen.

Hymn 437. For all the Saints.—10 10 10 4. (Second Tune.)

Verses 1, 2.

For all the Saints who from their labours rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesus, be for ever blest.
Alleluia!

Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress, and their Might;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought
Thou in the darkness drear their one true Light.
Alleluia!

Verses 7, 8.

But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The Saints triumphant rise in bright array:
The King of glory passes on His way.
Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Alleluia!

"Compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses."

Verses 3, 4.
O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the Saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.
Alleluia!

Verses 5, 6.
And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.
Alleluia!

O blest communion! fellowship Divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.
Alleluia!

The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.
Alleluia!
